Make Disciples Reaching The Postmodern World For Christ:

Make Disciples! Terry A. Bowland, 1999 Let us make no mistake about it Evangelism is not simply learning Bible facts Evangelism is not simply understanding sociological information Evangelism is taking part in God s great work of redeeming the world through Christ It is to reach out and allow God s power and presence to extend into the lives of people through our daily lives When we increasingly become aware of God working within us the result will be joy joy in our daily tasks and joy in the lives we touch Wherever God s will is done the ultimate result for us will be joy Invitation to Educational Ministry George Hillman, Sue Edwards, 2018-09-25 Because teaching is at the heart of Christian ministry the editors of Invitation to Educational Ministry have assembled a team of seasoned experts to present a comprehensive plan of Christian education This volume will help church staff parachurch leaders and small group teachers become more effective influential and creative After laying a biblical and practical foundation for Christian education the contributors provide specific guidance on teaching a variety of individuals and groups including children adults singles seniors and non Christians The final section shares valuable insights on leading small groups teaching innovatively and overseeing a healthy educational ministry among other topics Each chapter is designed to equip educators with the most relevant information and includes many useful features Real life case studies Scriptural support Explanations of key terms and concepts Practical suggestions Resources for additional study Sidebars illustrating best principles and practices Questions of the Soul S. Thomas Valentine, 2015-01-27 The Festival of Young Preachers is a trans denominational one of a kind event designed to showcase and encourage young people who aspire to be preachers of the Gospel Questions of the Soul celebrates the preaching ministry of the millennial generation with its collection of sermons preached during the 2014 Festival Sacred Subdivisions Justin Wilford, 2012-11-19 In an era where church attendance has reached an all time low recent polling has shown that Americans are becoming less formally religious and more promiscuous in their religious commitments Within both mainline and evangelical Christianity in America it is common to hear of secularizing pressures and increasing competition from nonreligious sources Yet there is a kind of religious institution that has enjoyed great popularity over the past thirty years the evangelical megachurch Evangelical megachurches not only continue to grow in number but also in cultural political and economic influence To appreciate their appeal is to understand not only how they are innovating but more crucially where their innovation is taking place In this groundbreaking and interdisciplinary study Justin G Wilford argues that the success of the megachurch is hinged upon its use of space its location on the postsuburban fringe of large cities its fragmented dispersed structure and its focus on individualized spaces of intimacy such as small group meetings in homes which help to interpret suburban life as religiously meaningful and create a sense of belonging Based on original fieldwork at Rick Warren s Saddleback Church one of the largest and most influential megachurches in America Sacred Subdivisions explains how evangelical megachurches thrive by transforming mundane secular spaces into arenas of religious significance Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28:19-20. Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements. The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth, Emergent Church, and Missional Church movements. Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication. In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus. Informed by these critiques, formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches. Preaching to a Postmodern World Graham M. Johnston, 2001-07-01 While growing churches dot our urban centers and country landscapes, churchgoers and students today are actually less likely to maintain a Christian worldview than in the past. In fact, the majority of society does not even believe in objective truth. A minister out of touch with this culture is like an uninformed missionary trying to teach in a foreign country. To communicate God's Word effectively in the twenty-first century, teachers need to know how to connect with and confront an audience of postmodern listeners. In Preaching to a Postmodern World, Johnston shows pastors, seminary students, professors, lay teachers, and church leaders can reach the present age without selling out to it. The book discusses how to distinguish between modernism and postmodernism, understand postmodern worldviews, change the style of preaching without compromising the substance, take advantage of new opportunities provided by the cultural shift, show an inattentive society the relevance of God's truth. The author's keen insights into contemporary pop and media culture also help equip speakers to address today's listeners with clarity and relevance. The Great Commission: The Solution . . . (Study Guide) Raymond F. Culpepper, 2009 Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays, Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts. From their own perspectives, they address questions like: What are the challenges you face? What biblical images shape your missional practice? What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities? What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith? Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness. Indeed, each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard. The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike. Likewise, they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia, Latin and North America, Europe, and Oceania. Each voice is distinct, but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love. In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace, the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ. In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism, the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another. To be the ambassadors of the gospel, we need each other, and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own. This volume takes a large step in that vital direction. American Women in Mission Dana Lee Robert, 1996 The stereotype of the woman missionary has ranged from that of the long-suffering wife characterized by the epitaph 'Died given over to hospitality' to that of the spinster in her unstylish dress and wire-rimmed glasses alone somewhere for thirty years teaching heathen children. Like all caricatures, those of the exhausted wife and frustrated old maid carry some truth. The underlying message of the stereotypes is that missionary women were perceived as marginal to the central tasks of mission. Rather than being remembered for preaching the gospel, the quintessential male task, missionary women were noted for meeting human needs and helping others, sacrificing themselves without plan or reason, all for the sake of bringing the world to Jesus Christ. Historical evidence, however, gives lie to the truism that women missionaries were and are doers but not thinkers, reactive secondary figures rather than proactive primary ones. The first American women to serve as foreign missionaries in 1812 were among the best educated women of their time. Although barred from obtaining the college education or ministerial credentials of their husbands, the early missionary wives had read their Jonathan Edwards and Samuel Hopkins. Not only did they go abroad with particular theologies to share but their identities as women caused them to develop gender-based mission theories. Early nineteenth-century women seldom wrote theologies of mission but they wrote letters and kept journals that reveal a thought world and set of assumptions about women's roles in the missionary task. The activities of missionary wives were not random; they were part of a mission strategy that gave women a particular role in the advancement of the reign of God. By moving from mission field to mission field in chronological order of missionary presence, Robert charts missiological developments as they took place in dialogue with the urgent context of the day. Each case study marks the beginning of the mission theory. Baptist women in Burma, for example, are only considered in their first decades there and are not traced into the present. Robert believes that at this early stage of research into women's mission theory, integrity and analysis lie more in a succession of contextualized case studies than in gross generalizations.

The Church Made Flesh Alan Todd, 2014-12-19 In his book The Church Made Flesh, Alan takes the spiritual pulse of the Pentecostal Apostolic Church and lays bare its true condition. Tapping into a rich spiritual repertoire of experiences, both anecdotal and other erudite sources, this book is a tour de force that revisits bedrock issues such as the cost of discipleship, church planting, and church order, among others. Employing a fruitful dialectic of tension, these issues are explored in the intersection between the nascent Apostolic Church of the first century AD and its contemporary incarnation. The denouement is an incisive, accessible, candid, and profound exposition that is a must in every discerning minister and layperson's library. Paul Thomas, PhD, Education, Kings College London, Lecturer, University of Oslo, Norway, Institute for Pedagogy, Comparative and International Education. Give yourself this book and then help God solve the next vexing problem in the North American Apostolic church. Sorry, this book is not designed to grace the shelf of your library. You should really read it on your knees. Embark on your journey with tears in your eyes. Bishop Paul Reynolds, International Honorary General, Presbyterian United Pentecostal Church International. The Church Made Flesh challenges today's commonly adopted church system of attraction.

by comparing it the 1st century's church model which exercised Apostolic authority by going out to the world Without apology Alan combats the readers thinking on how well today's church is executing the Great Commission and touching the lives of people of all nations For those that are ready to effect change in this world the biblical way this is a book that you must not only have but study and wrestle with Michael Whitton Minister of Operations Global Apostolic Ministries Toronto Canada

A Strategy For Reaching Secular People Ernan A. Norman, D. Min., 2007-05-11 Dr Ernan A Norman D Min has identified strategies to implement John 13:35 All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other An excellent source for the essential principles of discipleship in a postmodern world This book is written in nontechnical language based on the experiences as a student pastor and professor I believe that the concepts presented are fundamental and are in harmony with the model demonstrated by Jesus during His ministry on earth Meeting people at their level putting their needs ahead of His own treating people with respect befriending the nonreligious and inviting them into a relationship with Himself are some of the concepts that are identified and supported as strategies for reaching secular people This book is an outstanding and important piece of work and easily readable I would urge A Strategy for Reaching Secular People on members and leaders in every church if they are willing to challenge basic assumptions and embrace change relative to reaching lost people Strategies that remove the barriers that keep people from hearing about God's love and to create a warm friendly uncritical and non judgmental attitude of acceptance are clearly presented Full of practical how to's and watch out's this book by Ernan Norman is for individuals serious about sharing the love of God As we interact with and minister to secular people matters such as marriage and family academics employment addictions and human rights must be addressed Norman clearly gives strategies for intentional efforts to reach secular postmodern men and women in our day The central concept is the example of Jesus that we should follow A must read Weymouth Spence Ed D President of Washington Adventist University

Bible Study for Busy Pastors and Ministers, Volume 3 Reginald F. Davis, 2024-04-08 Now more than ever before pastors and ministers should make sure the Word of God goes forth in a world that has lost its moral and spiritual way In America we are living on the edge When we go to the marketplaces schools churches outside activities we don't know if a mass shooting might take place We don't know what to expect in public places because violence and killings have become commonplace Many of our youth are dying from drug poisoning gun shootings and suicide Racial hatred is on the rise and kids are taking guns to school causing lockdowns and distress All around us is sorrow sadness and senselessness The only hope light and transformation is God's Word and its application These thematically arranged Bible lessons can help in the process of humanity finding their way back to God through Jesus Christ American Book Publishing Record, 2005 New Doors in Ministry to Women Sue Edwards, Kelley Mathews, Foreword by Vickie Kraft A revolutionary biblical approach to life changing women's ministries in churches on campuses and around the world Reaching People Under 40 while Keeping People over 60 Edward H Hammett, 2007-02-01 Many established churches are facing a number of challenges in today's increasingly secular culture. Such a shift in many communities creates a challenge of church growth and church health when it seems that satisfying the needs of one group creates barriers to reaching another group. So many are asking, "How do you keep people over sixty years of age who often hold church culture values while at the same time reach people under forty who often hold postmodern values?" If a church is interested in growing, this situation becomes a major challenge. Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at the church as it seeks to function in a new world. It looks at the differences in the generations and at postmodernism not just a generational difference but a global change. Most importantly, Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at what a church can do in this new age to help the church survive and thrive. Foreword by Bill Easum. A TCP Leadership Series title. Organic Ministry to Women Sue Edwards, Kelley Matthews, 2019-09-24. With Millennial and Generation Z women coming of age in our churches and society, new approaches to women's ministry are required to meet their distinct needs. Drawing on decades of experience ministering to women, authors Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews explain how their Transformation Model can energize women's ministry for all generations and in multiple settings. Individual chapters are devoted to applying the Model which is centered on Scripture and building relationships to ministry in the local church, the college campus, and cross-culturally in missions. Organic Ministry to Women is packed with practical advice and real-life illustrations of how to implement the principles of the Transformation Model. Edwards and Mathews also profile numerous leading women's ministers like Jen Wilkin, Priscilla Shirer, and Jackie Hill Perry, drawing wisdom and inspiration from their lives and ministries. Helpful appendixes provide additional resources including sample job descriptions for ministry leaders, a Bible study lesson, and a training guide for small group leaders. A revised and expanded version of New Doors in Ministry to Women, this updated edition takes into account the latest cultural and ministry trends and is an invaluable resource for current and future leaders in ministry to women.

The Beauty of the Faith Joseph D. Wooddell, 2010-09-23. Nearly everyone finds beauty compelling, so Christian apologists should devise ways to present an aesthetic Christian apologetic. Nearly all apologists admit that the beauty of a life well lived and the beauty of the Christian community along with the use of media and the arts are not only helpful for apologetics but essential in a postmodern culture. In fact, it is frustrating to see how many apologists mention the need for such an approach but go on devoting most of their energies to traditional approaches. This book is different. It clearly shows the pros and cons of traditional approaches and offers a fresh perspective as well, arguing that beauty is the most compelling apologetic and suggesting ways to implement such an approach. It demonstrates how Western culture arrived in its current unfortunate situation and uses both Scripture and figures like Athenagoras and Jonathan Edwards to challenge current views on apologetics. The Great Commission Connection Raymond F. Culpepper, Editor, 2011. The Call Cletus L. Hull III, 2019-04-04. Join me in an adventure of moving a local church in western Pennsylvania from the traditional 1950s style to a 21st-century missions-minded contemporary congregation. In The Call, you'll find insights into the challenges of leading a church into uncharted waters through the biblical teaching of effective evangelism and discipleship Discover how the Bible vision creativity teamwork and more relate to today s postmodern churches You are invited to share in the surprising love of God found just a few miles northeast of the city of Pittsburgh PA The Call will encourage your congregation regardless of your size The Call encourages us to build a church on the foundation of scripture and address her specific needs With resolve and perseverance we can minister successfully to REACH TOUCH and BLESS our spheres of influence for Christ God's Glory Revealed in Christ James Hamilton,Denny Burk,Brian J.
