Compatriots or Competitors? Hywel Dix, 2022-11-15 Rather than being limited to political or legal discussion like most books on Brexit this book explores the relationship between cultural production and Brexit both in the lead up to it and in its aftermath It is the first major study to take a comparative approach to analysing the relationship between cultural production and Brexit in all 4 nations of the UK This comparative approach is necessary to get a detailed picture of the complex dynamics at work across each This book is highly interdisciplinary in nature looking at the rise of the cultural industries the relationship between the UK City of Culture festival and its fore runner the European Capital of Culture national book prizes in Britain and Europe British variations on Nordic Noir TV and the Brexit novel As a result it draws on research in the disciplines of geography economics film and television studies history and politics as well as publishing and literary studies

Noir in the North Stacy Gillis, Gunnthorunn Gudmundsdottir, 2020-10-01 What is often termed Nordic Noir has dominated detective fiction film and television internationally for over two decades But what are the parameters of this genre both historically and geographically What is noirish and what is northern about Nordic noir The foreword and coda in this volume by two internationally bestselling writers of crime fiction in the north Yrsa Sigurðardóttir and Gunnar Staalesen speak to the social contract undertaken by writers of noir while the interview with the renowned crime writer Val McDermid adds nuance to our understanding of what it is to write noir in the North Divided into four sections Gender and Sexuality Space and Place Politics and Crime and Genre and Genealogy Noir in the North challenges the traditional critical histories of noir by investigating how it functions transnationally beyond the geographical borders of Scandinavia The essays in this book deepen our critical understanding of noir more generally by demonstrating for example Nordic noir's connection to fin de siècle literatures and to mid century interior design and by investigating the function of the state in crime fiction

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent

Locating Nordic Noir Kim Toft Hansen, Anne Marit Waade, 2017-10-14 This book is a comprehensive study of Nordic Noir television drama from the 1990s until today The authors introduce the history of contemporary Nordic Noir from the perspective of place production and location studies The chapters include readings of well known television crime dramas such as Beck The Killing Trapped and The Bridge as well as a range of other important Nordic Noir cases The authors position the development of Nordic Noir in the global market for popular television drama and place the international attention towards Nordic crime dramas within regional development of drama production in Sweden Denmark Norway and Iceland Consequently Nordic Noir is read as both a transnational financial and creative phenomenon and as a local possibility for community building Offering a comprehensible scholarly and methodologically original approach to the popularity of Nordic television crime dramas this volume is aimed at readers with an interest in crime drama as well as scholars and students of television drama International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism
