Manner, 2020-09-15 Reviewing game film is a discipline that sports teams often incorporate after each game Teams watch game videos to identify mistakes make adjustments consider radical changes and highlight successes The goal of this analysis is to facilitate individual and team improvements that will positively affect subsequent games The fundamental reason why a team needs adjustments is not always evident in the middle of the game But evaluating important elements after a game gives coaches and players the opportunity to review individual plays and players in a more relaxed setting away from the time constraints and pressures of the game So why aren't pastors and worship teams incorporating similar evaluative practices Implementing a collaborative process of analyzing worship services or planning for upcoming services requires a deep level of humility trust and shared accountability It also requires selfless leaders who are willing to sacrifice their own ideas and interests for the greater worshiping good of the congregation Better Sundays Begin on Mondays offers foundational worship considerations to help leadership teams ask questions evaluatively rather than defensively These weekly reflections encourage worship leaders and their teams to think beyond style to biblical and theological worship content Worshiping in the Small Membership Church Dr. Robin Knowles Wallace, 2010-12-01 Offers pastors new inspiration and fresh worship encounters with God Worship is the most important time in the life of the gathered faithful Inspirational and accessible this book will help pastors and worship leaders fully ground worship in scripture and tradition while being responsive to current times Included practical worship helps for the Christian year tips to involve the congregation in leadership and participation ways to our thinking about religious music Addressing his notion of a hyper religious music of sounds and colors it aims to show that Messiaen has broken new ground His reinvention of religious music makes us again aware of the fact that religious music if taken in its proper radical sense belongs to the foremost of musical adventures The work of Olivier Messiaen is well known for its inclusion of religious themes and gestures These alone however do not seem enough to account for the religious status of the work Arguing for a breakthrough toward the beyond on the basis of the synaesthetic experience of music Messiaen invites a confrontation with contemporary theologians and post secular thinkers How to account for a religious breakthrough that is produced by a work of art Starting from an analysis of his 1960s oratorio La Transfiguration de Notre Seigneur Jésus Christ this book arranges a moderated dialogue between Messiaen and the music theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar the phenomenology of revelation of Jean Luc Marion the rethinking of religion and technics in Jacques Derrida and Bernard Stiegler and the Augustinian ruminations of Søren Kierkegaard and Jean François Lyotard Ultimately this confrontation underscores the challenging yet deeply affirmative nature of Messiaen's music
