Making It Work Women Change And Challenge In The 1990s:

Making it Work Sue Innes,1995 Women on the Defensive Sylvia B. Bashevkin,1998-06-08 Bashevkin combines individual voices with policy initiatives to provide the first complete picture of the recent past and uncertain future of contemporary feminism BOOK JACKET Britain Since 1945 Peter Leese,2006-09-21 Britain since 1945 is an ideal introductory text for students of British Studies cultural studies and modern British history Assuming no prior knowledge Leese offers students of all backgrounds both the essential chronological grounding and vital insight into the issues of identity necessary for a full understanding of contemporary Britain Gender in Scottish History Since 1700 Lynn Abrams,2006-01-25 Scottish history is undergoing a renaissance Everyone agrees that an understanding of our nation s history is integral to our experience of its present and the shaping of the future But the story of Scotland s past is being told with little reference to gendered identities Not only are women largely missing from these grand narratives but men s experience has tended to be sublimated in intellectual political and economic agendas Neither femininities nor masculinities have been given much of a place in Scotland s past or in the process of nation making Gender in Scottish History offers a new perspective on Scotland s past since around 1700 viewing some of the main themes with a gendered perspective It starts from the assumption that gender is integral to our understanding of the ways in which societies in the past were organised and that national histories have a tendency to be gender blind Each chapter engages with one key theme from Scottish historiography asking what happens when women are added to the story and how the story changes when the meanings of gendered understandings and assumptions are probed Addressing politics culture religion science education work the family and identity Gender in Scottish History proposes an alternative reading of the Scottish past which is both inclusive and recognisable Women in Educational Management Maggie Wilson,1997-08-28 Research on the opportunities for and barriers against promotion for women teachers and lecturers in schools and universities in ten European countries is brought together in this volume Meeting the Energy Challenges of the 1990's ,1993-06 The proceedings of a conference to examine emerging issues in 5 significant issue areas associated with energy policy energy supply and demand energy and the environment management challenges at the Department of Energy DOE DOE s nuclear weapons complex and emerging R D Includes representatives from government industry research institutions and citizens groups Charts and tables Facts on Working Women ,2000 Culture and Social Change Marguerite Mendell,1992 Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty-First Century David L. Brown,Louis E. Swanson,2010-11-01 The twentieth century was one of profound transformation in rural America Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty First Century defines these changes and interprets their implications for the future of rural America Essays have been specially commissioned to examine key aspects of public policy relevant to rural America in the new century From book jacket Challenges for Children and Women in the 1990s ,1991 Please note that no RSA indicators are included Disaster and Gender in Coastal Bangladesh Mohammed

Moniruzzaman Khan,2022-07-22 This volume explores the discourse of disaster and women in the existing social settings and state disaster related affairs in coastal Bangladesh It covers various issues ranging from disproportionate vulnerability coping and adaptation mechanisms for women limitations for promoting participation and involvement of women in the decision making process both in family and community and changes in the role and responsibilities of women for reducing disaster risk and vulnerability It contributes to the deconstruction of gender based identity by addressing women s changing practices and roles in the coastal area in terms of the involvement of women with the development process earning income generation activities decision making process access and entitlements to resources This book presents the most current and inclusive circumstances of disaster and women of the coastal area in Bangladesh The insights obtained through the eyes of a sociologist from a holistic perspective make this book different and unique The book is of interest to researchers academics policymakers and professionals engaged in the social understanding of disaster studies as well as to researchers and practitioners in interdisciplinary domains including sociology gender studies social work environmental studies and development studies

The Kaleidoscope of Gender Catherine G. Valentine,Mary Nell Trautner,Joan Z. Spade,2019-03-07 The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities provides an accessible timely and stimulating overview of the cutting edge literature and theoretical frameworks in sociology and related fields in order to understand the social construction of gender The kaleidoscope metaphor and its three themes prisms patterns and possibilities unify topic areas throughout the book By focusing on the prisms through which gender is shaped the patterns which gender takes and the possibilities for social change the reader gains a deeper understanding of ourselves and our relationships with others both locally and globally Editors Catherine Valentine Mary Nell Trautner and the work of Joan Spade focus on the paradigms and approaches to gender studies that are constantly changing and evolving The Sixth Edition includes incorporation of increased emphasis on global perspectives updated contemporary social movements such as BlackLivesMatter and MeToo and an updated focus on gendered violence

Heterosexual Women Changing The Family Jo Van Every, 2013-10-08 First Published in 1995 Refusing to be a Wife explores how women can transform their relationships in order to minimize the inequality found in traditional families Drawing on interviews with women and men in explicitly anti sexist living arrangements the book provides a new perspective on the division of domestic labour mothering marriage and financial allocation in the home Written in a clear and engaging style this book will be of interest and relevance not only to feminists but to anyone interested in the potential impact of feminism on family life

Opportunities and Challenges for Women Leaders in Environmental Management Aquino, Jr., Perfecto Gathbonton, Jalagat, Jr., Revenio Cabanilla, Justin, Mercia Selva Malar, 2023-11-24 Our planet is facing the prospect of environmental catastrophe resulting from decades of reckless human activities The ongoing degradation of the Earth's natural resources climate change pollution and habitat destruction have created an urgent global crisis The responsibility for addressing these challenges has been a significant issue since the 1972 International Conference on Human Environment in Sweden Despite widespread acknowledgment of the issues at hand insufficient efforts have been taken to safeguard our fragile ecosystems and secure a sustainable future for generations to come Opportunities and Challenges for Women Leaders in Environmental Management is a groundbreaking book meticulously crafted for academic scholars seeking answers to the most pressing environmental questions of our time This book reveals the pivotal role women are playing as environmental stewards providing a ray of hope in the face of environmental turmoil Through data empirical studies and narratives this book spotlights the remarkable contributions of women worldwide in environmental activism advocacy research education and innovative strategies Their unwavering commitment to energy conservation responsible waste management and the preservation of ecological parks and wildlife is both inspiring and transformative

Doing Justice, Doing Gender Susan Ehrlich Martin, Nancy C. Jurik, 2006-10-27 Martin and Jurik provide a clear body of evidence illuminating the gendered nature of criminal justice occupations Of the multitude of feminist works on this topic this is one of the best analyses available CRIMINAL JUSTICE REVIEW Doing Justice Doing Gender Women in Legal and Criminal Justice Occupations is a highly readable sociologically grounded analysis of women working in traditionally male dominant justice occupations of law policing and corrections This Second Edition represents not only a thorough update of research on women in these fields but a careful reconsideration of changes in justice organizations and occupations and their impact on women's justice work roles over the past 40 years. New to the Second Edition: Introduces a wider range of workplace diversity and experiences. An expanded sociological theoretical framework grasps the interplay of gender, race, ethnicity, and sexual orientation in understanding workplace identities and inequities. Provides a better understanding of the centrality of gender issues to understanding the legal and criminal justice system in general. This edition further connects women's work experiences to social trends and consequent changes in legal system and in criminal justice agencies. Offers a more international perspective. More material is included on women lawyers, police, and correctional officers in countries outside the U.S. Intended Audience: This is an excellent supplemental text for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses such as Gender, Women, and Work; Sociology of Work and Occupations; Women and the Criminal Justice System; and Gender Justice in the departments of Sociology, Criminal Justice, Women's Studies, and Social Work.
