Paul Et Virginie Roman:

Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser, György Mihály Vajda, 2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Comparée des Littératures de Langues Européennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumières au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Théâtre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Epoque im _berblick attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution

Regressive Fictions Robin Howells, 2017-12-02 In a cultural shift around the mid point of the French eighteenth century the mode of wit is increasingly displaced by bourgeois pathos Social sophistication and sexual experience are rejected in favour of a retreat into ideal imagination Instead of the novel of worldliness we encounter fictions of better worlds original natural familial innocent and harmonious protected against reality and time The regressive shift is traced in this study in general terms and then through detailed analysis of three of the best selling novels of the period The turning point is represented by Mme de Graffignys Lettres d'une Péruvienne 1747 1752 with its profound ambivalence towards knowledge A new order is revealed and set out but still declared lacking in Rousseaus Julie ou la Nouvelle Héloïse 1761 The visionary return to the organic wholeness of nature is offered by Bernardins Paul et Virginie 1788

Paul Et Virginie ,1897 Thinking About Tears Marco Menin, 2022-07-28 A crucial period for the birth of the modern subject France's long eighteenth century approximately 1650 1820 was an era marked by the formulation of a new aesthetic and ethical code revolving around the intensification of emotions and the hyperbolic use of weeping Precisely because tears are not a simple biological fact but rather hang suspended between natural immediacy on one side and cultural artifice on the other the analysis of crying came to represent an exemplary testing ground for investigations into the enigmatic relations binding the realm of physiology to that of psychology Thinking About Tears explores how the link between tears and sensibility in France's long eighteenth century helps shed light on the process through which the European emotional lexicon has been built from viewing tears as governed by the sphere of passions and feelings thinkers began to view crying as first a matter of sensibility and then of sensibilité a pathological excess of sensibility thereby presupposing an intimate connection with the category of sentiments For this reason this volume examines not only or even primarily the actual emotion of crying but also the attempt to think about and explain this feeling Drawing on a wide range of early modern philosophical medical religious and literary texts including moral treatises on the passions medical textbooks
