Ethics of Belief: Essays in Tribute to D.Z. Phillips Eugene Thomas Long, Patrick Horn, 2008-02-28 Eugene Thomas Long Originally published in the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion Volume 63 Nos 1 3 DOI 10 1007 s11153 007 9155 4 Springer Science Business Media B V 2007 This volume is presented as a tribute to the life and work of D Z Phillips Six of the articles were originally presented at the annual conference on the philosophy of religion organized by Phillips and held at Claremont Graduate University February 9 10 2007 Unfortunately Phillips did not live to participate in the conference itself He died unexpectedly July 25 2006 in the library of his beloved University of Wales Swansea Previously published volumes of essays based on conferences organized by Phillips in Claremont included a chapter entitled Voices in Discussion in which Phillips provided his own reactions to the discussions written almost immediately after the conference Sadly this volume appears without the addition of his voice Born in Morriston near Swansea Phillips was a Welsh speaker a strong supporter of Welsh speaking schools and the author of many works in philosophy and literature in Welsh and English Known widely as the leading representative of the movement in the philosophy of religion called Wittgensteinianism Phillips spent much of his effort challenging the tendency of philosophers to elevate one kind of discourse to the point where it becomes the norm by which other forms of discourse are to be judged

Witness and Existence Philip E. Devenish, George L. Goodwin, 1989-06-05 For over thirty years Schubert Ogden has championed and exemplified a particular understanding of the task and content of Christian theology The task of theology is to examine the meaning and truth of Christian faith in terms of human experience All theological claims therefore are assessable by two criteria their appropriateness to the normative Christian witness and their credibility in terms of human existence The content of Christian theology may be accurately and succinctly stated in two words radical monotheism The point of all theological doctrines from christology to ethics is to reflect on the gift and demand of God's love It may be said then that Ogden's entire theological project consists in the attempt to show that radical monotheism which is the essential point of the Christian witness is also the inclusive end of human existence Witness and Existence pays tribute to Ogden by bringing together essays by eminent scholars in New Testament studies and philosophical theology two fields which directly reflect his methodological concerns and his substantive contributions The book honors Ogden precisely by engaging the fundamental issues which Ogden himself has taken so seriously The first group of essays presents careful analyses of issues basic to the early Christian witness the second group examines the credibility of the Christian claim about God in terms of human experience The editors' introductory essay provides the first comprehensive analysis yet to appear of Ogden's theology A complete bibliography of his published writings is included as an appendix

In Tongues of Mortals and Angels Eric D. Barreto, Jacob D. Myers, Thelathia "Nikki" Young, 2018-11-15 Through close textual engagement theological exposition ethical reflection and interdisciplinary collaboration this book presents a constructive theology of divine speech in the Acts of the Apostles and 1 Corinthians in critical conversation with contemporary issues of sociopolitical ecclesial and theological importance In particular the authors attend to pericopes in Acts and Paul that open up fresh ways of thinking about divine discourse preaching and advocacy in light of contemporary matters of theological and ethical import In addition to classical modes of textual and theological analysis the authors attend to the sociopolitical and sociolinguistic aspects of speech as they arise in these pericopes As such the authors are simultaneously deconstructing these texts through postcolonial and post structural analyses to expose these texts to an alterity at work therein an alterity that has been muted by centuries of biblical interpretation

Faith and the Life of Reason Y. King-Farlow, W.N. Christensen, 2012-12-06 This book brings together ideas and materials which we have discussed together over the years as friends and colleagues We draw on four papers published by us both as co authors and on several more papers published by King Farlow alone We wish to thank the editors and publishers of the following journals for permission to make use of matter or points which have appeared in their pages in the years indicated The Philosophical Quarterly 1957 1962 1971 The Thomist 1958 1971 1972 The International Philosophical Quarterly 1962 Theoria 1963 The Southern Journal of Philosophy 1963 Sophia 1965 1967 1969 1971 Philosophical Studies of Eire 1968 1970 1971 Philosophy and Phenomenological Research 1968 Analysis 1970 Religious Studies Cambridge University Press 1971 we acknowledge a debt to H D Lewis Editor on page 20 This book is not however a collection of reprinted articles It is a continuous work which deals with a vital cluster of problems in the philosophy of religion In this work we attempt to utilize both our earlier thoughts often considerably revised and our very recent ones in order to argue for the good sense and rationality of making certain strong forms of commitment to some basic elements of primary wisdom in the Judaeo Christian tradition While pursuing the investigations which have led to the writing of this book we have found ourselves becoming indebted to many individuals and institutions

O Chaplain! My Chaplain! Man of Service Janelle T. Frese, 2006-07-21 When Janelle's grandfather dies in her arms she sees in his eyes an answer to the undying question we all struggle with in life Where do we go from here By fate or by faith she follows the mystery of the eyes to find Chaplain Barber the man who would save her from death's sorrow and change her life forever Chaplain George Russell Barber is the last living chaplain from the D Day landing on Omaha Beach June 6 1944 He survived Normandy's bloodiest beach battle I dug like it was only up to me I prayed like it was only up to God Together we dug that hole pretty deep He went on to march across Europe for eleven more months without a weapon Armed only with his Bible and his faith Chaplain Barber preached the gospel during the most dangerous war scenes of the European theatre in World War II There are no atheists in foxholes One of the last of the red blooded American boys Chaplain Barber tells Janelle his life history like a Little Big Man of the Greatest Generation From the cotton fields back home to the Horse Cavalry days through three wars the Space Age and the war on terrorism his life of service grips the heart of the small town patriot and likewise spins the mind of the spiritually inquisitive The Bible has been known to stop a bullet but that's not the only reason I believe Through their conversations prayers and meditations Janelle and the Chaplain mix the secret ingredients for the recipe of the Red White and Blue in you

Whose God? Which Tradition? Dewi Zephaniah Phillips, 2008-01-01 Philosophy of Religion is marked by controversy over which philosophical accounts do justice to core religious beliefs Many Wittgenstinian philosophers are accused by analytic philosophers of religion of distorting these beliefs In Whose God Which Tradition the accusers stand accused of the same by leading philosophers in the Thomist and Reformed traditions Their criticisms alert us to the dangers of uncritical acceptance of dominant philosophical traditions and to the need to do justice to the conceptual uniqueness of the reality of God The dissenting voices breathe new life into the central issues concerning the nature of belief in God

Scepticism Kai Nielsen, 1973-06-18

In Face of Reality Thomas A. James, 2011-04-01 This study of the work of noted liberal theologian Gordon Kaufman tracks his career from his first published book Relativism Knowledge and Faith 1960 through his 2006 book Jesus and Creativity in light of recent conversations about divine action and modern scientific knowledge James interprets Kaufman's mature position as a sophisticated reconstruction of divine activity that makes use of recent scientific theory and its naturalistic assumptions in order to revitalize a theocentric frame of reference rooted in classical theological tradition Though there are costs to be paid in the construction of a theology of radical naturalism particularly with respect to the relation between divine action and the human good Kaufman's program offers a distinctive way forward After developing a critical analysis of the limitations and possibilities of Kaufman's mature position James suggests that a christological reconsideration of the meaning of human flourishing offers the prospect of an even more radically naturalistic and theocentric theology

Theodicy Jill Graper Hernandez, 2019-05-20 The problem of evil has vexed for centuries is pain and suffering in the world consistent with the existence of God Theodicy attempts to demonstrate or explain why the answer could be yes Some think that the problem of evil was solved a long time ago but theodicy in the 21st century has thus far produced novel approaches uncovered new dilemmas juxtaposed itself with other philosophical and religious fields listened to new voices and has even been explored through uncommon methodologies This is a new era of and for theodicy Though never removed from the logical problem of evil theodicy at least in the near future will generate unique arguments related to the phenomenology of lived suffering modal claims across worlds the possibility of ameliorative analysis narrative theodicy and standpoint difficulties in generating theodical discourse This special issue is dedicated to extending the platform for clear and interesting perspectives on new dimensions of theodicy and in reclaiming perspectives on the problem of evil that have been largely ignored in philosophy of religion

Getting Through Yvonne Rodney, 2008 Talking about God Roger M. White, 2010 A fundamental question for theology is the question how are we to understand the claims that we make about God The only language we can understand is the language we use to talk about human beings and their environment How can we use that language to talk about God while respecting the infinite difference between God and humanity This book aims to clarify and answer this question by analyzing the concept of analogy

Twilight of the Gods David Penchansky, 2005-01-01 Since the middle of the twentieth century one of biblical scholarship's chief assumptions has been that ancient Israel evolved out of the polytheism of surrounding cultures into an ethical monotheism However this consensus has fallen apart in recent years Scholars now know that early Israel was surrounded by a very polytheistic culture and that many Israelites thought of Yahweh as the chief God among many gods Furthermore archaeology has shown that Yahweh was worshiped along with other gods throughout the period after the exile when many shrines were in honor of Yahweh and his Asherah David Penchansky's Twilight of the Gods is the first accessible book that shows a historical Israel where polytheism and monotheism existed simultaneously in great conflict He provides a historical introduction followed by close readings of key Old Testament passages where he demonstrates how to interpret difficult biblical texts that depict other gods or claim Yahweh is the only God within this new understanding of Israelite religion

Walking the Tightrope of Faith, 2023-12-28 This book expands upon the dialogue between the atheist philosopher Kai Nielsen and the Christian philosopher Hendrik Hart in the book Search for Community in A Withering Tradition Collected here for the first time are the responses of several prominent Canadian philosophers to Nielsen's outspoken work in the philosophy of religion including their responses to Hart's criticisms of Nielsen. New replies by Hart and Nielsen to these added voices are also included. This volume is of interest for students in the philosophy of religion who wish to examine the encounter between religious faith and secular humanism at the close of the twentieth century, an increasingly postmodern time in which the appeal to an historical standard of rationality is no longer sought or even thought possible. This book tackles tough topics like the appropriate role of reason in the intellectual criticism and defense of faith, the limits of the rational justification of human knowledge, the role of pre-reflective commitments in human intellectual life, the nature of truth, and the possibility for peace in a world consisting of a plural and often violent collection of cultural and religious groups.
