Asian Americans and the Shifting Politics of Race Rowena Robles, 2013-09-13 Asian Americans and the Shifting Politics of Race examines the political and discursive struggles around the dismantling of race based admissions policies in an elite public high school in San Francisco The book analyzes the arguments put forth by plaintiffs in and the media's depiction of the case Brian Ho Patrick Wong Hilary Chen v SFUSD The Ho lawsuit filed by a group of Chinese Americans challenged race based admissions policies that were intended to ensure diversity by giving special consideration to African American and Latino students Robles argues that the Ho plaintiffs exploited the dominant racial construction of Asian Americans as model minorities to portray themselves as victims of discrimination and relied on contrasting constructions of Black and Latino students as undeserving and unqualified beneficiaries of affirmative action The decision in favor of the plaintiffs effectively ended school desegregation racial balance and affirmative action in San Francisco In order to examine the consequences of the Ho decision on student attitudes Robles spent four years studying and observing the first cohort of students to enter the high school after race was eliminated from admissions considerations

Global Spaces of Chinese Culture Sylvia Van Ziegert,2013-09-13 This book is an exploration of how Chinese communities in the United States and Germany create and disseminate a sense of diasporic Chinese identity It not only compares the local conditions of the Chinese communities in the two locations but also moves to a global dimension to track the Chinese transnational imaginary Van Ziegert analyzes three strategies that overseas Chinese use to articulate their identities as diasporic subjects being more American German being more Chinese hybridizing and commodifying Chinese culture through trans cultural performances These three strategies are not mutually exclusive and they often intersect and supplement each other in unexpected ways The author also analyzes how the everyday lives of overseas Chinese connect with global and local factors and how these experiences contribute to the formation of a global Chinese identity

Protestant Missionaries, Asian Immigrants, and Ideologies of Race in America, 1850-1924 Jennifer Snow,2006-12-15 This book examines how in defending Asian rights and their own version of Christian idealism against scientific racism missionaries developed a complex theology of race that prefigured modern ideologies of multiculturalism and reached its final belated culmination in the liberal Protestant support of the civil rights movements in the 1960s
