Black Politics in Transition Candis Watts Smith, Christina Greer, 2018-10-17 Black Politics in Transition considers the impact of three transformative forces immigration suburbanization and gentrification on Black politics today Demographic changes resulting from immigration and ethnic blending are dramatically affecting the character and identity of Black populations throughout the US Black Americans are becoming more ethnically diverse at the same time that they are sharing space with newcomers from near and far In addition the movement of Black populations out of the cities to which they migrated a generation ago a reverse migration to the American South in some cases and in other cases a movement from cities to suburbs shifts the locus of Black politics At the same time middle class and white populations are returning to cities displacing low income Blacks and immigrants alike in a renewal of gentrification All this makes for an important laboratory of discovery among social scientists including the diverse range of authors represented here Drawing on a wide array of disciplinary perspectives and methodological strategies original chapters analyze the geography of opportunity for Black Americans and Black politics in accessible jargon free language Moving beyond the Black white binary this book explores the tri part relationship among Blacks whites and Latinos as well Some of the most important developments in Black politics are happening at state and local levels today and this book captures that for students scholars and citizens engaged in this dynamic milieu US Black Engineer & IT ,1999-07 The Wrong Complexion for Protection Robert D. Bullard,Beverly Wright,2023-09-05 Uncovers the ways the United States government responds to natural and human induced disasters in relation to race over the past eight decades When the images of desperate hungry thirsty sick mostly black people circulated in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina it became apparent to the whole country that race did indeed matter when it came to government assistance In The Wrong Complexion for Protection Robert D Bullard and Beverly Wright place the government response to natural and human induced disasters in historical context over the past eight decades They compare and contrast how the government responded to emergencies including environmental and public health emergencies toxic contamination industrial accidents bioterrorism threats and show that African Americans are disproportionately affected Bullard and Wright argue that uncovering and eliminating disparate disaster response can mean the difference between life and death for those most vulnerable in disastrous times America Is Not Post-Racial Algernon Austin,2015-09-09 This book is the first in depth examination of the 25 million Americans with the most intense hatred of President Obama arguably the most Republican friendly of recent Democratic presidents and what the mindsets of these Obama Haters teach us about race and ethnicity in America today Despite the fact that President Obama was raised by a white mother and white grandparents and has two degrees from Ivy League universities he has still been subject to intense racial hatred from a large number of Americans Even after Obama s presidency the Obama Haters and their xenophobia Islamophobia and racism will continue to shape American politics America is certainly not post racial argues author Algernon Austin PhD a noted sociologist and author on racial issues who consults on race politics and economics in Washington DC In this book he uses the Obama Haters as an appropriate jumping off point to consider what strategies might begin to reduce racial animosity in the United States a real concern considering that demographic trends are likely to exacerbate and escalate race based hatred in our society Austin sets the stage for the discussion by establishing that President Obama is hardly liberal in the eyes of liberal political activists raising the question of why Obama is so intensely hated by some conservatives He then compares the views of the Obama Haters estimated to be some 25 million strong with conservatives moderates and liberals who are not Obama Haters The author shows how the Obama Haters are distinctly more xenophobic Islamophobic and racist than political conservatives who are not Obama Haters underscoring the fact that the Obama Haters are motivated by more than just conservatism Congressional Anti-gerrymandering Act of 1979 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs,1979 The Faces of Poverty in North Carolina Gene R. Nichol,2018-11-02 These are the faces of poverty in North Carolina scores of homeless men women and children take refuge in makeshift camps barely hidden in the woods near some of our most affluent neighborhoods Hundreds wait in lines hours long to receive basic health care at underfunded free clinics In large cities and small towns children especially children of color rely on meals at their schools to keep hunger at bay while parents struggle in jobs that fail to pay living wages While many in the Tar Heel State enjoy unparalleled prosperity those born into poverty have lower odds than ever of climbing the ladder of economic upward mobility Today more than 15 million North Carolinians live in poverty More than one in five are children Behind these sobering statistics are the faces of our fellow citizens This book tells their stories Since 2012 Gene R Nichol has traveled the length of North Carolina conducting hundreds of interviews with poor people and those working to alleviate the worst of their circumstances Here their voices challenge all of us to see what is too often invisible to look past partisan divides and preconceived notions and to seek change Only with a full commitment as a society Nichol argues will we succeed in truly ending poverty which he calls our greatest challenge
