The Making of Consumer Law and Policy in Europe Hans-W. Micklitz, 2021-11-04 This book analyses the founding years of consumer law and consumer policy in Europe It combines two dimensions the making of national consumer law and the making of European consumer law and how both are intertwined The chapters on Germany Italy the Nordic countries and the United Kingdom serve to explain the economic and the political background which led to different legal and policy approaches in the then old Member States from the 1960s onwards The chapter on Poland adds a different layer the one of a former socialist country with its own consumer law and how joining the EU affected consumer law at the national level The making of European consumer law started in the 1970s rather cautiously but gradually the European Commission took an ever stronger position in promoting not only European consumer law but also in supporting the building of the European Consumer Organisation BEUC the umbrella organisation of the national consumer bodies The book unites the early protagonists who were involved in the making of consumer law in Europe Guido Alpa Ludwig Krmer Ewa Letowska Hans W Micklitz Klaus Tonner Iain Ramsay and Thomas Wilhelmsson supported by the younger generation Aneta Wiewi rowska Domagalska Mateusz Grochowski and Koen Docter who reconstructs the history of BEUC Niklas Olsen and Thomas Roethe analyse the construction of this policy field from a historical and sociological perspective This book offers a unique opportunity to understand a legal and political field that of consumer law and policy which plays a fundamental role in our contemporary societies

The Regulation of Unfair Commercial Practices under EC Directive 2005/29

Stephen Weatherill, Ulf Bernitz, 2007-02-07 This book represents the fruit of a conference held in Oxford on March 3 2006 under the auspices of the Institute of European and Comparative Law in the Oxford University Law Faculty Directive 2005 29 is an important new measure in the construction of a legal framework apt to promote an integrated economic space in the European Union It establishes a harmonised regime governing the control of unfair commercial practices As such it represents an important exercise in the use of new rules and new techniques and therefore poses new challenges to EU lawyers The purpose of this book is to inform and to explore the issues raised by the Directive issues which are of academic and practical interest in helping to understand the evolution of European consumer law within the broader programme of European market regulation The intense practical significance of this Directive which heralds a new regime is likely to provoke commercial operators to seek to exploit opportunities to pursue practices previously suppressed Consumer Protection Regulation University of Chicago.
