American POW/MIA's in Southeast Asia United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs,1992 Strong Hearts and Healing Hands Clifford E. Trafzer,2021-04-06 In 1924 the United States began a bold program in public health The Indian Service of the United States hired its first nurses to work among Indians living on reservations This corps of white women were dedicated to improving Indian health In 1928 the first field nurses arrived in the Mission Indian Agency of Southern California These nurses visited homes and schools providing public health and sanitation information regarding disease causation and prevention Over time field nurses and Native people formed a positive working relationship that resulted in the decline of mortality from infectious diseases Many Native Americans accepted and used Western medicine to fight pathogens while also continuing Indigenous medicine ways Nurses helped control tuberculosis measles influenza pneumonia and a host of gastrointestinal sicknesses In partnership with the community nurses quarantined people with contagious diseases tested for infections and tracked patients and contacts Indians turned to nurses and learned about disease prevention With strong hearts Indians eagerly participated in the tuberculosis campaign of 1939 40 to x ray tribal members living on twenty nine reservations Through their cooperative efforts Indians and health care providers decreased deaths cases and misery among the tribes of Southern California A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945 Christopher Shores,Giovanni Massimello,Russell Guest,Frank Olynyk,Winfried Bock,Andy Thomas,2018-11-05 This fourth volume in the comprehensive series fills a gap in the existing narrative of WWII s Mediterranean air war Journal of Military History The fourth volume in this momentous series commences with the attacks on the Italian island fortress of Pantellaria which led to its surrender and occupation achieved almost by air attack alone The account continues with the ultimately successful but at times very hard fought invasions of Sicily and southern Italy as burgeoning Allied air power now with full US involvement increasingly dominated the skies overhead The successive occupations of Sardinia and Corsica are also covered in detail This is essentially the story of the tactical air forces up to the point when Rome was occupied just at the same time as the Normandy landings were occurring in northwest France With regards to the long range tactical role of the Allied heavy bombers only the period from May to October is examined while they remained based in North Africa with the narrative continuing in a future volume This volume also delves into the story of the soldiers air force Frequently overshadowed by more immediate newsworthy events elsewhere the soldiers struggle was often of an equally Homeric nature No future publication on the Mediterranean air war will be credible without use of this series Air Power History U.S. MIA's in Southeast Asia United States. Congress. Senate.
