Qualitative Analysis in the Making Daniella Kuzmanovic, Andreas Bandak, 2014-10-10 How do scholars transform qualitative data into analysis What does making analysis imply What happens in the space in between data and finalized analysis is notoriously difficult to talk about In other parts of the research process scholars and students are aided by method books that describe the technicalities of generating processing and sorting through data handbooks that teach academic writing and scholarly works that offer meta level theoretical perspectives Yet the path from qualitative data to analysis remains a black box Qualitative Analysis in the Making ventures into this black box The volume provides a means of speaking about how analyses emerge in the Humanities Contributors from disciplines such as anthropology history and sociology of religion all employ an analytical double take They revisit one of their analyses analyzing how this particular analysis came into being Such analyses of an analysis are neither confessions nor step by step recounts of what happened Rather the volume argues that speaking of the space in between requires analytical displacement and the employment of fresh analytical takes This approach contributes to demystifying the path from qualitative data to finalized analysis It invites novel epistemological reflections among scholars and assists students in improving their analytical skills

Female Alliances Amanda E. Herbert, 2014-01-21 In the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries cultural economic and political changes as well as increased geographic mobility placed strains upon British society But by cultivating friendships and alliances women worked to socially cohere Britain and its colonies In the first book length historical study of female friendship and alliance for the early modern period Amanda Herbert draws on a series of interlocking microhistorical studies to demonstrate the vitality and importance of bonds formed between British women in the long eighteenth century She shows that while these alliances were central to women s lives they were also instrumental in building the British Atlantic world

The Making of a Market Juliette Levy,2012-01-01 During the nineteenth century Yucat n moved effectively from its colonial past into modernity transforming from a cattle ranching and subsistence farming economy to a booming export oriented agricultural economy Yucat n and its economy grew in response to increasing demand from the United States for henequen the local cordage fiber This henequen boom has often been seen as another regional and historical example of overdependence on foreign markets and extortionary local elites In The Making of a Market Juliette Levy argues instead that local social and economic dynamics are the root of the region s development She shows how credit markets contributed to the boom before banks and bank crises existed and how people borrowed before the creation of institutions designed specifically to lend As the intermediaries in this lending process notaries became unwitting catalysts of Yucat n s capitalist transformation By focusing attention on the notaries role in structuring the mortgage market rather than on formal institutions such as banks this study challenges the easy compartmentalization of local and global relationships and of economic and social relationships

Cashin,Glenn T. Eskew,2012-02-01 These essays look at southern social customs within a single city in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the volume focuses on paternalism between masters and slaves husbands and wives elites and the masses and industrialists and workers How Augusta s millworkers homemakers and others resisted exploited or endured the constraints of paternalism reveals the complex interplay between race class and gender One essay looks at the subordinating effects of paternalism on women in the Old South slave free black and white and the coping strategies available to each group Another focuses on the Knights of Labor union in Augusta With their trappings of chivalry the Knights are viewed as a response by Augusta s white male millworkers to the emasculating maternalism to which they were subjected by their own wives and daughters and those of mill owners and managers Millworkers are also the topic of a study of mission work in their communities a study that gauges the extent to which religious outreach by elites was a means of social control rather than an outpouring of genuine concern for worker welfare Other essays discuss Augusta s aristocracy of color who had to endure the same effronteries of segregation as the city s poorest blacks the role of interracial cooperation in the founding of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church as a denomination and of Augusta s historic Trinity CME Church and William Jefferson White an African American minister newspaper editor and founder of Morehouse College The varied and creative responses to paternalism discussed here open new ways to view relationships based on power and negotiated between men and women blacks and whites and the prosperous and the poor Clark Kerr's University of California Cristina Gonzalez,2017-07-28 This volume provides an intellectual history of Kerr s vision of the multiversity as expressed in his most famous work The Uses of the University and in his greatest administrative accomplishment the California Master Plan for Higher Education Building upon Kerr s use of the visionary hedgehog shrewd fox dichotomy the book explains the rise of the University of California as due to the articulation and implementation of the hedgehog concept of systemic excellence that underpins the master plan Arguing that the university s recent problems flow from a fox culture characterized by a free for all approach to management including excessive executive compensation this is a call for a new vision for the university and for public higher education in general In particular it advocates re funding and re democratizing public higher education and renewing its leadership through thoughtful succession planning with a special emphasis on diversity Gonzalez s work follows the ups and downs of women and minorities in higher education showing that university advances often have resulted in the further marginalization of these groups Clark Kerr s University of California is about American public higher education at the crossroads and will be of interest to those concerned with the future of the public university as an institution as well as those interested in issues relating to leadership diversity and succession planning 'Guilty Women', Foreign Policy, and Appeasement in Inter-War Britain Julie V. Gottlieb,2016-02-07 British women were deeply invested in foreign policy between the wars This study casts new light on the turn to international affairs in feminist politics the gendered representation and experience of the Munich Crisis and the profound impression made by female public opinion on PM Neville Chamberlain in his negotiations with the dictators Women as Constitution-Makers Ruth Rubio-Marín,Helen Irving,2019-03-28 That a constitution should express the will of the people is a long standing principle but the identity of the people has historically been narrow Women in particular were not included A shift however has recently occurred Women s participation in constitution making is now recognised as a democratic right Women s demands to have their voices heard in both the processes of constitution making and the text of their country s constitution are gaining recognition Campaigning for inclusion in their country s constitution making women have adopted innovative strategies to express their constitutional aspirations This collection offers for the first time comprehensive case studies of women s campaigns for constitutional equality in nine different countries that have undergone constitutional transformations in the participatory era Against a richly contextualised historical and political background each charts the actions and strategies of women participants both formal and informal and records their successes failures and continuing hopes for constitutional equality

Make Me a Man! Sikata Banerjee, 2012-02-01 Make Me a Man argues that ideas about manhood play a key role in building and sustaining the modern nation It examines a particular expression of nation and manliness masculine Hinduism This ideal which emerged from India s experience of British imperialism is characterized by martial prowess muscular strength moral fortitude and a readiness to go to battle Embodied in the images of the Hindu soldier and the warrior monk masculine Hinduism is rooted in a rigid us versus them view of nation that becomes implicated in violence and intolerance Masculine Hinduism also has important connotations for women whose roles in this environment consist of the heroic mother chaste wife and celibate masculinized warrior All of these roles shore up the us versus them dichotomy and constrict women s lives by imposing particular norms and encouraging limits on women s freedom Sikata Banerjee notes that the nationalism defined by masculine Hinduism draws on a more general narrative of nation found in many cultures If the outcomes of this narrative are to be resisted the logic of masculinity armed manhood and nation need to be examined in diverse contexts

Gender Change in Academia Birgit Riegraf, Brigitte Aulenbacher, Edit Kirsch-Auwärter, Ursula Müller, 2010-07-15 Editors Foreword The fundamental changes currently taking place in the national and international science landscapes can no longer be overlooked Within those changes reforms do not go as planned but as is always the case with processes of rationalisation have a series of unintended effects At the same time it becomes increasingly clear who in this process are the winners and who are the losers although this is still subject to fluctuation and change This can be illustrated by two examples from current events Where the range of taught courses is concerned as part of the Bologna Process the new structuring of student study paths and their organisation is aimed at unifying the European area of science to ensure a study that is equally permissive and efficient However it is to be deplored that the mobility of students has become more restricted because of an increasing specialisation in the available study paths Also bachelor degrees do not meet with the anticipated high response from the labour market in all countries so that the master s degree is becoming more or less a must while at the same time the number of study places on master s courses is limited Instead of the intended reduction in the duration of study time in comparison to the previous German Magister and Diplom rather a prolongation in the duration of studies has been recorded
