Making All Things Human A Church In East Harlem:

Making All Things Human Melvin E. Schoonover, 2003-10-29 Making All Things Human is a story of Christianity in action an account of the struggles faced by a courageous white minister and his largely African American and Puerto Rican parish in New York's East Harlem It celebrates ways in which the people of East Harlem and the Chambers Baptist Church working with courage imagination and humor cut through the layers of indifference to make New York more human and more humane Making All Things Human: a Church in East Harlem [by] Melvin E. Schoonover. Foreword by William Stringfellow Melvin E. Schoonover, The Roots of Urban Renaissance Brian D. Goldstein, 2023-03-14 An acclaimed history of Harlem's journey from urban crisis to urban renaissance With its gleaming shopping centers and refurbished row houses today's Harlem bears little resemblance to the neighborhood of the midcentury urban crisis Brian Goldstein traces Harlem's Second Renaissance to a surprising source the radical social movements of the 1960s that resisted city officials and fought to give Harlemites control of their own destiny Young Harlem activists inspired by the civil rights movement envisioned a Harlem built by and for its low income predominantly African American population In the succeeding decades however the community based organizations they founded came to pursue a very different goal a neighborhood with national retailers and increasingly affluent residents The Roots of Urban Renaissance demonstrates that gentrification was not imposed on an unwitting community by unscrupulous developers or opportunistic outsiders Rather it grew from the neighborhood's grassroots producing a legacy that benefited some longtime residents and threatened others Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Karl Brown, Bertine Emma Weston, Helen E. Wessells, 1970 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Juniorlibraries 1954 May 1961 Issued also separately Journal of Biblical Literature ,1970 Prophet of Justice, Prophet of Life Robert Boak Slocum, 2014-01-29 Who was William Stringfellow Like most prophets he was brilliant But he was also like most prophets difficult irascible suspicious contentious and full of courage He was a lawyer a social activist and a dedicated communicant of the Episcopal Church He graduated from Harvard Law School in the 1950s but put aside the promise of a lucrative career and went to work in East Harlem one of New York City's poorest neighborhoods At the height of the Vietnam War he took the Reverend Daniel Berrigan into his home and was indicted for harboring a fugitive In the 1970s while the Episcopal Church was struggling with such issues as the ordination of women and the funding of programs for minorities he accused the ecclesiastical hierarchy of arrogance duplicity and lack of leadership Everything William Stringfellow said and did was grounded in his profound belief in the Incarnation and the Eschaton He knew Jesus Christ to be the Word of God who is in all things and who challenges the powers and principalities of this world calling people and institutions to repentance and newness of life In Prophet of Justice Prophet of Life editor Robert Boak Slocum has gathered a diverse group of clergy legal scholars and seminary faculty to produce this stimulating and provocative series of essays on the life and work of William

Massa, S.J.,2010-09-14 In the 1960s the Second Vatican Council enacted the most sweeping changes the Catholic Church had seen in centuries In readable and compelling prose Mark S Massa tells the story of the cultural war these changes ignited in the United States a war that is still being waged today Suddenly one Sunday the mass as the faithful had always known it was different and so was the Church they had believed was timeless and unchanging Once the Church opened the door to change Massa argues it could not be closed again Skirmishes broke out over the proper way to worship Soon Catholics were bitterly divided over birth control abortion celibacy female priests and the authority of the Church itself As he narrates these turbulent events Massa takes us beyond stereotypes of liberals and conservatives offering new insights into the last fifty years of American Catholicism New York, a Guide to Information and Reference Sources Manuel D.
