Mousedriver Chronicles The True Life Adventures Of Two First Time Entrepreneurs:

The Mousedriver Chronicles John Lusk, Kyle Harrison, 2009-04-29 When John Lusk and Kyle Harrison graduated from Wharton in 1999 nearly all of their entrepreneurially minded classmates set their sights on conquering the dot com world To the almost universal disdain of their friends and professors these two turned down tempting job offers borrowed money from friends and family loaded up on credit card debt and decided to start a single product company to manufacture and market a computer mouse shaped like the head of a golf club They watched enviously as nearly all of their friends became millionaires in the dot com boom but they persevered and forged their own path To chart their progress and to keep themselves motivated against the odds they kept a diary that recorded the realities of their everyday life as entrepreneurs Out of their diary entries grew The MouseDriver Chronicles an intimate insightful and often funny look into the minds of two entrepreneurs and how they brought a simple idea to market From The MouseDriver Chronicles School was just about over and the wondrous combination of brick baking heat and relentless high humidity that defines summer in south Philadelphia wasn't too far off We couldn't afford to wait around for it We needed to blaze to San Francisco and get rolling Fine No problem Except we didn't yet have an office in San Francisco Or a place to live Or MouseDrivers in stock We had all our plans and ambition but everything real about running a business was ahead of us Immediately ahead
