merciless deserts in the East Birgom leaves this world behind Sometimes joyful sometimes desperately sad sometimes written in excruciating detail or forgotten for years Birgom's Diary charts his long and eventful life in a world that's recognizably ours yet very different Maybe a few hundred years in the future maybe a few thousand I don't know Post apocalyptic but so far post that the apocalypse is the subject of speculation or mythology not history on the rare occasions that it enters anyone's consciousness at all This is not a sci fi world of high technology or space travel but nor is it a world of primitive savages But you'll have to read it In the back of the book there are some maps that Birgom drew of his travels It's in the same world as my previous novel Exile with some of the same characters Birgom is an important secondary character in Exile and his diary is mentioned The Story Elements below are oversimplified while there's a lot of nautical setting there's a lot of non nautical setting too and the time period is wrong
