History is always corrected myths are always waiting to be broken Without any preparation for a different environment for survival he was mercilessly caught up in the flow of transmigration Suddenly there was a whole new group of people who loved him cared for him hated him and hated him Here he was being watched Was all this what he wanted His arrival had turned history into a mess Even Wu Lin was unable to calm down The Coldest War James Brady,2024-09-04 The author and Korean War veteran vividly describes his time on the frontlines in this military memoir war reporting at its best reads like a novel Walter Cronkite In 1947 seeking to avoid the draft nineteen year old Jim Brady volunteered for a Marine Corps program that made him a lieutenant in the reserves on the day he graduated college He didn t expect to be sent overseas three years later to lead a rifle platoon against a deadly enemy But in Korea he received a rapid education in the realities of war and the pressures of command In The Coldest War Brady vividly describes the miasma of trench warfare how death comes in fits and starts as artillery from both sides seeks out men in their bunkers and how constant alertness is crucial for survival while brutal cold and a seductive silence can lull soldiers into a fatal stupor The Korean War affected the lives of all Americans yet is little known about this Forgotten War Here is the inside story as it deserves to be told Shattered Part 3: The Story of Fatima DD Jewell,2018-01-19 Raised in upper class Black privilege and not accustomed to the word no Fatima Antionette Crosby is a dogmatic tell it like it is young business professional who is the unlikely candidate for a happy ending With a deceased whoremonger father fragile socialite mother and broken gay brother Fatima lives her life in singularity making decisions hap hazardously with no regard to others Very decided on how life should be lived she possesses acute opinions on race sexuality and womanhood Going against the grain of what she defines as Black Love Fatima becomes engaged to a white southern Christian Larry Martin Through her interactions with Larry Fatima redefines her views on religion race and relationships Weeks before their wedding Fatima receives devastating news that shatters her self image and sense of womanhood While disconnecting from others Fatima searches for the only person who can save her life

Negotiating Gendered Language and Social Identities Maki Yoshida,2025-03-19 This book explores gendered language and gender identities negotiated by seven tertiary students of Japanese as an additional language JAL in Australia It demonstrates that while participants are familiar with gendered Japanese as linguistic resources their self-positioned and ascribed learnership nonnative speakerness and non-Japaneseness both inside and outside classroom contexts greatly impact the targeted negotiations It argues that these ascribed social identities encourage participants to adopt correct gendered Japanese however what exactly this correctness means differs for each JAL participant depending on their other reflective and perceived social identities such as gender age class race and English native speakerness This book draws on the conclusions on the implications of discourses and practices concerning native speaker status gender and race in Japanese language education While the initial focus is on gendered Japanese and gender identity this book subsequently expands that the participants' negotiation of gendered Japanese and gender identity is complicatedly intertwined with negotiations of other social identities such as native speaker status race and age with native speaker status saliently affecting the way they position themselves and are positioned by their interlocutors This book analyses the participants' language resources spoken and/or written Japanese interactions and one-on-one and focus group interviews and presents easily understood findings for readers who are interested in SLA Japanese language and/or identity studies This is the first book to holistically examine Australia-based tertiary students' Japanese language learning experience and Japanese interactions with regards to gendered language identities and discursive power relations in a global and multilingual world
