Russian Assignment:

Russian Assignment Leslie C. Stevens, 1953      Russian Assignment Leslie C. Stevens, 1954      The World Atlas of Language Structures Martin Haspelmath, 2005-07-21 The World Atlas of Language Structures is a book and CD combination displaying the structural properties of the world's languages. 142 world maps and numerous regional maps all in colour display the geographical distribution of features of pronunciation and grammar such as number of vowels, tone systems, gender, plurals, tense, word order, and body part terminology. Each world map shows an average of 400 languages and is accompanied by a fully referenced description of the structural feature in question. The CD provides an interactive electronic version of the database which allows the reader to zoom in on or customize the maps to display bibliographical sources and to establish correlations between features. The book and the CD together provide an indispensable source of information for linguists and others seeking to understand human languages. The Atlas will be especially valuable for linguistic typologists, grammatical theorists, historical and comparative linguists, and for those studying a region such as Africa, Southeast Asia, North America, Australia, and Europe. It will also interest anthropologists and geographers. More than fifty authors from many different countries have collaborated to produce a work that sets new standards in comparative linguistics. No institution involved in language research can afford to be without it.      Legal guide to investing in Russia,

Interrogativity William Chisholm, Louis T. Milic, John A.C. Greppin, 1984-01-01 This is a comparative study on the subject of interrogativity, presenting broad and narrow attributes on this subject in diverse languages: Russian, Mandarin, Georgian, Bengali, Bantu, Japanese, West Greenlandic, and Ute. Each contribution presents first the basic facts about the language in question, its more recent provenience, facts about numbers of speakers, writing systems, and related areal and sociolinguistic points. An overview of the typological hallmarks follows, together with a sketch of the grammar broadly construed. Finally, the grammar of interrogativity is described, and the semantics and pragmatics of it are explored.      The Russian Armed Forces at the Dawn of the Millennium, 2000 This anthology is an outgrowth of a conference titled 'The Russian Armed Forces at the Dawn of the Millennium' held at the Collins Center of the Army War College's Center for Strategic Leadership from 7 through 9 February 2000. The genesis for the conference was the realization by several members of the staff of the Collins Center and Army War College faculty that the U.S.-led NATO operation in Kosovo resulted in a significant shift of Russian views on the United States and NATO. The conference also complemented our general objective of examining the changing environment in which the United States, including its armed forces, finds itself. The conference brought together over 50 individuals from academia and the policy and intelligence communities to examine the current state of the Russian military. Focusing primarily on the socio-political dimension of the military but not ignoring the military technical dimension, the presentations delivered during the conference looked at Russia's domestic environment, the state of the military, perceived threats, and Russia's capacity to generate responses to those threats. Kastning,2013-11-11 Integer Programming is one of the most fascinating and difficult areas in the field of Mathematical Optimization Due to this fact notable research contributions to Integer Programming have been made in very different branches of mathematics and its applications Since these publications are scattered over many journals proceedings volumes monographs and working papers a comprehensive bibliography of all these sources is a helpful tool even for specialists in this field I initiated this compilation of literature in 1970 at the Institut für Konometrie und Operations Research University of Bonn Since then many collaborators have contributed to and worked on it Among them Dipl Math Claus Kastning has done the bulk of the work With great perseverance and diligence he has gathered all the material and checked it with the original sources The main aim was to incorporate rare and not easily accessible sources like Russian journals preprints or unpublished papers Without the invaluable and dedicated engagement of Claus Kastning the bibliography would never have reached this final version For this reason he must be considered its responsible editor As with any other collection this literature list has a subjective viewpoint and may be in some sense incomplete We have however tried to be as complete as possible The bibliography contains 4704 different publications by 6767 authors which were classified by 11839 descriptor entries      To Amend the Joint Resolution Providing for the Adjudication of Claims of American Nationals Against the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics United States. Millett, 1977 Following the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution the American government refused to grant de jure recognition to the Soviet regime American courts likewise refuse to acknowledge the legal existence of the Soviet Union in matters concerning Russian property in the United States In the 1933 Litvinov Assignment when President Roosevelt granted conditional recognition to Moscow the Soviets assigned its rights to Russian property in the U S to the American government The assignment however proved to be difficult for courts to interpret and implement after 16 years of nonrecognition In 1937 the Supreme Court ruled in United States v Belmont that the assignment had been an executive agreement with the same domestic legal effect as a treaty Five years later it ruled that the American government had a superior claim to disputed Russian property to that of any private claimants because of the 1933 executive agreement A review of the cases concerning the legal effects of Soviet American relations from 1917 to 1942 demonstrates the domestic impacts of foreign relations and the role of the courts as they influence the conduct of foreign relations
