Religion And Atheism In The Ussr And Eastern Europe:

Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Jean K. Laux, 1975 Religion and Nationalism in Soviet and East European Politics Sabrina P. Ramet, 1989 Religious organizations in many countries of the communist world have served as agents for the preservation defense and reinforcement of nationalist feelings and in playing this role have frequently been a source of frustration to the Communist Party elites Although the relationship between governments and religious groups varies according to the particular country and group in question the mosaic of these relationships constitutes a revealing picture of the political reform shaping the lives of Soviet and East European citizens Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Bohdan R. Bociurkiw, John W. Strong, 1975 Human Rights in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Organizations, 1981 Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Branko Bosnjak, 1972 Understanding Soviet Society Michael Paul Sacks, Jerry G. Pankhurst, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1988 Understanding Soviet Society has grown out of the authors experience as sociologists researching and teaching about the Soviet Union Meant initially as an update to Contemporary Soviet Society Sociological Perspectives from 1980 this became a new volume because of the addition of six new authors but also because of the major changes occurring in the USSR today that in many ways necessitated new approaches It examines the fundamnetal institutions of Soviet society from work and social welfare to politics and the Party in order order to provide an objective understanding of the social underpinnigs of the Soviet System Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 Social Currents in Eastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, 1995 Examines the meanings and sources of various social currents intellectual dissent feminism religious activism the formation of independent youth cultures and movements and trade unionism in seven communist countries Christian Religion in the Soviet Union Christel Lane, 1978-01-01 Christel Lane has written the first sociological study of religion in a communist and militantly atheist society Christian Religion in the Soviet Union is the result of a detailed examination of Soviet sociological sources and the legally and illegally published reports of religious bodies or individuals backed up by the observations of the author and of other Western visitors to the USSR Dr Lane attempts to assess the impact of the intellectual and material culture of Soviet society on Christian religion She analyses the religious life in the contemporary Christian churches and sects describing the scope of their membership and its social composition the religious commitment of believers and their social and political orientations Christian Religion in the Soviet Union will be central reading for students of religion in modern industrial society who are working within the disciplines of sociology comparative religion or theology It will also appeal to those studying Soviet society from a more general sociological perspective and to a wide readership interested in the contest between Christian religion and Marxist Leninist ideology International Empirical Studies on Religion and Socioeconomic Human Rights Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2020-03-06

Socioeconomic rights include rights with regard to social security labour and employment as well as cultural rights which may be regarded as a shield for the protection of human dignity especially of specific groups such as women children and refugees The enforceability of socioeconomic rights clearly distinguishes them from other rights These rights need perhaps more than others the support of civil society Because states have leeway in how resources are distributed civil society has a major impact on what resources are used to fulfil socio economic rights One of the actors in the public arena are religious traditions respective Churches Most of them have developed ethical standards for individual conduct and rules for living together in society based on their basic scriptures All three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam are marked by a caring engagement for the poor the sick the old and the foreign From an empirical perspective the general research question of this volume is how young people understand and evaluate socioeconomic rights and to which degree religious convictions and practices are connected with attitudes towards these human rights Can religion be identified as a force supporting the human rights regime and which additional concepts strengthen or weaken the consent to these rights The richness of empirical data contributes to a better understanding how socioeconomic rights are legitimated in the opinion of more than 10 000 respondents in 14 countries

Communism, Atheism and the Orthodox Church of Albania Artan Hoxha, 2022-07-01 This book examines the relations between the Albanian communist regime and the Albanian Autocephalous Orthodox Church AAOC from 1945 when the communists came to power to 1967 when Albania became the only atheistic state in the world and religion of all kinds was completely suppressed Based on extensive archival research the book outlines Orthodox Church life under communism and considers the regime s strategies to control use and subordinate the Church It argues against a simple state oppression versus Church resistance scenario showing that the situation was much more complex with neither the regime nor the Church being monolithic entities It shows how despite the brutality and the constant pressure of the state the Church successfully negotiated with the communist authorities and benefited from engaging with them and how the communist authorities used the Church as a tool of foreign policy especially to strengthen the regime s ties with their East European allies

Atheism and Secularity Phil Zuckerman, 2009-12-21 This important two volume contribution to the field of secular studies offers the first comprehensive examination of atheists and non religious people around the world Who are atheists How does atheism relate to various aspects of our social world such as politics feminism globalization and the family And what is the current state of atheism internationally Atheism and Secularity addresses the growing interest in the non religious world by exploring these and related questions It is a comprehensive and compelling look at atheists and atheism both nationally and internationally covering a range of topics often overlooked in other books on the subject Atheism and Secularity is not a philosophical polemic work but rather an exploration of who atheists are what they believe how they relate to the world and how the world relates to them The first volume focuses on topics such as family life gender sexuality politics and social movements The second volume looks at atheism and secularity

University Theses in Russian, Soviet and East European Studies, 1907-2006 Gregory Piers Mountford Walker, John Simon Gabriel Simmons, 2008 The bibliography records doctoral and selected masters theses over 3 300 in all from British and Irish universities in the field of Russian Soviet and East European studies This is broadly interpreted to include all disciplines in the humanities and social sciences as they relate to the area of Russia the former USSR and Eastern Europe Taken as a whole the work probably forms the fullest and longest record of British and Irish postgraduate research in any sector of area studies Besides its primary function as a bibliographic tool it makes it possible to trace the effects of academic developments institutional policies and the changes in direction in this highly diversified field of study over the last hundred years Entries are arranged by subject and area supported by full author and subject indexes to aid searching Dr Gregory Walker is a former Head of Slavonic and East European Collections at the Bodleian Library University of Oxford The late John S G Simmons OBE was Senior Research Fellow and Librarian All Souls College Oxford The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs The Plot to Kill God Paul Froese, 2008-08-06 The story of the survival of religion in the Soviet Union is one of the great surprises of the end of the twentieth century Indeed it is so surprising that many social scientists write it off attribute it to cultural nationalism or ignore it It is assumed that religion simply was given a temporary reprieve and would shortly succumb to secularization Professor Froese demolishes this assumption Andrew Greeley author of The Catholic Imagination The Plot to Kill God is refreshingly creative in bringing evidence from a neglected but hugely important case to bear on thinking through social scientific theories of religion This is an important contribution to a field greatly in need of just this kind of solid historical case analysis Christian Smith University of Notre Dame A wonderful book that will break the hearts of Richard Dawkins and all the other angry atheists After more than 70 years of intensive educational efforts and brutal persecution of religion there were no fewer believers in Russia than in the United States Rodney Stark Scientific socialism in communist countries turned out to be a hollow faith incapable of replacing more traditional religions Paul Froese beautifully shows why and how this provides us with useful lessons about the continuing power of religion today Daniel Chirot University of Washington Froese compellingly tests many theories about the causes of religious belief strength and resurgence The Plot to Kill God highlights the close link between human nature and religious faith thus making a broad argument about the anthropological foundation of religion while also using the tools of social science to advance our knowledge concepts and theories about religion and society Margarita Mooney University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Occasional Papers on Religion in Eastern Europe ,1981
