Tinti, 2021-11-29 Examining the interplay between the oil economy and identity politics using the Kurdistan Region of Iraq as a case study this book tells the untold story of how extractivism in the Kurdish autonomous region is interwoven in a mosaic of territorial disputes simmering ethnic tensions dynastic rule party allegiances crony patronage and divergent visions about nature Since the ousting of Saddam Hussein the de facto borders of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq have repeatedly changed with energy interests playing a major role in such processes of territorialisation However relatively little research exists on the topic This book provides a timely empirical analysis of the intersections between extractive industries oil imaginaries and identity formation in one of the most coveted energy frontiers worldwide It shines a light on relations between the global production networks of petro capitalism and extractive localities Besides the strained federal relationship with the Iraqi central government the transformative effects the petroleum industry has had on Kurdish society are also explored in depth Moreover the book fills a gap in the literature on Kurdish Studies which has devoted scant attention to energy related issues in the re imagination of Kurdish self determination This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries energy studies conflict studies Middle Eastern politics and political ecology History of the European Oil and Gas Industry J. Craig, F. Gerali, F. MacAulauy, R. Sorkhabi, 2018 The history of the European oil and gas industry reflects local as well as global political events economic constraints and the personal endeavours of individual petroleum geoscientists as much as it does the development of technologies and the underlying geology of the region The first commercial oil wells in Europe were drilled in Poland in 1853 Romania in 1857 Germany in 1859 and Italy in 1860 The 23 papers in this volume focus on the history and heritage of the oil and gas industry in the key European oil producing countries from the earliest onshore drilling to its development into the modern industry that we know today The contributors chronicle the main events and some of the major players that shaped the industry in Europe The volume also marks several important anniversaries including 150 years of oil exploration in Poland and Romania the centenary of the drilling of the first oil well in the UK and 50 years of oil production from onshore Spain Catalogue of the Guildhall Library of the City of London Guildhall (London). - Library,1889 Catalogue of the Guildhall Library of the City of London Guildhall Library (London, England),1889
