Make Straight The Path A 300 Year Pilgrimage Archdiocese Of Detroit:

Make Straight the Path Roman Godzak, 2000 Made in Detroit Paul Clemens, 2006-10-10 A New York Times Notable Book A powerfully candid memoir about growing up white in Detroit and the conflicted point of view it produced Raised in Detroit during the 70s 80s and 90s Paul Clemens saw his family growing steadily isolated from its surroundings white in a predominately black city Catholic in an area where churches were closing at a rapid rate and blue collar in a steadily declining Rust Belt As the city continued to collapse from depopulation indifference and the racial antagonism between blacks and whites Clemens turned to writing and literature as his lifeline his way of dealing with his contempt for suburban escapees and his frustration with the city proper Sparing no one particularly not himself this is an astonishing examination of race and class relations from a fresh perspective one forged in a city both desperate and hopeful Historic Cities of the Americas David F. Marley, 2005-09-12 With rare maps prints and photographs this unique volume explores the dramatic history of the Americas through the birth and development of the hemisphere's great cities Written by award winning author David F Marley Historic Cities of the Americas covers the hard to find information of these cities earliest years including the unique aspects of each region's economy and demography such as the growth of local mining trade or industry The chronological layout aided by the numerous maps and photographs reveals the exceptional changes relocations destruction and transformations these cities endured to become the metropolises they are today Historic Cities of the Americas provides over 70 extensively detailed entries covering the foundation and evolution of the most significant urban areas in the western hemisphere Critically researched this work offers a rare look into the times prior to Christopher Columbus arrival in 1492 and explores the common difficulties overcome by these European conquered or founded cities as they flourished into some of the most influential locations in the world Muslim American City Alisa Perkins, 2020-07-07 Explores how Muslim Americans test the boundaries of American pluralism In 2004 the al Islah Islamic Center in Hamtramck Michigan set off a contentious controversy when it requested permission to use loudspeakers to broadcast the adh n or Islamic call to prayer The issue gained international notoriety when media outlets from around the world flocked to the city to report on what had become a civil battle between religious tolerance and Islamophobic sentiment The Hamtramck council voted unanimously to allow mosques to broadcast the adh n making it one of the few US cities to officially permit it through specific legislation Muslim American City explores how debates over Muslim Americans use of both public and political space have challenged and ultimately reshaped the boundaries of urban belonging Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic research in Hamtramck which boasts one of the largest concentrations of Muslim residents of any American city Alisa Perkins shows how the Muslim American population has grown and asserted itself in public life She explores for example the efforts of Muslim American women to maintain gender norms in neighborhoods mosques and schools as well as Muslim Americans efforts to organize public responses to municipal initiatives Her in depth fieldwork incorporates the perspectives of both Muslims and non Muslims including Polish Catholics African American Protestants and other city residents Drawing particular attention to Muslim American expressions of religious and cultural identity in civil life particularly in response to discrimination and stereotyping Perkins questions the popular assumption that the religiosity of Muslim minorities hinders their capacity for full citizenship in secular societies She shows how Muslims and non Muslims have through their negotiations over the issues over the use of space together invested Muslim practice with new forms of social capital and challenged nationalist and secularist notions of belonging
