Mission In Dialogue:

Making All Things New Michael Amaladoss,1990 Prophetic Dialogue Stephen B. Bevans,Roger P. Schroeder,2011
A collection of essays that demonstrates that to be effective in the twenty first century mission must be prophetic as it encounters other cultures and religious traditions When we speak as mission as dialogue then we are about as far away from imagining mission as conquering the world for Christ and missionaries as marines of the Catholic Church as we probably can get There has indeed been a radical shift both in the world in which the church does mission and within the church s own consciousness of the goodness and even holiness of that world These words from one of the essays in this superb collection clearly demonstrate the changing of mission today In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Mission and Dialogue Leonardo N. Mercado,James J. Knight,1989 Mission, Dialog und Friedliche Koexistenz - Mission, Dialogue, and Peaceful Co-Existence Andrea König,2010 Dieser Sonderband beinhaltet die Vorträge von 26 Theologinnen und Theologen aus 12 verschiedenen Ländern die sich zu einer einwöchigen Internationalen Sommerschule an der Universität Regensburg versammelten um darüber nachzudenken wie sich Mission und friedliche Koexistenz miteinander vereinbaren lassen Eine zu beobachtende Zunahme nationalistischer und fundamentalistischer Strömungen in vielen asiatischen Ländern in denen Christen weitgehend Minderheiten darstellen aber auch einige Entwicklungen in Deutschland wie Säkularisierung und Migrantenbewegung zeigen die Dringlichkeit der Auseinandersetzung mit dieser Thematik Die Beiträge dieses Bandes reflektieren Themengebiete wie Bildung kulturelle und Historie Teilnehmer und Autoren sind überwiegend Schüler und Schülerinnen des Regensburger Systematikers Hans Schwarz dessen Arbeitsgebiete sich in den einzelnen Themengebieten widerspiegeln The special volume in the series Glaube und Denken contains papers presented by 26 theologians from 12 different countries The authors convened at the university of Regensburg for a week long International Summer School They pondered how mission and peaceful co existence can be achieved under newly emerging conditions They observed a rise of nationalistic and fundamentalist currents in many Asian countries in which Christians are often a minority Furthermore developments in Germany such as secularization and the increasing number of believers of other religions through the influx of immigrants show the urgency to reflect on this new situation The collected papers touch topics such as education ecumenism and history Most of the participants are students of the Regensburg systematic theologian Hans Schwarz whose special fields of interest are mirrored in these topics The Challenges to Mission and Dialogue in a Pluralist Context Cornelius Mereweather-Thompson,2021-03-04 If you have been struggling to understand the dialogue that has been taking place among various faiths and religious groups for more than two decades this is the book that you need What you may find complex to comprehend is made simple for you to digest This book is most compelling and the reader would find it hard to discard it once he started reading it The main points of the book dealt with the challenge to mission and dialogue in a pluralist context It attempts to define mission and dialogue and to discuss to some degree the Church's understanding of mission and dialogue from both the World council of churches organization and other conciliar bodies Another important point addressed in this book is Is dialogue in mission an instrument of Christian witness The conclusion is that dialogue is necessary as we live in a multi faith and multi cultural society and should be explored for better understanding and mutual respect with other faiths in a pluralistic society

Visions of Hope Kevin Ahern, 2013 Fifty years after the Second Vatican Council emerging theologians are in a unique position to offer hopeful visions for the next fifty years of the Church in light of the pressing internal and external challenges it faces today Rooted in the texts of Vatican II and a commitment to the church Visions of Hope brings together the research of leading young scholars around five important topics dialogue ecclesiology ethics liturgy and ministry These ideas represent the future shape of the Church because they are from the theologians who are planting the seminal ideas of Church

Only One Way? Gavin D'Costa, 2013-01-25 This book presents three different influential and representative theological approaches towards the world religions Students are not only introduced to the field but get three passionate and intelligent takes on what is at stake By means of a response to each of the primary essays the authors are put into interaction with each other and are also engaged with the most contemporary scholarship in the field of theology of religions This sustained and high level critical interaction between the authors provides a feature that is not to be found in any other current work in theology of religions The three views represent conservative Roman Catholic Christianity D Costa Reformed evangelical Christianity Strange and liberationist liberal Christianity Knitter This book will therefore appeal to a very wide theological market from all sections of the theological spectrum

Moving Beyond the Impasse S. Wesley Ariarajah, 2018-10-01 Interfaith dialogue in a plural world This volume is based on the belief that both the ecumenical and interfaith movements are looking for new orientations for their future The forces of globalization communications revolution and massive population movements challenge some of the theological assumptions and presuppositions on which they were built The entry of deep and divisive religious sentiments into the public space and the rise of militant forms of religious expression call on the interfaith movement to move beyond traditional forms of dialogue the challenge is to enter into a deeper engagement on the purpose and role of religious traditions in society The impasse facing these movements can only be overcome by new orientations as they look to the future This volume is not specifically on this problem However the collection of essays included in this volume although first given as lectures or written as articles traces past developments identifies the challenges these movements face today and suggests fresh theological moves to regain the initiatives to bring human communities closer together

Tell Us Our Names C.S. Song, 2005-07-07 Tell Us Our Names is a timely book beautifully written and understandable by all Its particular challenge lies in the folk and fairy tales that provide the text Here are the roots of both faith and reason and the direct way to dump excess baggage and discover new and better questions Scripture Oriental wisdom ecumenical theology all receive calm and imaginative treatment in Song's hands Joseph McLelland McGill University Montreal In this volume Dr Song offers us golden keys to open the stone gates of religion Gathering together intercultural insights from the experience of people in many countries these parables and stories usher us into the presence of Mystery The easy flow of storytelling smoothly mixed with sensitive interpretation makes this volume very readable To those who believe that theology has to do only with ideas and concepts this volume may come as a surprise and a joyful discovery S J Samartha former Director Dialogue Programme World Council of Churches Geneva C S Song explores the folk tales of the world and depicts God's answer to the thrust for the redemption of the people with one stroke of an Asian brush Here the culture religion history and suffering of the Asian people is the medium of God's redemptive revelation Certainly by this work he has contributed another transposition of the biblical message to Asia a monumental accomplishment in the formation of Asian theology Reading this Theology of Folk Tales is exciting and illuminative Nam Dong Suh Director Institute for Mission Education Seoul Korea C S Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion His recent publications include The Believing Heart

from a mission perspective Catholicism Engaging Other Faiths Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Jason Welle, O.F.M., 2018-12-08 This book assesses how Vatican II opened up the Catholic Church to encounter dialogue and engagement with other world religions Opening with a contribution from the President of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue Cardinal Jean Louis Tauran it next explores the impact relevance and promise of the Declaration Nostra Aetate before turning to consider how Vatican II in general has influenced interfaith dialogue and the intellectual and comparative study of world religions in the postconciliar decades as well as the contribution of particular past and present thinkers to the formation of current interreligious and comparative theological methods Additionally chapters consider interreligious dialogue vis vis theological anthropology in conciliar documents openness to the spiritual practices of other faith traditions as a way of encouraging positive interreligious encounter the role of lay and new ecclesial movements in interreligious dialogue and the development of Monastic Interreligious Dialogue Finally it includes a range of perspectives on the fruits and future of Vatican II's opening to particular faiths such as Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism Christians Meeting Hindus Bob Robinson, 2011-06-16 With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained interfaith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialog in India and asks why and how the practice of dialog came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Part I sets the encounter in its global context Part II offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of the actual encounter Part III draws on aspects of the Christian tradition as it critically examines the ways in which the dialog has been justified in Christological categories A final chapter discusses the future of the encounter Unlike many other works in the area of interfaith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialog model The Diversity of Religions J. A DiNoia, 1992 DiNoia approaches the debate in the theology of religions with a fresh lucid critical and informed mind This book is timely provocative and explores new territories and recasts old debates in a fresh and intelligent manner It will appeal to philosophers theologians indologists and those concerned with the meeting of Christianity and the world religions Gavin D Costa University of Bristol World Christianity Graham Joseph Hill, 2024-10-08 World Christianity An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline methodology and field of world Christianity In this book Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission leadership hospitality creation care education worship and more Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity The future of the global church including the churches in the West exists in these global exchanges World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty first century Shaking the Fundamentals Jan van Lin, 2016-08-09 The issue central to this study can be considered one of the most pressing facing the World Council of Churches today and in the decades to come and is much greater than that which confronted the International Mission Council in the years 1910 to 1938. The question answered in this study is what significance can the theology of religions as it developed between 1910 in Edinburgh and 1938 in Tambaram have for present day endeavours to develop a more common understanding and vision within the ecumenical movement as regards the theological problem of religious plurality. This significance becomes clear in the conclusions and suggestions in the final chapter. One of these conclusions is that classic Trinitarian theology and Pneumatology will be incapable of drawing the theology of religions out of the present impasse as long as traditional Christological models continue to exist within them. A commemoration of the Edinburgh meeting will undoubtedly be organized in 2010 and in view of this commemoration Dr van Lin suggests considering the possibility of starting a process of reflection on the World Council of Churches theology of religions similar to those on Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry and Towards the Common Expression of the Apostolic Faith Today. Given the fact that the study of religious plurality shakes the ecumenical movement to its foundations within the foreseeable future, serious thought has to be given to placing the study of the theology of religions on the agenda of Faith and Order within the World Council of Churches.
