Regional Culture And Economic Development Explorations In European Ethnology:

Regional Culture and Economic Development Ullrich Kockel, 2017-07-05 An interdisciplinary perspective based primarily on European ethnology and political economy this book explores various aspects of development in rural as well as urban locations Incorporating the results of extensive fieldwork it addresses key issues in the contemporary debate on culture and economy

Regional Culture and Economic Development Ullrich Kockel, 2017-07-05 From an interdisciplinary perspective based primarily on European ethnology and political economy this book explores issues and concepts concerning the link between culture and economy A historical introduction to key theoretical problems is followed by five empirical chapters discussing aspects of development in rural as well as urban locations The author considers local leadership looking in particular at part time farming counter urban migration and pluriactivity The classification of informal economy is illustrated with examples drawn from fieldwork and urban poverty and migration are each explored in detail A discussion of heritage and identity as a resource for development questions whether the concern with the authenticity of culture s may be an inappropriate approach to take The book concludes with a theoretical reflection on the problematic of culture and economy and a call for a return to the roots of European ethnology as an essentially political science

Culture and Identity Politics in Northern Ireland Máiréad Nic Craith, 2003-05-02 Civilization and culture have traditionally been regarded as mutually exclusive concepts In this comparative case study of Northern Ireland M ir ad Nic Craith explores the commitment of unionists to a civic culture blind British state contrasting this with nationalist demands for official recognition of Irish culture The cultural turn in Northern Irish politics and the development of a bicultural infrastructure is examined here in the context of differing interpretations of equality and increasing demands for intercultural communication within as well as between communities

Articulating Europe Jonas Frykman, Péter Niedermüller, 2003 This reprint of a collection of articles addresses the challenges that European ethnology is facing Representing a variety of localities they give new insights and perspectives to the importance of doing empirical fieldwork and of seeing the emergence of new patterns as well as the remaking of old ones

Heritage and Festivals in Europe Ullrich Kockel, Cristina Clopot, Baiba Tjarve, Máiréad Nic Craith, 2019-08-28 Heritage and Festivals in Europe critically investigates the purpose reach and effects of heritage festivals Providing a comprehensive and detailed analysis of comparatively selected aspects of intangible cultural heritage the volume demonstrates how such heritage is mobilised within events that have specific agency particularly in the production and consumption of intrinsic and instrumental benefits for tourists local communities and performers Bringing together experts from a wide range of disciplines the volume presents case studies from across Europe that consider many different varieties of heritage festivals Focusing primarily on the popular and institutional practices of heritage making the book addresses the gap between discourses of heritage at an official level and cultural practice at the local and regional level Contributors to the volume also study the different factors influencing the sustainable development of tradition as part of intangible cultural heritage at the micro and meso levels and examine underlying structures that are common across different countries Heritage and Festivals in Europe takes a multidisciplinary approach and as such should be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of heritage studies tourism performing arts cultural studies and identity studies Policymakers and practitioners throughout Europe should also find much to interest them within the pages of this volume Chapters 1 2 3 10 11 and 13 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Radical Human Ecology Rose Roberts, 2016-04-08 Human ecology the study and practice of relationships between the natural and the social environment has gained prominence as scholars seek more effectively to engage with pressing global concerns In the past seventy years most human ecology has skirted the fringes of geography sociology and biology This volume pioneers radical new directions In particular it explores the power of indigenous and traditional peoples epistemologies both to critique and to complement insights from modernity and postmodernity Aimed at an international readership its contributors show that an inter cultural and transdisciplinary approach is required The demands of our era require a scholarship of ontological depth an approach that can not just debate issues but also address questions of practice and meaning Organized into three sections Head Heart and Hand this volume covers the following key research areas Theories of Human Ecology Indigenous and Wisdom Traditions Eco spiritual Epistemologies and Ontology Research practice in Human Ecology The researcher researched relationship Research priorities for a holistic world With the study of human ecology becoming increasingly imperative this comprehensive volume will be a valuable addition for classroom use

The Anthropology of Ireland Hastings Donnan, Thomas M. Wilson, 2020-08-04 Where and what is Ireland What are the identities of the people of Ireland How has European Union membership shaped Irish people's lives and interests How global is local Ireland This book argues that such questions can be answered only by understanding everyday aspects of Irish culture and identity Such understanding is achieved by paying close attention to what people in Ireland themselves say about the radical changes in their lives in the context of wider global transformation As notions of sex religion and politics are radically reworked in an Ireland being re imagined in ways inconceivable just a generation ago anthropologists have been at the forefront of recording the results The first comprehensive book length introduction to anthropological research on the island as a whole The Anthropology of Ireland considers the changing place in a changing Ireland of religion sex sport race dance young people the Travellers St Patrick's Day and much more

Re-Visioning Europe U. Kockel, 2010-07-28 Drawing on ethno anthropological fieldwork this book considers issues of identity and belonging in Europe from a consciously emic perspective The book explores issues such as borders migration economic organization heritage and the politics and practice of developing cultural understanding

Cultural Heritages as Reflexive Traditions U. Kockel, M. Nic Craith, Máiréad Nic Craith, 2006-12-08 Drawing on anthropological fieldwork this book presents case studies illustrating the re conceptualization of heritages and traditions in selected locations in Africa Asia Australia and Europe The authors review the importance of oral traditions as markers of identity and consider competing narratives of heritage in postcolonial societies Negotiating Culture Reginald Byron,Ullrich Kockel,2006 How are cultural boundaries created conceived and experienced On the public level the political practices of sub nationalism have been revitalized by contemporary ideologies of multiculturalism providing new rhetorical forms which ultimately deny the legitimacy of indeterminacy Yet on the private level the creation of new intersubjectivities is a normal consequence of movement mixing and living together resulting in novel repertoires of individual and collective experiences This book seeks to connect both the public and the private within the same frame of analysis Reginald Byron is professor of sociology and anthropology University of Wales Swansea UK Ullrich Kockel holds a chair in European Studies at Bristol University of the West of England UK where he leads the European Ethnological Research Unit Heritage under Socialism Eszter Gantner,Corinne Geering,Paul Vickers,2021-10-15 How was heritage understood and implemented in European socialist states after World War II By exploring national and regional specificities within the broader context of internationalization this volume enriches the conceptual methodological and empirical scope of heritage studies through a series of fascinating case studies Its transnational approach highlights the socialist world s diverse interpretations of heritage and the ways in which they have shaped the trajectories of present day preservation practices The Euro and Its Rivals Gustav Peebles,2011-06-14 Gustav Peebles takes an anthropological look at two seemingly separate developments in Europe at the turn of the millennium the rollout of the euro and the building of new transnational regions such as the Oresund Region envisioned as a melding of Copenhagen Denmark with Malm Sweden Peebles argues that the drive to create such transnational spaces is inseparable from the drive to create a pan national currency He studies the practices and rhetoric surrounding the national currencies of Denmark and Sweden the euro and several new local currencies struggling to come into being The Euro and Its Rivals provides a deep historical study of the welfare state and the monetary policies and utopian visions that helped to ground it at the same time shedding new light on the contemporary movement of goods people credit and debt Identity Destabilised Thomas Hylland Eriksen,Elisabeth Schober,2016-10-20 The world is overheated Too full and too fast out of sync contradiction ridden and unequal It is the age of the Anthropocene of humanity s indelible mark upon the planet In short it is globalisation but not as we know it This collection explores social identities in today s overheated world seen from an anthropological perspective The focus is on contradictions tensions and paradoxes How can an identity be stable if its border is constantly shifting How can a community survive if it is incorporated into a huge entity How does belonging work in new cities And what can indigenous peoples do to retain a sense of self in a fast moving neoliberal world Ethnographically rich and diverse in its scope Identity Destabilised contains chapters from many parts of the world including the Philippines Israel Australia the Cape Verde Islands and Afghanistan The authors investigate how identity changes in response to contemporary forces from rapid industrialisation the enforced return of migrants and the silencing of indigenous groups to sudden population growth in boomtowns and the touristification of local culture Alternative countrysides Jeremy Macclancy, 2015-06-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license A fresh anthropological look at a central but neglected topic the profound changes in rural life throughout Western Europe today As locals leave for jobs in cities they are replaced by neo hippies lifestyle seekers eco activists and labour migrants from beyond the EU With detailed ethnographic examples contributors analyse new modes of living rurally and emerging forms of social organisation As incomers dreams come up against residents realities they detail the clashes and the cooperations between old and new residents They make us rethink the rural urban divide investigate regionalists politicisation of rural life and heritage and reveal how locals use EU monies to prop up or challenge existing hierarchies They expose the consequences of and reactions to grand EU restructuring policies which at times threaten to turn the countryside into a manicured playground for escapee urbanites This book will appeal to anyone seriously interested in the realities of rural life today Culture & Agriculture, 2007 Companies, Cultures, and the Region Nick Clifton, Stefan Gartner, Dieter Rehfeld, 2016-04-08 Europe has its strength in regional cultural diversity However current debates surrounding globalisation and the integration of markets tend to focus on the homogenisation of cultures whilst the emergence of vital and innovative regional cultures has typically been neglected This edited collection addresses this gap considering relevant questions such as how strategies orientations values and symbols help a company to become aware of its location and how different regional cultures are of interest to particular types of companies The book s central focus is the interaction of regional and corporate cultures how different cultures come together shape each other and change The volume takes an interdisciplinary approach bringing together research from cultural science regional science social science and economics This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal European Planning Studies Regional Culture and Economic Development Ullrich Kockel, 2002 Everyday Culture in Europe Máiréad Nic Craith, 2016-04-15 This book discusses the history and contemporary practice of studying cultures at home by examining Europe s regional or small ethnologies of the past present and future With the rise of nationalism and independence in Europe ethnologies have often played a major role in the nation building process The contributors to this book offer case studies of ethnologies as methodologies showing how they can address key questions concerning everyday life in Europe They also explore issues of European integration and the transnational dimension of culture in Europe today and examine how regional ethnologies can play a crucial part in forming a wider European ethnology as local participants have experience of combining identities within larger regions or nations A Behavioural Theory of Economic Development Robert Huggins, Piers Thompson, 2021-01-14 Innovation entrepreneurship knowledge and human capital are widely acknowledged as key levers of development Yet what are the sources of these factors and why do they differ in their endowment across regions Motivated by a belief that theories of economic development can move beyond the generally accepted explanations of location and the organization of industries and capital this book establishes a behavioural theory of economic development illustrating that differences in human behaviour across cities and regions are a significant deep rooted cause of uneven development Fusing a range of concepts relating to culture psychology human agency institutions and power it proposes that the long term differentials in economic development between cities and regions both within and across nations is strongly connected to the underlying forms of behaviour enacted by humans on an individual and collective basis Given a world of finite and limited resources coupled with a rapidly growing population especially in cities and urban regions human behaviour and the expectations and preferences upon which it is based are central to understanding how notions of development may change in coming years This book provides a novel theory of the role of psychocultural context and human behavioural and institutional frameworks in uneven economic development on a global scale

The European Puzzle Marion Demossier, 2007 The twin concepts of Culture and Identity are inescapable in any discussion of European Integration and yet over the last ten years their meaning has become increasingly contested By combining an anthropological and political perspective the authors challenge the traditional boundaries within the issue of the construction of Europe In the first part historians and anthropologists from various national traditions discuss the process of the construction of Europe and its implications for cultural identities The second section examines a number of topics at the core of the process of Europeanization and presents up to date information on each of these issues political parties regions football cities the Euro ethnicity heritage and European cinema Emphasis is be placed on the political structuring of cultural identities by contrasting top down and bottom up processes that define the tensions between the unity and diversity of the European Community
