Macdougalls Destiny:

Memory and Violence in the Middle East and North Africa Ussama Samir Makdisi, Paul A. Silverstein, 2006 The Middle East and North Africa form a region united by a common history of armed conflict and repeated international efforts at producing a lasting peace This interdisciplinary collection explores the connections between memories of past violence and the violence of present memories the context for all contemporary efforts at conflict resolution and reconciliation The contributors examine the 1954 1962 Franco Algerian war the 1975 1991 Lebanese civil war and the ongoing Arab Israeli conflict as interconnected struggles that outline national polities infranational fractures and transnational political connections Insofar as national unity has been constructed on the contested claims of sacrifice and martyrdom the legacy of violence has remained inscribed at the heart of political identity The case studies point to the failure of current attempts to officially forget past conflicts at the same time indicating local successes in commemorative actions that forge at least partial peaces between individuals and groups Ussama Makdisi is Associate Professor of History at Rice University and the first holder of the Arab American Educational Foundation Chair of Arab Studies He is author of The Culture of Sectarianism Community History and Violence in Nineteenth Century Ottoman Lebanon Paul Silverstein is Associate Professor of Anthropology at Reed College and author of Algeria in France Transpolitics Race and Nation IUP 2004 He has conducted research in France Algeria and Morocco and is a member of the editorial board of Middle East Report
