Major Philosophers Of Jewish Prayer In The Twentieth Century:

Major Philosophers of Jewish Prayer in the Twentieth Century Jack Cohen, 2000 This book addresses the troubling questions confronting the modern Jewish worshiper by bringing to the reader the insights of such twentieth century Jewish theologians as Herman Cohen Franz Rosenzweig Avraham Y Kook Mordecai M Kaplan R Arele Aaron Rote Elie Munk Abraham J Heschel Jakob J Petuchowski Eugene B Borowitz and Lawrence A Hoffman as well as a variety of feminist theologians By discussing these theologians the author discusses a variety of obstacles to prayer the inability to concentrate on the words and meaning of formal liturgies the paucity of emotional involvement and lack of theological conviction among worshipers and the anthropomorphic and particularly the masculine emphasis of prayer nomenclature The result is a book of great interest not just for Jewish worshipers but for anyone interested in the meaning of prayer and the modern approaches to it

Hidden Light Dan Chyutin, 2023-09-12 Contemporary Israeli cinema's engagement with Judaism as cultural identity and mystical tradition Over the past several decades the prevailing attitude toward Judaism in Israeli society has undergone a meaningful shift where the national ethos had once deemed Judaic traditions a vestige of an arcane past incompatible with the culture of a modern state there is now greater acceptance of these traditions by a sizeable part of Israeli society Author Dan Chyutin reveals this trend through a parallel shift toward acceptance and celebration of Judaic identity and lifestyle in modern Israeli cinema Hidden Light explores the Judaic turn in contemporary Israeli filmmaking for what it can tell us about Israel's cultural landscape as well as about the cinematic medium in general Chyutin points to the ambivalence of films which incorporate Judaism into Israel's secular ethos concurrently he foregrounds the films attempt to overcome this ambivalence through reference to and activation of experiences of transcendence and unity made popular by New Age inflected understandings of Jewish mystical thought By virtue of this exploration Judaic themed Israeli cinema emerges as a crucial example of how film's particular form of magic may be exploited for the purpose of affecting mystical states in the audience

McDowell, 2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men's prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men
