Mini Colonial Village To Press Out Ass:

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Confronting Colonial Objects Carsten Stahn, 2023-10-06 The treatment of cultural colonial objects is one of the most debated questions of our time Calls for a new international cultural order go back to decolonization However for decades the issue has been treated as a matter of comity or been reduced to a Shakespearean dilemma to return or not to return Confronting Colonial Objects seeks to go beyond these classic dichotomies and argues that contemporary practices are at a tipping point The book shows that cultural takings were material to the colonial project throughout different periods and went far beyond looting It presents micro histories and object biographies to trace recurring justifications and contestations of takings and returns while outlining the complicity of anthropology racial science and professional networks that enabled colonial collecting The book demonstrates the dual role of law and cultural heritage regulation in facilitating colonial injustices and mobilizing resistance thereto Drawing on the interplay between justice ethics and human rights Stahn develops principles of relational cultural justice He challenges the argument that takings were acceptable according to the standards of the time and outlines how future engagement requires a re invention of knowledge systems and relations towards objects including new forms of consent provenance research and partnership and a re thinking of the role of museums themselves Following the life story and transformation of cultural objects this book provides a fresh perspective on international law and colonial history that appeals to audiences across a variety of disciplines This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

Race and Contention in Twenty-First Century U.S. Media Jason A. Smith, Bhoomi K. Thakore, 2016-04-20 This volume explores and clarifies the complex intersection of race and media in the contemporary United States Due to the changing dynamics of how racial politics are played out in the contemporary US as seen with debates of the post racial society as well as the changing dynamics of the media itself new vs old media debates an interrogation of the role of the media and its various institutions within this area of social inquiry is necessary Contributors contend that race in the United States is dynamic connected to social economic and political structures which are continually altering themselves The book seeks to highlight the contested space that the media provides for changing dimensions of race examining the ways that various representations can both hinder or promote positive racial views considering media in relation to other institutions and moving beyond thinking of media as a passive and singular institution Chapters 3 and 13 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

The Village Karl H. Schumacher,2020-06-29 The Village By Karl Schumacher Set in one village the brief yet passionate experiences of its citizens serve to show how humanity is shaped by common struggles romances and reveries From the ancient to the futuristic The Village creates a historical microcosm of the evolution of humanity Told through the experiences of the young the old and the unborn each character is created to feel timeless in their common intensities of life The Village is used as a stage community and a link to its residents across generations It is where we all came from and people have been brave quirky doubtful and persistent since its very beginning Schumacher's foray into historical fiction could not be more timely as acknowledgment of the Pilgrim's New World 400 years later is under examination and commemoration across the region His inventive imagery and historic tone transport you to a time when the world was new and possibilities were endless A remarkable tribute to the history upon which the Cape and the country as a whole have been built Brian Shortleeve Publisher of Cape Cod LIFE The Village Karl Schumacher's boldly imagined book of stories does what collections are meant to do provoke you to think It also happens to be very well written funny where it needs to be and always clever But it is the book's premise that leaps out one bit of earth a village is seen through the arc of time from the landing of the first English settlers on Cape Cod to a not too distant future We see repeated patterns of love frailty greed intelligence and stupidity unfold on an unchanging spit of land telling us in a very gentle way that as much as things change they stay the same Paul Vidich acclaimed author of The Coldest Warrior An Honorable Man The Good Assassin and works of non fiction The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, 1911 The Congregationalist and Christian World, 1914 The Illustrated London News, 1844 Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News, 1927 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Bookseller and Stationer, 1923

American Digest, 1929 Free Print and Non-commercial Publishing Since 1700 James Raven, 2019-01-15 This title was first published in 2000 The essays in this collection re-examine the phenomenon of free print in print culture By focusing on free print the volume offers perspectives in the cultural history of textual transmission from the early 18th century to the mid 20th century Publishing in the sense of making the print public embraces the free and often unsolicited distribution of religious literature political propaganda and civic and personal gifts The free print examined here includes gift books advertisements and commemorations the promotion of knowledge institutions and services commercial and philanthropic lobbying religious and missionary activity and political propaganda both official and underground Broad issues range from the consideration of press finances government intervention and private and institutional patronage to textual familiarity and social ritual The approach is deliberately comparative Ten established scholars of book and printing history who look at very different regions and periods test the nature of the alleged authority of print and the apparent value of the commercial tag through the study of print which arrives unbidden in the hands of its consumers The chapters in this volume are based on papers first given at the Print for Free conference organized by the Cambridge Project for the Book Trust in September 1996
