Major Black Religious Leaders Since 194:

James H. Cone and Black Liberation Theology Rufus Burrow, 1994 Since Cone's Black Theology and Black Power was first published in 1969 he has been recognized as one of the most creative contemporary black theologians. Roundly criticized by white theologians, the book and Cone's subsequent writings nevertheless gave voice and viability to the developing black theological movement of the late 1960s. Despite his influence on the African American religious community, scholars have written very little about his works in part because of the sharp rhetoric and polemics of his first two books. Discussed here are some of his major writings from his first essay Christianity and Black Power 1968 through the major work Martin Malcolm America 1991. The systematic development of his themes: social and economic analysis, black sexism, relations between black feminist and so-called third world theologies etc. is fully explained. Black Religion in the Madhouse

Judith Weisenfeld, 2025-04-29 Black Religion in the Madhouse traces the encounter between African Americans and American psychiatry in the decades after the end of slavery and into the twentieth century, showing how white psychiatrists pathologized African American religion and exploring the implications of these theories and practices for Black patients.

Religious Leadership in National Political Conflict Lloyd Tichaenda Nyarota, 2013-03-07 It is one thing for a religious leader to confront and challenge political leaders it is altogether another thing when such a leader becomes a partisan political leader This is what happened in the case of Bishop Abel Tendekai a bishop of the United Methodist Church For such a religious leader to attempt to traverse both worlds political and religious are in some ways uncharted waters in other ways they are treacherous waters The pages which follow in this lucid and detailed volume is an effort to look back on the challenge and complexity of moving from colonialism to independence to the making of a new independent nation on the Continent of Africa What happens when the prophetic voice expected of and from the Church becomes the identified political entity How does it challenge itself or how is it distinguished from the political power it seeks to hold accountable on behalf of all the people These are several of the questions Nyarota tackles through the examination of the impact of the struggle for liberation upon the United Methodist Church its leader Bishop Muzorewa as both find themselves in the midst of nation building political struggle and the vying for political power

The Boundaries of Blackness Cathy J. Cohen, 2009-01-13 Last year more African Americans were reported with AIDS than any other racial or ethnic group And while African Americans make up only 13 percent of the U S population they account for more than 55 percent of all newly diagnosed HIV infections These alarming developments have caused reactions ranging from profound grief to extreme anger in African American communities yet the organized political reaction has remained remarkably restrained The Boundaries of Blackness is the first full scale exploration of the social political and cultural impact of AIDS on the African American community Informed by interviews with activists ministers public officials and people with AIDS Cathy Cohen unflinchingly brings to light how the epidemic fractured rather than united the black community She traces how the disease separated blacks along different fault lines and analyzes the ensuing struggles and debates More broadly Cohen analyzes how other cross cutting issues of class gender and sexuality challenge accepted ideas of who belongs in the community Such issues she predicts will increasingly occupy the political agendas of black organizations and institutions and can lead to either greater inclusiveness or further divisiveness The Boundaries of Blackness by examining the response of a changing community to an issue laced with stigma has much to teach us about oppression resistance and marginalization It also offers valuable insight into how the politics of the African American community and other marginal groups will evolve in the twenty first century Black Zion Yvonne Patricia Chireau,Nathaniel Deutsch,2000 This is an exploration of the interaction between African American religions and Jewish traditions beliefs and spaces The collection s argument is that religion is the missing piece of the cultural jigsaw and black Jewish relations need the religious roots of their problem illuminated Race, Nation, and Religion in the Americas Henry Goldschmidt,Elizabeth McAlister,2004-08-12 This collection of all new essays will explore the complex and unstable articulations of race and religion that have helped to produce Black White Creole Indian Asian and other racialized identities and communities in the Americas Drawing on original research in a range of disciplines the authors will investigate 1 how the intertwined categories of race and religion have defined and been defined by global relations of power and inequality 2 how racial and religious identities shape the everyday lives of individuals and communities and 3 how racialized and marginalized communities use religion and religious discourses to contest the persistent power of racism in societies structured by inequality Taken together these essays will define a new standard of critical conversation on race and religion throughout the Americas Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman,2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century The Handy Religion Answer Book John Renard,2012-04-01 An engaging question and answer guide to the world s major religions Why do conflicts in the name of God persist even though religious scholars agree that all great religions are based on love not carnage What do different faiths have to say about God About the afterlife The spiritual world we live in today is a diverse and sometimes highly individualized mixture of religious practices and beliefs The physical world is a much smaller place often secular in appearance but still very much fueled by religious beliefs and conflict in the name of God The Handy Religion Answer Book is an easy to use comparative guide for anyone seeking a greater understanding of the world s religious beliefs customs and practices It provides solid descriptions of major beliefs and rituals worldwide affording the reader an understanding of contemporary religion This book contains detailed descriptions of the history beliefs symbols rituals observations customs membership leaders and organization of the world s eight major religious traditions Judaism Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism Confucianism Taoism and Shinto Clearly and eloquently written by a scholar with over 40 years of study and teaching experience The Handy Religion Answer Book is an engaging guide for anyone seeking basic religious literacy and intellectual history This handy primer contains a wealth of information and answers more than 1 000 questions such as What is the significance of the Star of David How did so many different Christian churches come into being What is the importance of the month of Ramadan What is an ayatollah Do Taoists believe in heaven and hell What are the main Islamic notions of the afterlife Who is the Dalai Lama and why is he important to so many Buddhists Plus it includes questions concerning religion and violence and suborganizations that claim affiliation with the major faith communities A glossary of religious terminology and maps of the general coverage areas for each religion are also included Enlightening and educational The Handy Religion Answer Book clears up misinformation and misconceptions and helps explain cultural and historical differences providing the reader with a comprehensive understanding of the world s great religions A Legacy of Preaching, Volume Two---Enlightenment to the Present Day Zondervan,2018-11-13 A

Legacy of Preaching Volume Two Enlightenment to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures pastors scholars and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today Volume Two covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty one preachers including Charles Simeon by Darrell Young Robert Murray M Cheyne by Jordan Mark Stone Alexander Maclaren by R Scott Pace Catherine Booth by Roger J Green Charles Haddon Spurgeon by Thomas J Nettles Rodney Gipsy Smith by Bill Curtis George Liele by Terriel Byrd Charles Finney by Robert W Caldwell III John Jasper by Alfonza W Fulwood and Robert Smith Jr Henry Ward Beecher by Michael Duduit John Albert Broadus by Hershael W York Phillips Brooks by Charles W Fuller D L Moody by Gregg L Quiggle B H Carroll by Robert Matz and Jerry Sutton Billy Sunday by Kristopher K Barnett Karl Barth by William H Willimon Dietrich Bonhoeffer by Keith W Clements D Martyn Lloyd Jones by Carl Trueman John Stott by Greg R Scharf Harry Emerson Fosdick by Dwayne Milioni R G Lee by Charles A Fowler Aimee Semple McPherson by Aaron Friesen W A Criswell by David L Allen Gardner C Taylor by Alfonza W Fulwood and Robert Smith Jr Billy Graham by John N Akers Martin Luther King Jr by Alfonza W Fulwood Dennis R McDonald and Anil Sook Deo Adrian Rogers by Daniel L Akin and Bill Curtis E V Hill by Dante D Wright I Jerry Falwell by Edward E Hindson J I Packer by Leland Ryken and Benjamin Hernandez Volume One available separately covers the period from the apostles to the Puritans and profiles thirty preachers including Paul Origen of Alexandria
