A History of Russian Symbolism Avril Pyman, 2006-03-09 This book is the first detailed history of the Russian Symbolist movement from its initial hostile reception as a symptom of European decadence to its absorption into the mainstream of Russian literature and eventual disintegration It focuses on the two generations of writers whose work served as the seedbed of Existentialism in thought and of Modernism in prose and the performing arts and reassesses their achievements in the light of modern research At the centre of the study are the texts themselves with prose quoted in English translation and poetry given in the original Russian with prose translations There is a valuable bibliography of primary sources and an extensive chronological appendix This book will fill a long felt gap and will be invaluable to students and teachers of Russian and comparative literature Symbolism Modernism and pre revolutionary Russian culture

Realism in the Age of Impressionism Marnin Young, 2015-01-01 The late 1870s and early 1880s were watershed years in the history of French painting As outgoing economic and social structures were being replaced by a capitalist measured time Impressionist artists sought to create works that could be perceived in an instant capturing the sensations of rapidly transforming modern life Yet a generation of artists pushed back against these changes spearheading a short lived revival of the Realist practices that had dominated at mid century and advocating slowness in practice subject matter and beholding In this illuminating book Marnin Young looks closely at five works by Jules Bastien Lepage Gustave Caillebotte Alfred Philippe Roll Jean Francois Raffaeelli and James Ensor artists who shared a concern with painting and temporality that is all but forgotten today having been eclipsed by the ideals of Impressionism Young's highly original study situates later Realism for the first time within the larger social political and economic framework and argues for its centrality in understanding the development of modern art

Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies

His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective
