Mixed And Matched Interreligious Courtship And Marriage In Northern Ireland

Robert E. Miller, Rick Wilford

Mixed And Matched Interreligious Courtship And Marriage In Northern Ireland:

Mixed and Matched Raymond M. Lee, 1994 Drawing on detailed interviews with Catholic Protestant couples in Northern Ireland this book examines how couples marry across group boundaries in the context of violent social conflict Challenging existing theoretical assumptions about intermarriages Mixed and Matched looks at how deviant relationships are formed and how the wider social environment reacts to them Contents The Northern Irish Context Patterns of Interreligious Courtship I Patterns of Interreligious Courtship II Getting Married Rules Decisions and Change Aspects of Married Life Concluding Reflections Intercultural Couples Jill M. Bystydzienski, 2011-05-23 An analysis of intercultural couples in the US Women, Families, and Feminist Politics J Dianne Garner, Suzanne Cherrin, 2014-07-16 Women and their roles within families must be understood within the context of ethnic traditions religion and culture Women Families and Feminist Politics A Global Exploration combines all of these aspects to evaluate the similarities and differences of women around the world Readers will learn about diverse theories relating to women and their familial roles the different categories of feminism and how cultures and ethnic traditions shape and sometimes restrict a woman s identity Using feminist and sociocultural theories to critically examine the role of adult women within their families Women Families and Feminist Politics offers ideas and suggestions on what has to be done in order for all of women s experiences and concerns to be valued and looked upon as important In addition to providing you with an understanding of how customs and cultures contribute to societal standards set for women Women Families and Feminist Politics discusses several factors that contribute to the formation of women s roles and identity including the economic situation of the family and the country in which the woman lives a developed or developing country cultural diversity in monogamous heterosexual marriage relations and specific marriage traditions such as dowries family structures such as nonnuclear extended polygamous mixed religion relationships mixed race relationships or same sex relationships reproduction and sexual standards in relation to religion government policies and world population gender equity in the workplace and programs for women in global development the health care needs of women and how they vary depending on culture political philosophies and resources women and violence in societal and family contexts from war rapes female circumcision and footbinding to battery and sexual harassment Women Families and Feminist Politics looks at the daily challenges and concerns of adult women within the context of family to help you understand the different needs of women in relation to their culture and ethnic background Focusing on the importance of views concerning the meaning of women s social status power and success Women Families and Feminist Politics contains case studies and statistical data that identify critical issues pertaining to you personally and to all women throughout the world By understanding how women s families help shape their identities you will be able to learn about the vast experiences of women and the inequalities we have yet to overcome Inappropriate Relationships Robin Goodwin, Duncan Cramer, 2005-04-11 In one of the great euphemisms of our time an embattled President Clinton admitted to an inappropriate relationship with his White House intern Monica Lewinsky But what exactly is an inappropriate relationship For that matter what is an appropriate relationship And how can an understanding of the rules of appropriateness help us understand personal relationships in our modern world Contributors to this book discuss the personal boundaries and taboos of modern relationships Together they examine the power struggles that can occur when individuals are involved in inappropriate relationships and the ways individuals in such a relationship may attempt to buffer themselves against sanctions or even embrace this relationship as an agent of social change Representing work from a range of disciplines this collection will appeal to scholars researchers students and professionals working on relationships issues in areas across the social sciences including those working in the fields of social psychology family studies social anthropology cultural studies and communication IBSS: Sociology: 1993 Vol 43 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in sociology in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics one of the world s leading social science institutions Published annually the IBSS is available in four subject areas anthropology economics political science and sociology Bulletin of the Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies ,2000

Women, Ethnicity and Nationalism Robert E. Miller,Rick Wilford,2004-01-14 Women Ethnicity and Nationalism asks whether societies caught in political or social transition provide new opportunities for women or instead create new burdens and obstacles for them Using contemporary case studies each author looks at the interaction of gender ethnicity and class in a divided society The varying experiences of women are discussed in the following countries Northern Ireland South Africa the former Soviet Union and Yugoslavia Yemen Lebanon and Malaysia Computer Analysis and Qualitative Research Nigel Fielding,Raymond M Lee,1998-07-29 This work is intended for researchers academics and students across the social sciences

Researching Life Stories and Family Histories Robert Lee Miller,1999-09-22 A comprehensive balanced and judicious treatment of biographical methods in social research made all the more useful to students by its careful delineation of the practicalities involved Raymond M Lee Royal Holloway University of London Specifically designed for those carrying out biographical life history or family history research this concise guide covers the methods and issues involved The author demonstrates that biographical research is a distinctive way of conceptualizing social activity The three main approaches to biographical and family history research are covered Realist focused around grounded theory techniques of interviewing Neo positivist more structured interview techniques Narrative with emphasis on the active construction of life stories through the interplay between interviewer and interviewee An invaluable introduction to the field which contains much that will be of interest to the experienced practitioner the book will be ideal for researchers in sociology psychology political science social policy or anthropology Women and Political Participation in Northern Ireland Robert Lee Miller,Rick Wilford,Freda
