Sex and Shopping: The Confessions of a Nice Jewish Girl Judith Krantz,2000-05-11 Dear Reader As I was about to start my eleventh novel I abruptly realized that I was making a huge mistake On the verge of launching into the imagined world of a twenty eight year old I felt an intense need to tell another story the story of a woman I know through and through a woman with more wealth of experience a woman who s seen more real glamour known more fascinating people lived in a world of more sophistication and arrived at more hard won maturity than that twenty eight year old could hope for in short my own story I ve tried to remain as unknowable as possible the better to let my heroines hold the stage but now I was ready to tell the truth about myself with no holding back I ve had a different life from that of the majority of women of my generation and background While I seemed like another nice Jewish girl underneath that convenient cover I d traveled my own inner directed path and had many a spicy and secret adventure I grew up in a complicated tangle of privilege family problems and tormented teenaged sexuality After a riotous education at Wellesley my life was turned upside down by a glorious year in Paris marked by an intense but ill starred romance I spent the next half decade in New York sowing lighthearted wild oats until I finally met my true love to whom I ve been married for forty six years When I was fifty I had an utterly unexpected almost unbelievable success as a number one bestselling novelist that has continued for book after book Challenging lucky exciting and often devastatingly askew my life seems to have been lived under a wild and antic star I ve had as much amazing fun as my heroines and here s the book to prove it Judith Krantz Sisters of the Road Barbara Wilson,2013-11-12
