MacArthur's Japanese Constitution Kyoko Inoue, 1991-02 The Japanese constitution as revised by General MacArthur in 1946 while generally regarded to be an outstanding basis for a liberal democracy is at the same time widely considered to be in its Japanese form an document which is alien and incompatible with Japanese culture Using both linguistics and historical data Kyoto Inoue argues that despite the inclusion of alien concepts and ideas this constitution is nonetheless fundamentally a Japanese document that can stand on its own This is an important book This is the most significant work on postwar Japanese constitutional history to appear in the West It is highly instructive about the century long process of cultural conflict in the evolution of government and society in modern Japan Thomas W Burkman Monumenta Nipponica The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey, 2014-07-01 On 26 December 1900 the vessel Hesperus arrived at Eilean Mor in the remote Outer Hebrides with a relief lighthouseman and fresh provisions The lighthouse had been in operation for a year but it had been noted that no light had been seen from Eilean Mor for several days The relief keeper Joseph Moore found the lighthouse to be completely deserted and a subsequent search of the island failed to reveal any sign of what had happened to the three keepers The last entry in the logbook had been made on 15 December and contained a number of strange and distressing clues as to the mental states of the men One was reported to have been crying while another had become very quiet When it was revealed that the men's oilskin coats were missing and the clock in the lighthouse had stopped theories surrounding the keepers' fates inevitably proliferated These included a giant wave washing them away murder or suicide Others favoured more esoteric explanations Eilean Mor was believed to have mystical properties In The Lighthouse Keith McCloskey explores this mysterious and chilling story in depth for the first time and reveals a shocking conclusion Revealing the Inner Worlds of Young Children Robert N.
