Tribes and Empire on the Margins of Nineteenth-Century Iran Arash

Khazeni, 2011-06-01 Tribes and Empire on the Margins of Nineteenth Century Iran traces the history of the Bakhtiari tribal confederacy of the Zagros Mountains through momentous times that saw the opening of their territory to the outside world As the Qajar dynasty sought to integrate the peoples on its margins into the state the British Empire made commercial inroads into the once inaccessible mountains on the frontier between Iran and Iraq The distance between the state and the tribes was narrowed through imperial projects that included the building of a road through the mountains the gathering of geographical and ethnographic information and the exploration for oil which culminated during the Iranian Constitutional Revolution These modern projects assimilated autonomous pastoral nomadic tribes on the peripheries of Qajar Iran into a wider imperial territory and the world economy Tribal subjects did not remain passive amidst these changes in environment and society however and projects of empire in the hinterlands of Iran were always mediated through encounters accommodation and engagement with the tribes In contrast to the range of literature on the urban classes and political center in Qajar Iran Arash Khazeni adopts a view from the Bakhtiyari tents on the periphery Drawing upon Persian chronicles tribal histories and archival sources from London Tehran and Isfahan this book opens new ground by approaching nineteenth century Iran from its edge and placing the tribal periphery at the heart of a tale about empire and assimilation in the modern Middle East

Censorship of Literature in Post-Revolutionary Iran Alireza

Abiz,2020-12-10 Censorship pervades all aspects of political social and cultural life in the Islamic Republic of Iran Faced with strict state control of cultural output Iranian authors and writers have had to adapt their work to avoid falling foul of the censors In this pioneering study Alireza Abiz offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of how censorship and the political order of Iran have influenced contemporary Persian literature both in terms of content and tone As censorship is unrecorded and not officially acknowledged in Iran the author has examined newspaper records and conducted first hand interviews with Iranian poets and writers looking into the ways in which poets and writers attempt to subvert the codes of censorship by using symbolism and figurative language to hide their more controversial messages A ground breaking analysis this book will be vital reading for anyone interested in contemporary cultural politics and literature in Iran Iran Revisited Ali Pirzadeh,2016-04-20 This book examines Modern Iran through an interdisciplinary analysis of its cultural norms history and institutional environment The goal is to underline strengths and weaknesses of Iranian society as a whole and to illustrate less prescriptive explanations for the way Iran is seen through a lens of persistent collective conduct rather than erratic historical occurrences Throughout its history Iran has been subject to many studies all of which have diagnosed the country s problem and prescribed solutions based on certain theoretical grounds This book intends to look inward seeking cultural explanations for Iran s perpetual inability to improve its society The theme in this book is based on the eloquent words of Nasir Khusrau a great Iranian poet az mast ki bar mast The words are from a poem describing a self adoring eagle that sees its life abruptly ended by an arrow winged with its own feathers the bird is doomed by its own vanity The closest interpretation of this idiom in Western Christian culture is you reap what you sow which conveys a similar message that underlines one s responsibility in the sense that sooner or later we must face the choices we make This would enable us to confront and live up to what Iran s history and culture have taught us The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Censorship Denise Merkle,Brian James Baer,2024-12-18 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Censorship is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive overview of the topic offering broad geographic and historical coverage and extending the political contexts to incorporate colonial and postcolonial viewpoints as well as pluralistic societies It examines key cultural texts of all kinds as well as audio visual translation comics drama and videogames With over 30 chapters the Handbook highlights commonalities and differences across the various contexts encouraging comparative approaches to the topic of translation and censorship Edited and authored by leading figures in the field of Translation Studies the chapters provide a critical mapping of the current research and suggest future directions With an introductory chapter by the editors on theorizing censorship the Handbook is an essential reference and resource for advanced students scholars and researchers in translation studies comparative literature and related fields Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis,2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian. Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links. So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation? This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism. Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era. Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam, Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter-sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Muhammad Usayn Khashif al-Ghi and Muhammad al-Amn al-Mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world. Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al-Usayn Sharaf al-Din al-Mas'awi in Lebanon and Muhammad Jawid Mughniyya in Damascus, this book gives new insight on the future of inter-Muslim relations at a time of growing inter-sectarian contention from the Iran-Iraq war to the post-2003 Sunni-Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al-Qaida's anti-Shi'i message, taking into account questions of theology, historiography, jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era. The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran, Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership, identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism. Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio-political development in the region, this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists. The Emergence of Iranian Nationalism Reza Zia-Ebrahimi, 2016-03-15

Reza Zia-Ebrahimi revisits the work of Fathali Akhundzadeh and Mirza Aqa Khan Kermani, two Qajar era intellectuals who founded modern Iranian nationalism. In their efforts to make sense of a difficult historical situation, these thinkers advanced an appealing ideology. Zia-Ebrahimi calls dislocative nationalism in which pre-Islamic Iran is cast as a golden age. Islam is reinterpreted as an alien religion and Arabs become implacable others. Dislodging Iran from its empirical reality and tying it to Europe and the Aryan race, this ideology remains the most politically potent form of identity in Iran. Akhundzadeh and Kermani's nationalist reading of Iranian history has been drilled into the minds of Iranians since its adoption by the Pahlavi state in the early twentieth century. Spread through mass schooling, historical narratives and official statements of support, their ideological perspective has come to define Iranian culture and domestic and foreign policy. Zia-Ebrahimi follows the development of dislocative nationalism through a range of cultural and historical materials and he captures its incorporation of European ideas about Iranian history, the Aryan race and a primordial nation. His work emphasizes the agency of Iranian intellectuals in translating European ideas for Iranian audiences, impressing Western conceptions of race onto Iranian identity. Social Histories of Iran Stephanie Cronin, 2021-01-28 A social history of modern Iran from below, focused on

Iranian Masculinities Sivan Balslev, 2019-03-21 This unique study spotlights the role of masculinity in Iranian history linking masculinity to social and political developments Iranian-Russian Encounters Stephanie Cronin, 2013 Over the past two hundred years encounters between Iran and Russia have been both rich and complex This book explores the myriad dimensions of the Iranian Russian encounter during a dramatic period which saw both Iran and Russia subject to revolutionary upheavals and transformed from multinational dynastic empires typical of the nineteenth century to modernizing authoritarian states typical of the twentieth The collection provides a fresh perspective on traditional preoccupations of international relations wars and diplomacy the hostility of opposing nationalisms the Russian imperial menace in the nineteenth century and the Soviet threat in the twentieth Going beyond the traditional this book examines subaltern as well as elite relations and combines a cultural social and intellectual dimension with the political and diplomatic In doing so the book seeks to construct a new discourse which contests the notion of an implacable enmity between Iran and Russia Bringing together leading scholars in the field this book demonstrates extensive use of family archives Iranian Russian and Caucasian travelogues and memoirs and newly available archives in both Iran and the countries of the former Soviet Union Providing essential background to current international tensions this book will be of particular use to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Russia Reformers and Revolutionaries in Modern Iran Dr Stephanie Cronin, 2013-04-15 The contributors of this book undertake a fundamental reexamination and reappraisal of the phenomenon
