Blood and Power John Foot, 2022-06-09 Clear cool plainly written and devastating Lucy Hughes Hallett Times Literary Supplement A major history of the rise and fall of Italian fascism a dark tale of violence ideals and a country at war In the aftermath of the First World War the seeds of fascism were sown in Italy While the country reeled in shock a new movement emerged from the chaos one that preached hatred for politicians and love for the fatherland one that promised to build a New Roman Empire and make Italy a great power once again Wearing black shirts and wielding guns knives and truncheons the proponents of fascism embraced a climate of violence and rampant masculinity Led by Benito Mussolini they would systematically destroy the organisations of the left murdering and torturing anyone who got in their way In Blood and Power historian John Foot draws on decades of research to chart the turbulent years between 1915 and 1945 and beyond Drawing widely from accounts of people across the political spectrum fascists anti fascists communists anarchists victims perpetrators and bystanders he tells the story of fascism and its legacy which still disturbingly reverberates to this day Culture, Censorship and the State in Twentieth-century Italy Guido Bonsaver, 2024-11-01 This book brings together literary critics political historians historians of literature cinema and theatre and cultural sociologists to elucidate a fundamental area of enquiry into modern Italian history the nature and scope of relations between the state and the cultural sphere The Modernist Imagination Martin Jay, 2009 Some of the most exciting and innovative work in the humanities is occurring at the intersection of intellectual history and critical theory This volume includes work from some of the most prominent contemporary scholars in the humanities Italian Neorealist Cinema Torunn Haaland, 2013-12-17 This book traces the roots of neorealist film and draws parallels to neorealist fiction by surveying the major creative contributions to and critical receptions of this trend in Italian postwar cinema Italian Post-Neorealist Cinema Luca Barattoni, 2013-12-16 This book brings to the surface the lines of experimentation and artistic renewal appearing after the exhaustion of Neorealism mapping complex areas of interest such as the emergence of ethical concerns the relationship between ideology and representati

Humanities, 2002 Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Regret and Reinvention Elizabeth Victoria Leake, 1998 Assassinations and Murder in Modern Italy S. Gundle, 2007-10-15 An extraordinary series of murders and political assassinations has marked contemporary Italian history from the killing of the king in 1900 to the assassination of former prime minister Aldo Moro in 1978 This book explores well known and lesser known assassinations and murders in their historical political and cultural contexts The Author in Criticism Elio Attilio Baldi, 2020-03-11 The Author in Criticism Italo Calvino s Authorial Image in Italy the United States and the United Kingdom explores the cultural and historic patterns and differences in the critical readings of Italian author Italo Calvino s works in the United States of America the United Kingdom and Italy It considers the external factors that contribute to create recognizable patterns in the readings of Calvino s texts in different contexts This volume therefore covers most notably matters of genre science fiction postmodernism cultural perceptions and conventions the re current image of the author in different media academic schools curricula and canons biographical information such as gender and background and translation and the language in which the author speaks or fails to speak to us It traces the influence of these aspects in the academic discourse on Calvino The Author in Criticism also analyzes Calvino s various professional roles as writer editor essayist journalist private correspondent and public cosmopolitan intellectual reappraising their often little acknowledged importance for academic criticism An important underlying idea is that the preconceived image that every critic has of Calvino before even opening one of his books is often solidified and repeated even in the most refined and complex critical analyses This volume purposefully foregrounds the textual and non textual parts that are usually considered peripheral to the works of an author such as book covers blurbs reviews talks interviews etc In this way this book provides insight into the reception of Calvino s works in different countries Moreover it forms a broader reflection of and on important constants in the workings of literary criticism and on the way academic discourses have developed in various cultural contexts over the last decades

Cultural Cold Wars and UNESCO in the Twentieth Century W. John

Morgan, 2024-09-30 Cultural Cold Wars and UNESCO in the Twentieth Century addresses the now considerable interest in the concept of cultural cold war as a means of advancing ideologies The book charts the development of the concept in the twentieth century Structured in two parts Part I considers the League of Nations idealist attempts at international intellectual cooperation It discusses also the first cultural cold war with the Communist International's attempts to advance communism It also analyses the ideological and cultural appeal of Italian fascism German national socialism and Japanese nationalist militarism and the transition from a wartime alliance to a new cold war Part II examines the renewal of international intellectual co operation through the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO in the context of a second cultural cold war between the capitalist democracies and the communist bloc The book shows that UNESCO became a site of this ideological competition and an example of its tensions Based on original research and a comprehensive review of the literature including in Russian German and French the book will appeal to academics postgraduate researchers advanced undergraduates and others interested in recent international history and the comparative politics of ideas
