Mistero Buffo:

Mistero Buffo Dario Fo, 1988 A distillation of the popular and comic elements of medieval mystery plays forged into a political and cultural weapon for the radical politics of today Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 New York Magazine, 1986-06-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Dario Fo Joseph Farrell, Antonio Scuderi, 2000 Joseph Farrell and Antonio Scuderi present an international collection of essays re-evaluating the multifaceted performance art of Nobel laureate Dario Fo The contributors all of whom either have previously published on Fo or have worked with him are the major Dario Fo scholars of three continents Going beyond the Marxist criticism of the 1970s and 1980s the editors and contributors try to establish and appropriate language in which to debate Fo's theatre They seek to identify the core of Fo's work the material that will be of lasting value This involves locating Fo in history examining the nature of his development through successive phases incorporating his politics into a wider framework of radical dissent and setting his theatrical achievements in a context and a tradition The essays cover every aspect of Dario Fo as actor playwright performer and songwriter They also provide the historical background of Fo's theatre as well as in-depth analyses of specific works and the contribution of Franca Rame Also included is a discussion of original artwork by Fo including vignettes from his Nobel Prize acceptance speech Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies:

A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Mythologist in Microgroove Julianne VanWagenen, 2023-12-19 In Mythologist in Microgroove A Study of Italian Myths and Cultural Shifts with Fabrizio De Andr on Lead Vocals author Julianne VanWagenen investigates the ways in which popular music as well as other popular genres engaged with and critiqued modern myth during years of cultural and political upheaval in Italy from the late 1960s to the mid 1980s The Italian singer songwriter Fabrizio De Andr is the productive lens of the book as it considers the myths of the hanged man and the scaffold the cowboy Jesus of Nazareth and Edgar Lee Masters's Fiddler Jones Across four chapters VanWagenen engages contemporary events and cultural contexts in Italy as well as abroad and interprets them through the lens of popular cultural productions She weaves the voices of Bob Dylan Francesco De Gregori Francesco Guccini Dario Fo Edgar Lee Masters among others with that of De Andr to propose a new perspective on the countercultural years Across the study De Andr's music arises as singularly profound and persistent in its critique of elements of western culture that have guided its trajectory since the late medieval period Set the Stage! Nicoletta Marini-Maio, Colleen Ryan-Scheutz, 2008-12-16 Set the Stage is a collection of essays on teaching Italian language literature and culture through theater From theoretical background to course models this book provides all the resources that teachers and students need to incorporate the rich and abundant Italian theater tradition into the curriculum Features of the book include the Director's Handbook a comprehensive guide with detailed instructions for every step of the process from choosing a text to the final performance an exclusive interview with Nobel laureate Dario Fo a foreword by prize winning author Dacia Maraini Dario Fo Tony Mitchell, 2014-01-08 The first and only full length critical study of Dario Fo the 1997 Nobel Prize for Literature Winner This book now extensively rewritten and updated remains the only full length critical study to cover various phases of Dario Fo's theatrical career It looks at Fo's political influences and also the influence on his work of various theatrical motifs including the great clown traditions which stretch back to the middle ages The political work of Dario Fo and his wife collaborator Franca Rame is charted from the 1960s up to the present to give the reader clear insight into this playwright performer's unique literary and theatrical strengths Each of Fo's plays and productions is discussed at length and the author has included an extensive and updated bibliography which includes full production details quotes and writings about Fo Always a popular performer in his native Italy Fo has been one of the world's most performed dramatists In the author's words he is the people's court jester Comic Medievalism Louise D'Arcens, 2014 The role of laughter and humour in the postmedieval citation interpretation or recreation of the middle ages has hitherto received little attention a gap in scholarship which this book aims to fill Examining a wide range of comic texts and practices across several centuries from Don Quixote and early Chaucerian modernisation through to Victorian theatre the Monty Python films television and the experience of visiting sites of heritage tourism such as the Jorvik Viking Museum at York it identifies what has been perceived as uniquely funny about the Middle Ages in different times and places and how this has influenced ideas not just about the medieval but also about modernity Tracing the development and permutations of its various registers including satire parody irony camp wit jokes and farce the author offers fresh and amusing insight into comic medievalism as a vehicle for critical commentary on the present as well as the past and shows that for as long as there has been medievalism people have laughed at and with the middle ages Louise D'Arcens is Associate Professor in English Literatures at the University of Wollongong Mistero Buffo Dario Fo, 2006 Mistero Buffo is Dario Fo's one man tour de force in which he creates his own subversive version of Biblical stories Infused with the rhythmic drive of a jazz improvisation the immediacy of a newspaper headline and the epic scope of a historical novel Fo and his wife collaborator Franca Rame have performed Mistero Buffo throughout the world to over 10 million people One of the major theatrical artists of the twentieth century Italy's Dario Fo was awarded the 1997 Nobel Prize in Literature Ron Jenkins translations of Dario Fo have been performed across the country He is the theater department chair at Wesleyan University Frae Ither Tongues Bill Findlay, 2004 This collection of essays represents the first extended analysis of the nature and practice of modern translation into Scots It comprises essays of two complementary kinds reflections by translators on their practice in a given work and critical analyses of the use of Scots in representative translations The twelve essays cover poetry fiction drama and folk ballads and translations from Greek Latin Chinese Italian

French Russian Danish Romanesco and Quebecois The Theater of Narration Juliet Guzzetta, 2021-08-15 Honorable Mention Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies This book examines the theater of narration an Italian performance genre and aesthetic that revisits historical events of national importance from local perspectives drawing on the rich relationship between personal experiences and historical accounts Incorporating original research from the private archives of leading narrators artists who write and perform their work Juliet Guzzetta argues that the practice teaches audiences how ordinary people aren't simply witnesses to history but participants in its creation The theater of narration emerged in Italy during the labor and student protests domestic terrorism and social progress of the 1970s Developing Dario Fo and Franca Rame's style of political theater influenced by Jerzy Grotowski and Bertolt Brecht and following in the freewheeling actor author traditions of the commedia dell'arte narrators created a new form of popular theater that grew in prominence in the 1990s and continues to gain recognition Guzzetta traces the history of the theater of narration contextualizing its origins both political and intellectual and centers the contributions of Teatro Settimo a performance group overlooked in previous studies She also examines the genre's experiments in television and media The first full length book in English on the subject The Theater of Narration leverages close readings and a wealth of primary sources to examine the techniques used by narrators to remake history a process that reveals the ways in which history itself is a theater of narration The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality Philology and Performing Arts Mattia Cavagna, Costantino Maeder, 2014-10-30 This volume invites to bridge the traditional gap between the author and the scribes which means between the original text and the copies in order deal with more complex situations in which the performer the screenwriter or the director Dario Fo

Tom Behan, 2000 The first political biography of Europe's leading radical playwright and winner of the 1997 Nobel Prize for Literature Literature, 1996-2000 Horace Engdahl, 2002 In addition to the presentation speeches and the Nobel lectures these volumes also provide brief biographies and the Nobel laureates own accounts of their many years of preparation and effort that led to their achievements Equally important to our understanding of history and humanity are the great works of literature The Nobel Prize for literature recognizes modern classics and the efforts of authors to bridge gaps between different cultures time periods and styles Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1996-2000 1996 WISLAWA SZYMBORSKA for poetry that with ironic precision allows the historical and biological context to come to light in fragments of human reality 1997 DARIO FO who emulates the jesters of the Middle Ages in scourging authority and upholding the dignity of the down trodden 1998 JOS SARAMAGO who with parables sustained by imagination compassion and irony continually enables us once again to apprehend an elusory reality 1999 GÜNTER GRASS whose frolicsome black fables portray the forgotten face of history 2000 GAO XINGJIAN for an oeuvre of universal validity bitter insights and linguistic ingenuity which has opened new paths for the Chinese novel and drama The Tradition of the Actor-author in Italian Theatre Donatella Fischer, 2017-12-02 The central importance of the actor-author is a distinctive feature of Italian theatrical life in all its eclectic range of regional cultures and artistic traditions The fascination of the figure is that he or she stands on both sides of one of theatre's most important power relationships between the exhilarating freedom of performance and the austere restriction of authorship and the written text This broad ranging volume brings together critical essays on the role of the actor-author spanning the period from the Renaissance to the present Starting with Castiglione Ruzante and the commedia dell'arte and surveying the works of Dario Fo De Filippo and Bene among others the contributors cast light on a tradition which continues into Neapolitan and Sicilian theatre today and in Italy's currently fashionable narrative theatre where the actor-author is centre stage in a solo performance Stuart Hood, Twentieth-Century Partisan David Hutchison, David Johnson, 2020-07-31 This collection introduces the reader to the life and times of Stuart Hood 1915-2011 Highlighting Hood's year spent fighting with the Italian Resistance during the Second World War the essays consider how his experiences as a partisan influenced his peacetime trajectory Written by distinguished scholars from several disciplines each chapter examines different aspects of Hood's life and work including his Scottish boyhood and university education in Edinburgh his distinguished career as a broadcaster presiding over an era of unprecedented creativity at BBC television his role in the establishment of the discipline of media studies and his contribution to radical European culture as the translator of 40 literary works from Italian German French and Russian and as the author of eight acclaimed novels Stuart Hood's reticence made him an enigma to many who knew him This collection assesses his many faceted achievements demonstrating how his life provides fresh insights into twentieth century European history This book will appeal to readers interested in the history of British and European socialism media studies and literature Information Technologies for Performing
