

The background of the book cover is a detailed, multi-layered illustration. The top portion shows a dark, industrial scene with smokestacks emitting smoke and large gears, suggesting the early stages of the Industrial Revolution. Below this, the main scene is a crowded, brightly lit interior, possibly a marketplace or a public square. In the foreground, a Native American man in traditional dress is crouching, holding a long pipe. He is surrounded by several European men in 17th-century attire, including hats and long coats. One man is leaning over a table, possibly examining a map or documents. The overall style is that of a historical painting, with strong contrasts of light and shadow, emphasizing the cultural interactions of the period.
