Making Melody William Sydney Kelynack,1924      Catalogs Harold Reeves (Firm),1926      The Living Church ,1919

The Hymn ,2013      The Child ,1925      The Evangelist ,1896      Lutheran Companion ,1907      Studies in the Book of Psalms William Swan Plumer,1866 The Psalms are wonderful They have been read repeated chanted sung studied wept over rejoiced in expounded loved and praised by God s people for thousands of years The most ancient of these productions is now 1866 three thousand three hundred and twenty six years old The least ancient of them is two thousand four hundred and fifty three years old The difference in date between the most ancient and the most modern of them is eight hundred and seventy three years They were all written in Asia so that we in this Western world can have no national pride respecting them Yet pious people here and all over the earth have found and can find no compositions more suitable for delineating their devout emotions and for expressing their pious sensibilities than those of inspired Psalmists If to any man these songs are unsavory the reason is found in the blindness and depravity of the human heart Hengstenberg The Psalms are expressions of holy feeling which can be understood by those only who have become alive to such feeling Other things being equal he who has the most heavenly mind will be the most successful student of the Psalms Introduction      Assist Our Song Douglas Galbraith,2021-10-15 Assist Our Song combines accessible teaching about the theology and shape of worship with essential information about the forms of music used including congregational hymns songs canticles and psalm chant and music performed by choirs and musicians It explores the range of resources available how to extend repertoire blending the old with the new changing patterns of church life and other practical issues Its aims are the heightening of the profile of music within the church increasing the skills and understanding on the part of musicians and choirs assisting leaders of worship and empowering congregations to see themselves also as ministers of music It offers practical assistance for the delivery of music choosing music making the most of choirs and working with musicians It will be welcomed by all who lead provide or curate music in worship as well as clergy and ordinands who lack musical expertise or confidence      The Guardian ,1884
