Making Facts Come Alive Rosemary A. Bamford, Janice V. Kristo, 1998      Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines: Education, English, and Library and Information Science. Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach, it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature. Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home, school, library, and community settings. Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels, picturebooks, indigenous literature, graphic novels, and other genres. Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators. Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship, awards, marketing, and literary museums. The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds, thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory.      5

Offer tips for building strong, diverse classroom texts and library collections. Provide more than 20 activities to enhance literacy instruction. Include innovative strategies for sharing and celebrating nonfiction with students. With more than 150 exemplary nonfiction book recommendations, Stewart and Correia's extensive knowledge of literacy instruction. 5 Kinds of Nonfiction will elevate your understanding of nonfiction in ways that speak specifically to the info kids in your classrooms but will inspire all readers and writers.      The Texts in Elementary Classrooms James V.
