Black Political Mobilization, Leadership, Power and Mass Behavior Minion K. C. Morrison, 1987-08-31 Black Political Mobilization accounts for the political success of black Americans in the South. Minion Morrison returns to Mississippi, the center of much of the political activism of the 1960s, to analyze the remarkable improvement in black electoral participation in the years following passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Mississippi's substantial black population has experienced marked electoral success despite a history of strict racial exclusion. The dramatic and widespread nature of mobilization there makes it one of the most illustrative case studies for exploring this period of political change in America. Mississippi represents a broader phenomenon of political change that sustains a new leadership class in the Southern region. Three rural Mississippi towns serve as the focal point for the study. They each have a population of under 2,000, have overwhelming Afro-American voting majorities, are poor and largely agricultural, and have been affected by the civil rights movement of the 60s and have elected a black mayor since 1973 The towns are prime examples of the character and process of minority electoral politics and mobilization in the rural South A new class of black leaders is nurtured and installed in office in an environment where a newly and highly mobilized constituency takes advantage of its majority status in the electorate This book combines good theory with lively interviews and rich case histories to highlight an essentially new variety of participatory democracy in American politics and government Peaceful Islamist Mobilization in the Muslim World Julie Chernov Hwang, 2009-09-28 In Peaceful Islamist Mobilization in the Muslim World What Went Right Julie Chernov Hwang presents a compelling and innovative new theory and framework for examining the variation in Islamist mobilization strategies in Muslim Asia and the Middle East The Sociology of Economic Life Mark Granovetter, 2018-04-17 This book incorporates classic and contemporary readings in economic sociology and related disciplines to provide students with a broad understanding of the many dimensions of economic life It discusses Max Weber's key concepts in economics and sociology The Oxford Handbook of U.S. Women's Social Movement Activism Holly J. McCammon, Verta A. Taylor, Jo Reger, Rachel L. Einwohner, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of U.S. Women's Social Movement Activism provides a comprehensive examination of scholarly research and knowledge on a variety of aspects of women's collective activism in the United States tracing both continuities and critical changes over time Waging Peace, Building a World in which Life Matters Lalrinawmi Ralte, Stella Faria, 2004 Festschrift in honour of Gabriele Dietrich of Tamil Nadu Theological Seminary social activist and feminist contributed articles on diverse aspects predominantly on social status of women and feminism in India Nonprofit Organizations and Civil Society in the United States Kelly LeRoux, Mary K. Feeney, 2014-11-13 LeRoux and Feeney's Nonprofit Organizations and Civil Society in the United States makes a departure from existing nonprofit texts on the market rather than focus on management it focuses on nonprofit organizations and their contributions to the social political and economic dimensions of society The book also covers the nexus between nonprofits and civil society This text offers a theory oriented undergraduate introduction to the nonprofit field and an examination of the multifaceted roles these organizations play in American society Mobilizing for Democracy Vera Schatten Coelho, Bettina von Liers, 2013-04-04 Mobilizing for Democracy is an in depth study into how ordinary citizens and their organizations mobilize to deepen democracy Featuring a collection of new empirical case studies from Angola Bangladesh Brazil India Kenya Nigeria and South Africa this important new book illustrates how forms of political mobilization such as protests social participation activism litigation and lobbying engage with the formal institutions of representative democracy in ways that are core to the development of democratic politics No other volume has brought together examples from such a broad Southern spectrum and covering such a diversity of actors rural and urban dwellers transnational activists religious groups politicians and social leaders The cases illuminate the crucial contribution that citizen mobilization makes to democratization and the building of state institutions and reflect the uneasy relationship between citizens and the institutions that are designed to foster their political participation
