his predecessors His prestige however was demeaned by the Department of Native Affairs Secretary whose instruction was that uKumkani Dalindyebo should not be addressed as a paramount chief as that title applied exclusively to the government thereby strengthening the government's position and elevating it to be above customary law AbaThembuland was and still is central to the history of the former Transkei region and South Africa Not only does it form part of the former Transkei region but it also constitutes South Africa and so divisions conflicts developments and or underdevelopments in AbaThembuland inevitably affected not only the former Transkei region but also the greater part of South Africa in no small measure Thus the history of AbaThembuland and the divisions thereof overlap with the history of the former Transkei region and South Africa

a Jewish rather than a secular state It shows how the postwar labor alignments were replaced by the hard right coalitions thanks to U S neoliberal economic policies assertive neoconservatism and Jewish American donors It also explains the causes behind the rise of the Messianic far right centrist parties and the failure of the Left The corrosion of Israeli society and politics was already reflected in and driven by an economy constrained by adverse erosion as reflected by the liabilities of its high tech cluster the talent brain drain the threatened welfare state and subsidized religious sector But now the already evident politico economic costs to Israel of the Gaza war have set the stage for extraordinary uncertainty in the foreseeable future

Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2006-11-22 The Cold War was the longest conflict in a century defined by the scale and brutality of its conflicts In the battle between the democratic West and the communist East there was barely a year in which the West was not organising fighting or financing some foreign war It was an engagement that resulted in Korea Guatemala Nicaragua and elsewhere in some twenty million dead This collection of essays analyses the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe and explores the various thematic and stylistic trends that Cold War hostilities engendered in world writing Drawing together scholars of various cultural backgrounds the volume focuses upon such themes as representation nationalism political resistance globalisation and ideological scepticism Eschewing the typical focus in Cold War scholarship on Western authors and genres there is an emphasis on the literary voices that emerged from what are often considered the peripheral regions of Cold War geo-politics Ranging in focus from American postmodernism to Vietnamese poetry from Cuban autobiography to Maoist theatre and from African fiction to Soviet propaganda this book will be of real interest to all those working in twentieth century literary studies cultural studies history and politics

Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2019-09-10 This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism local government or traditional authorities Since the end of the Cold War jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law Linked to the democratisation process many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes The centralization of power typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states As decentralisation is a response to these challenges this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst, 2017-03-02

Brocklehurst's impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory It develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices using an empirical and comparative assessment of the role of children and youth in a range of conflicts including Nazi Germany Mozambique South Africa Northern Ireland the Cold War and the British Empire The author argues powerfully that concepts of children are partial and contained through their construction as non political Global in scope this book is a timely and important contribution given the growing visibility of children in international relations evident after September 11 The political and ethical question at the heart of this book is will international relations dare to catch up Applied Theatre and Sexual Health Communication Katharine E. Low, 2020-11-05 This book analyses the partnership between applied theatre and sexual health communication in a theatre making project in Nyanga a township in South Africa By examining the bridges and schisms between the two fields as they come together in the project an alternative way of approaching sexual health communication is advocated This alternative considers what it is that applied theatre does and could become in this context Moments of value which lie around the margins of the practice emerge as opportunities that can be overlooked These somewhat ephemeral intangible moments which appear on the edges are described as apertures of possibility and occur when one takes a step back and realises something unnoticed in the moment This book offers an invitation to pause and notice the seemingly insignificant moments that often occurs tangentially to the practice The book also calls for more outcry about sexual health and sexual violence arguing for theatre making as a route to multitudes of voices nuanced understandings and diverse spaces in which discussions of sexuality and sexual health are shared felt and experienced
