

iii Lyndon Baines Johnson (1908-1973) was born in a farmhouse near Stonewall, Texas. His grandfather and father both served in the Texas legislature. An old story says that his grandfather, on the day the boy was born, declared, "He'll be a United States senator someday." The young Johnson attended high school in Johnson City, named for his family, and graduated at 15. After working on a road-building crew, he worked his way to California doing odd jobs as an elevator operator, a car washer, and a handyman in a café.

iv Returning home, he went back to his road-building jobs, but by this time, he later said, "it became increasingly apparent to me that there was something in this idea of higher education." He worked his way through Southwest State Teachers College and graduated in 1930. After teaching public speaking and debate in a Houston high school, he became secretary to Representative Richard M. Kleberg of Texas. This was Johnson's introduction to national politics.

v It was during this period that he met Claudia Taylor, who was usually called Lady Bird. It was a name given to her by her family's cook and one which she had tried to shake off. After a six-week whirlwind courtship, she and the young congressional secretary were married in November, 1934. Since her nickname gave her the same initials as her new husband, she was never called anything else, even in official biographies.

vi In Washington, Lyndon Johnson came to the attention of President Roosevelt, who appointed him Texas director of the National Youth Administration. After two years in the job, Johnson resigned to run for Congress. He defeated nine other candidates in 1937 and served in the House of Representatives for 12 years. Three days after war was declared in 1941, he became the first member of Congress to enter active duty. Serving as a lieutenant-colonel in the Navy, he won the Silver Star for gallantry in action on a flight over enemy positions in New Guinea.

vii In 1948 Johnson was elected to the Senate by a margin of 87 votes in a contest in which almost 500,000 ballots were cast. He jokingly referred to himself at the time as "Landslide Lyndon." But in 1954, running again for the same office, he was re-elected by an overwhelming majority. By 1952, at age 44, Johnson had become the youngest majority leader of the U.S. Senate in history.

viii After campaigning against John F. Kennedy in 1960 for the Democratic presidential nomination, Johnson, to the surprise of his supporters, accepted the nomination for vice-president. In that office, he had a close working relationship with the President, who had a very different character and background than his. He was given a large share of the responsibilities for the space program and also for race relations in industry. Under his persuasion, nearly fifty major companies agreed to reject racial barriers in their personnel policies. The Vice-President also traveled throughout the world as the President's personal envoy to foreign heads of state.

Lyndon Baines Johnson A See And Read Biography:

Lyndon Johnson and the American Dream Doris Kearns Goodwin, 2015-08-04 With a new foreword The New York Times bestselling biography of President Lyndon Johnson from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of Team of Rivals Featuring a 2018 foreword by the Pulitzer Prize winning political historian that celebrates a reappraisal of Lyndon Johnson's legacy five decades after his presidency from the vantage point of our current profoundly altered political culture and climate Doris Kearns Goodwin's extraordinary and insightful biography draws from meticulous research in addition to the author's time spent working at the White House from 1967 to 1969 After Johnson's term ended Goodwin remained his confidante and assisted in the preparation of his memoir In Lyndon Johnson and the American Dream she traces the 36th president's life from childhood to his early days in politics and from his leadership of the Senate to his presidency analyzing his dramatic years in the White House including both his historic domestic triumphs and his failures in Vietnam Drawing on personal anecdotes and candid conversation with Johnson Goodwin paints a rich and complicated portrait of one of our nation's most compelling politicians in the most penetrating fascinating political biography I have ever read The New York Times TIME Magazine Biography--Lyndon B. Johnson Garth Sundem, 2014-02-01 Introduce biographies with fun creative activities that teach literacy skills and more Stimulate student interest with the color TIME Magazine cover Focus on the background information time line comprehension questions and extension ideas The Path to Power Robert A. Caro, 2011-11-23 The Years of Lyndon Johnson is the political biography of our time No president no era of American politics has been so intensively and sharply examined at a time when so many prime witnesses to hitherto untold or misinterpreted facets of a life a career and a period of history could still be persuaded to speak The Path to Power Book One reveals in extraordinary detail the genesis of the almost superhuman drive energy and urge to power that set LBJ apart Chronicling the startling early emergence of Johnson's political genius it follows him from his Texas boyhood through the years of the Depression in the Texas hill Country to the triumph of his congressional debut in New Deal Washington to his heartbreaking defeat in his first race for the Senate and his attainment nonetheless of the national power for which he hungered We see in him from earliest childhood a fierce unquenchable necessity to be first to win to dominate coupled with a limitless capacity for hard unceasing labor in the service of his own ambition Caro shows us the big gangling awkward young Lyndon raised in one of the country's most desperately poor and isolated areas his education mediocre at best his pride stung by his father's slide into failure and financial ruin lunging for success moving inexorably toward that ultimate impossible goal that he sets for himself years before any friend or enemy suspects what it may be We watch him while still at college instinctively and ruthlessly creating the beginnings of the political machine that was to serve him for three decades We see him employing his extraordinary ability to mesmerize and manipulate powerful older men to mesmerize and sometimes almost enslave useful subordinates We see him carrying out before his thirtieth year his first great political inspiration tapping and becoming the political conduit for the money and influence of the new oil men and contractors who were to grow with him to immense power We follow close up the radical fluctuations of his relationships with the formidable Mr Sam Raybum who loved him like a son and whom he betrayed and with FDR himself And we follow the dramas of his emotional life the intensities and complications of his relationships with his family his contemporaries his girls his wooing and winning of the shy Lady Bird his secret love affair over many years with the mistress of one of his most ardent and generous supporters Johnson driving his people to the point of exhausted tears equally merciless with himself Johnson bullying cajoling lying yet inspiring an amazing loyalty Johnson maneuvering to dethrone the unassailable old Jack Garner then Vice President of the United States as the New Deal s connection in Texas and seize the power himself Johnson raging Johnson hugging Johnson bringing light and indeed life to the worn Hill Country farmers and their old at thirty wives via the district s first electric lines We see him at once unscrupulous admirable treacherous devoted And we see the country that bred him the harshness and nauseating loneliness of the rural life the tragic panorama of the Depression the sudden glow of hope at the dawn of the Age of Roosevelt And always in the foreground on the move LBJ Here is Lyndon Johnson his Texas his Washington his America in a book that brings us as close as we have ever been to a true perception of political genius and the American political process
