Who's Who in Baker Street David Cameron Dunn, Ph. D., 2025-04-28 Who's Who in Baker Street was written to appeal to the thousands of Sherlock Holmes fans who would enjoy a different approach to their thirst for facts about the Master. It should appeal to the many Holmes Fan Clubs and organizations such as the Baker Street Irregulars. Following the Who's Who section of the book, the sixty synopses should provide handy abbreviated reading of all the tales of the canon. About the Author David Cameron Dunn Ph.D. was born in 1934 in Loma Linda, California and graduated from Herbert Hoover High School in San Diego in 1951. His abiding interest in the world's only consulting detective first began in 1948 when he purchased the 1,323-page The Complete Sherlock Holmes. This interest has persisted ever since, and the well-worn rebound volume has never left the author's side. Dunn completed a four-year active tour of duty in the United States Air Force 1952-1956 and was honorably discharged with the rank of staff sergeant. In 1958, taking advantage of the Korean War GI Bill, Dunn began his higher education at Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration in Ithaca, New York. There he received his BS in 1962, his MS in 1965, and his PhD in 1970. He remained on the Hotel School's financial management faculty for more than thirty years, retiring in 1994 as professor emeritus. The author and his beloved wife Elaine Joyce celebrated their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary in 2019. In early 2020, she left for a better place at the age of eighty-three. Among the author's other works are Deutsch From Scratch, an Elementary Approach to Learning German, and The N O V O Nostalgia Movie Quiz and Information Book, both books published by Dorrance.

The Musical Year-book of the United States, 1893 The Musical Yearbook of the United States ..., 1889 War Diaries Jean-Paul Sartre, 1999 During the phony war that preceded the invasion of France between late 1939 and the summer of 1940, the young Jean-Paul Sartre was stationed in his native Alsace as part of a meteorological unit. He used his considerable periods of spare time between mundane duties like watching weather balloons to make a series of notes on philosophy, literature, politics, history, and autobiography that anticipate the themes of his later masterpieces and often surpass them in literary verve and directness. These War Diaries form a portrait of Sartre in his most intense and brilliant phase. With them, the twentieth century's most remarkable and public philosopher has provided us with a fitting posthumous monument to his honesty and creativity.

The Child's Conception of the World Jean Piaget, 1929 A King in Hiding A King in Hiding Fahim, Sophie Le Callennec, Xavier Parmentier, 2015-03-05 LONGLISTED FOR THE WILLIAM HILL SPORTS BOOK OF THE YEAR 2015 Forced to flee his native Bangladesh, eight-year-old chess prodigy Fahim arrived in Paris with his father. Refused asylum as illegal immigrants, they spiralled downwards into homelessness and desperation. By a stroke of luck, Fahim was introduced to one of France's top chess coaches, Xavier Parmentier, who tutored him and gave him a sense of purpose. His struggles on the chessboard mirrored both his victories and his crushing defeats in his battle for a normal life. Rising through local and national tournaments to be crowned France's Under 12 Chess Champion in 2012, Fahim became a national sensation. In 2013, he went on to win the World Under 13 Student Championship Told through the clear eyes of a child Fahim's tale is not only a moving account of the grim realities that underlie a supposedly caring society but also a heartwarming testimony to a father's determination the kindness of strangers and one small boy's courageous will to succeed Babies—Darwin's Survivors as the Fittest Louis Carini, 2011-06-24 Darwin overlooked the fact that we had to originate as babies in his On the Origin of Species by Means of Natural Selection 1859 Surely we all know that babies are in no condition to survive on their own Babies are not fitted to survive in any Struggle for Existence That means that we Homo sapiens had to have originated as the first human babies of our hominid parents I propose that we originated on the basis of my new theory of evolution in Lectures VI and VII above Those hominids loved us and cared for us and that is how human babies survived But there has never been a theory of our origins Or at least there had been none until my The Origins of Homo Sapiens Xlibris 2008 In Lecture VI I newly present my theory of evolution and in Lecture VII a theory of our special human origins I write origins because there must have been many small groups of hominid survivors of my proposed holocaust whose young women then gave birth to those first Homo sapiens babies How all of this took place is the subject of those two lectures If you wish you may go directly to them for each lecture stands on its own Louis Carini received his doctorate in Experimental Psychology from Clark University in 1955 He is the author of The Theory of Symbolic Transformations Three Axioms for a Theory of Conduct Spiritual Humanism and The Origins of Homo Sapiens Child's Conception of the World Jean Piaget, 2013-07-04 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Boston Musical Year-book and Musical Year in the United States ,1891 Directory of Directors in the City of Chicago ,1903 The Third Congress Horst Gundlach, 1998 Now available as single volumes as well as in a 13 volume set the rare proceedings collected here were originally published between 1920 and 1958 This set documents international activity in applied psychology between the wars and during the post War reestablishment of international scientific collaboration The proceedings of each Congress are reproduced with a short individual preface discussing their content and import Theatrical Costume, Masks, Make-Up and Wigs Sidney Jackson Jowers, 2013-10-15 This is the first bibliography in its field based on first hand collations of the actual articles International in scope it includes publications found in public theatre libraries and archives of Barcelona Berlin Brussels Budapest Florence London Milan New York and Paris amongst others Over 3500 detailed entries on separately published sources such as books sales and exhibition catalogues and pamphlets provide an indispensable guide for theatre students practitioners and historians Indices cover designers productions actors and performers The iconography provides an indexed record of over 6000 printed plates of performers in role illustrating performance costume from the 18th to 20th century The Bookman ,1925 Reports of the United States Commissioners to the Universal Exposition of 1889 at Paris United States.
