Mountain City:

Mountain City Gregory Martin, 2001-06-04 The small rural town of Mountain City Nevada is home to only thirty three people but the town's eclectic residents help make the community more alive Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest (N.F.), Mountain City, Ruby Mountains, and Jarbidge Ranger Districts Combined Travel Management Projects, 2011 Southern Idaho Ghost Towns Wayne C. Sparling, 1974 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press When mineral riches were found in southern Idaho boomtowns arose across this rugged land When the mining activity ceased these towns were quickly abandoned yet they still stand a testimony to the vagaries of life in the frontier in pursuit of gold and silver Federal Communications Commission Reports United States. Federal Communications Commission, 1986 Federal Communications Commission Reports. V. 1-45, 1934/35-1962/64; 2d Ser., V. 1- July 17/Dec. 27, 1965-. United States. Desmond Alexander, 2018-01-16 For here we have no lasting city but we seek the city that is to come Hebrews 13:14 At the very heart of God's plan for the world stands an extraordinary city Beginning with the garden of Eden in Genesis and ending with the New Jerusalem in Revelation the biblical story reveals how God has been working throughout history to establish a city filled with his glorious presence Tracing the development of the theme of city in both testaments T Desmond Alexander draws on his experience as a biblical scholar to show us God's purpose throughout Scripture to dwell with his redeemed people in a future extraordinary city on a transformed earth Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series Mineral Exploration and Development Act of 1991 United States. Subcommittee on Mining and Natural Resources, 1992 ICC Register, 1985 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 2003 In Pursuit of Gold Sue Fawn Chung, 2011-08-01 Both a history of an overlooked community and a well rounded reassessment of prevailing assumptions about Chinese miners in the American West In Pursuit of Gold brings to life in rich detail the world of turn of the century mining towns in the Northwest Sue Fawn Chung meticulously recreates the lives of Chinese immigrants miners merchants and others who populated these towns and interacted amicably with their white and Native American neighbors defying the common perception of nineteenth century Chinese communities as insular enclaves subject to increasing prejudice and violence While most research has focused on Chinese miners in California this book is the first extensive study of Chinese experiences in the towns of John Day in Oregon and Tuscarora Island Mountain and Gold Creek in Nevada Chung illustrates the relationships between miners and merchants within the communities and in the larger context of immigration arguing that the leaders of the Chinese and non Chinese communities worked together to create economic interdependence and to short circuit many of the hostilities and tensions that plagued other mining towns

Peppered with fascinating details about these communities from the intricacies of Chinese gambling games to the techniques of hydraulic mining In Pursuit of Gold draws on a wealth of historical materials including immigration records census manuscripts legal documents newspapers memoirs and manuscript collections Chung supplements this historical research with invaluable first hand observations of artifacts that she experienced in archaeological digs and restoration efforts at several of the sites of the former booming mining towns In clear analytical prose Chung expertly characterizes the movement of Chinese miners into Oregon and Nevada the heyday of their mining efforts in the region and the decline of the communities due to changes in the mining industry Highlighting the positive experiences and friendships many of the immigrants had in these relatively isolated mining communities In Pursuit of Gold also suggests comparisons with the Chinese diaspora in other locations such as British Columbia and South Africa
