And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little Paul Zindel, 1971-10 THE STORY Their father having deserted them in their childhood the three Reardon sisters have grown up in a house of women dominated by their mother who is only recently dead But time has erased the tender closeness of girlhood one sister has married and cut herself off another has begun to drink more than she should and the third after a scandalous incident at the school where she teaches is on the brink of madness When the married sister comes to dinner to press the need for committing her sibling to an institution the simmering resentments of many years burst alive and are exacerbated by the intrusion of a well meaning but boorish neighbor couple whose unexpected arrival impels the action towards its shattering conclusion in which all the pathos humor and searing honesty of the play combine with overwhelming effect
