Lac Qui Parle and the Dakota Mission Jon Willand, 1964 Civilizing the World Sarah Miglio, 2023-08-17 Civilizing the World explores the vibrancy and impact of forgotten social reformers who defied categorization within the Social Gospel or secular progressive movements These social reformers or Practical Christians functioned as a network of activists whose dedication to spiritual conversions and cultural transformation arose from a shared commitment to nonsectarian Christian cooperation and practicing Christian citizenship Bringing together a diverse coalition of liberal Protestants revivalists evangelicals and secular reformers Practical Christians rejected theological divisions in favor of broad alliances committed to improving society at home and abroad A complete understanding of the intimate relationship between local and global activism provides new insight into Practical Christians social networks political goals religious identities and international outlook This broad reform alliance considered their domestic and global reforms as seamless tasks in modernizing the world Just as Chicago Practical Christians labored to civilize their immigrant neighbors and encourage their adoption of their own Christian and American habits like minded Americans worked to Christianize and modernize Armenians and the Middle East The Practical Christian coalition faltered post World War I as evangelicals and revivalists continued to prioritize spiritual conversions while liberal Protestant and secularizing activists placed more emphasis on the process of Americanizing immigrants and the world Tampa's Carrollwood Joshua McMorro-Hernandez ,2013 Over six decades the community comprised of citrus groves and cattle ranches between Lake Carroll and Lake Magdalene flourished and became the town known as Carrollwood Carrollwood s story begins in the 1890s when Rev Isaac Ward Bearss led a small caravan from Missouri to Florida and heled form a close knit rural community By the late 1950s a developer named Matt Jetton bought more than 300 acres of land surrounding Lake Carroll and built the 925 home community that was given the name Carrollwood By the 1970s many of the remaining citrus groves in the areas surrounding the neighborhood gave way to new homes and businesses and the Carrollwood name continued spreading north and west Best of California's Missions, Mansions, and Museums Ken McKowen,Dahlynn McKowen,2006-08-30 This two color traveler s companion features more than 130 of California s best missions mansions and museums In addition to insider information on many of the destinations the guide features themed tours that will appeal to tourists and armchair travelers alike history buffs as well as teachers and parents Every entry details the highlights of a particular place and includes operating hours entrance fees location a phone number and website information Themed tours range from famous Californians to lighthouses ghost towns and much more This guidebook is a must have for anyone interested in California s eclectic history Architect and Engineer ,1924 Architect and Engineer of California ,1924 Presidential Business Development Mission to Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Hong Kong, August 27-September 1994 ,1994 Streetcar Advertising in America Woodson J. Savage,2017-04-20 You might be surprised to learn that many of the consumer brands and products we enjoy today exist because of streetcar advertising The Industrial Revolution of the early 1900 s and a massive consumer audience riding over 50 000 streetcars in nearly 3 000 cities and towns in every state of the union provided a great opportunity for Barron Collier a native of Memphis Tennessee He simply used streetcar advertising to bring these two forces together and created the largest streetcar advertising empire in the world By age twenty six he was a millionaire and at one time had business offices in 70 cities with business interests in more than a thousand cities Most of these advertising cards have remarkable color graphics over 250 of them are included in this book for your viewing pleasure While streetcar advertising is definitely not a major advertising medium today the advertising community might be surprised to learn that the basic principles of consumer advertising have not changed that much in the last one hundred years Investors might do well to review this book to see which companies are still producing these popular products and brands as they represent some of the most successful businesses in America today

REVIEWS As a longtime trolley museum motorman I have often observed the interest our passengers show in the vintage interior advertisements above the windows the car cards Now there s a book on the history of car cards that fills a gap in the literature Woodson Savage has been collecting car cards and researching their history After relating the history of car cards the majority of the book is devoted to a colorful gallery of the cards themselves The color and reproduction on coated paper are excellent Most of them are national brands many of which survive today The galleries are divided into product types with histories of these ad campaigns Savage s personal collection can be viewed online at fineartamerica.com artists Woodson Savage Savage has joined the Western Railway Museum and is working with them to catalog and scan their 900 card collection the book is well produced fun to browse through and may deserve a place in your museum store
