Major Dad:

Major Mistake Rodney L. Baumberger, 2011-09-29 Major Brown is an average man with an average job working in the coal fields He is deeply in love with his wife Jill and their son Brok A day of happiness is rudely destroyed by the avarice of a man that makes his living on the black market of illegal child adoption But Major Brown has more tools than most people He is a black belt in karate and in quarter staff fighting and he is more than eager to use all of his skills He quits his job and uses his unique talents to find his child This isn't his only adventure Read about the fight seen around the world as he is the only man who might have a chance at saving the lives of a group of people that are being murdered by a maddog killer who wants to force Major to face him

Dad Bod Cian Cruise, 2022-06-07 A brisk humorous collection of essays that redefines the mythos of fatherhood depicted in film television and video games What do dads tell us about the world Not your real dad but dads in general Dads are everywhere Lurking in our movies television shows and video games Spouting homespun wisdom and atrocious jokes wallowing in might have beens and back in my days or rigidly defending the status quo These fictional dads fuel a myth of fatherhood What is that myth trying to tell us And what is it trying to sell us Dad Bod is a clever riveting collection of essays about father figures in popular culture From Gandalf to Homer Simpson Die Hard to The Mandalorian these essays unpack the tropes that inform our collective image of fatherhood Follow Cian Cruise newly minted dad as he riffs on the stereotypes and lore of fatherhood traces a contemporary art history of dads in popular culture and journeys to the heart of dadness to become a better father

The Living Bread Thomas Merton,1915 The whole problem of our time is the problem of love How are we going to recover the ability to love ourselves and to love one another We cannot be at peace with others because we are not at peace with ourselves and we cannot be at peace with ourselves because we are not at peace with God There is a distinction between a contrite sense of sin and a feeling of guilt The former is a true and healthy thing the latter tends to be false and pathological The man who suffers from a sense of guilt does not want to feel guilty but at the same time he does not want to be innocent He wants to do what he thinks he must not do without the pain of worrying about the consequences The history of our time has been made by dictators whose characters often transparently easy to read have been full of repressed guilt They have managed to enlist the support of masses of men moved by the same repressed drives as themselves Modern dictatorships display everywhere a deliberate and calculated hatred for human nature as such The technique of degradation used in concentration camps and in staged trials are all too familiar in our time They have one purpose to defile the human person Hart's Annual Army List, Special Reserve List, and Territorial Force List ,1912
