Examines whether Catholicism should be adapted to suit an individual country's culture and analyzes the structure of the Catholic Church Eucharistic Church, Eucharistic Formation Owen F. Cummings, Mark Nussberger, 2023-02-28

Theological colleges preparing ministerial candidates for ordination are constantly engaged in revising their curricula. In the American Catholic Church at this time in 2022, this process is guided by the US bishops' document, the Program of Priestly Formation. Mount Angel Seminary believes that its theological curriculum, centered on the Eucharist and known as communion ecclesiology, offers an integrated approach to priestly formation in all four dimensions of that document: academic, personal, spiritual, and pastoral. The various essays in this book both illustrate how this is done and offer an example to other institutions involved in priestly formation Word and Sacrament Paul Galbreath, 2024-09-10

In this critical work, liturgical scholar Paul Galbreath brings together key theological insights and historical analysis to offer a theological roadmap of where the Reformed tradition has traveled in order to propose directions for where it is heading. From the time of John Calvin until today, Reformed theology and worship have acknowledged Word and sacrament as central to its Christian identity. Yet the ways in which Scripture is read and used in worship and the ways in which baptism and the Lord's Supper are experienced have varied and developed throughout the history of the Reformed church. By exploring key liturgies, confessions, directories for worship, and theological movements, this book examines common theological themes and commitments that have undergirded worship as well as ways that our understandings and practices have developed in light of new contexts and challenges. Historical insights from the Reformed tradition provide a basis for exploring patterns of worship that maintain the commitment to Word and sacrament while proposing new ways in which Scripture, baptism, and the Lord's Supper can be experienced in the postmodern context. The study of how theological insights have prompted liturgical change provides a roadmap for how worship can adapt to address significant concerns that we face in our communities, congregations, and personal lives, such as caring for the earth and responding to the needs of the poor. Altogether, Word and Sacrament offers constructive and practical directions that will lead to congregational renewal. Martha Moore Keish writes in her foreword: Shaped by his years of serving as a pastor, theologian, and seminary professor, deeply engaged in liturgical and sacramental renewal, Galbreath argues that our theological presuppositions shape liturgical development. This was true for Calvin in the sixteenth century, for Barth in the early twentieth century, for the formation of the Worshipbook and the Book of Common Worship in the late twentieth century, and it remains true today. Given this reality, he argues, we need to make conscious theological choices for the language and images that we use in worship Living the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Christoph Schoenborn, 2011-03-29 Cardinal Christoph Schoenborn, the editor of the monumental Catechism of the Catholic Church, a worldwide best seller, provides a brief and profound commentary on the second part of the Catechism, the sacraments. Schoenborn gives an incisive, detailed analysis of the sacraments, providing a specific meditation for each week of the year on how to better live the Catholic faith with the aid of the sacraments and the Mass, as explained in the Catechism.

Through these 52 meditations Sch nborn s hope is for the reader to not just have a better grasp of the Catholic doctrine and belief but especially to grow in a greater love of and devotion to the person of Jesus Christ Faith is a whole It has only one heart one center Jesus Christ the Son of the living God Christ must therefore also be the center of catechesis whose object is putting people in communion with Jesus Christ only He can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit Cardinal Christoph

Sch nborn Religious Potential of the Child 6 to 12 Years Old Sofia Cavalletti,2020-04-09 This volume is the long awaited continuation of The Religious Potential of the Child from 3 to 6 years old The author Sofia Cavaletti founder of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd describes an approach to the religious education of children according to the methods of Maria Montessori which has gained worldwide attention In this book she draws on her long experience with children from diverse cultures and environments to describe the vital religious needs of the older child 6 to 12 years old The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for the older child builds on the foundation in Scripture and liturgy offered to the younger child 3 to 6 years old The theme of the covenant between God and humankind first revealed to the people of Israel is expanded to include the dimension of time all of history from creation to the parousia For the older child awareness of participation in this covenant relationship leads spontaneously to a sense of moral responsibility and of engagement with the cosmos in all its manifestations This book will be a great help to educators and catechists who seek to understand the characteristics of the older child particularly the child s relationship with the mystery of God The Roots of the Catholic Tradition Thomas P. Rausch,2002-09-27 It is a pleasure to recommend the book to those looking for an introductory text upon which to base a course on the development of Catholicism to those training adult RCIA catechists to those teaching adult religious education courses and to those who just want to see how it ought to be and can be done David P Killen Biblical Theology Bulletin

The Church Quarterly Review ,1925 Church William Henn,2004-01-04 Henn think that the Church is a uniquely distinctive grouping of people because its origins and aims fundamentally concern the relationship of humans with God Because God initiates this relationship the Church is rightly understood as the result of his redeeming activity He argues that the encounter with Christ which gave birth to the Church is as necessary as ever for it to continue in existence now Thus the Church today needs to be a community in which people can meet the living risen Jesus All those who know Christ should be friends to each other and should share the Eucharist which Jesus gave the Church to evening before his death Therefore the great fruits of the ecumenical movement during the past century need to serve as the basis for realistic steps towards greater communion T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish,James Farwell,2022-12-29

Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies Faith and the Sacraments Thomas G.

Weinandy, 2022-10-11 In September of 2014 thirty new members were appointed for a five year term to the Vatican's International Theological Commission These theologians clerical and lay were chosen from twenty six different countries and from five continents The commission was charged with composing three documents of contemporary theological importance one of which was that of the relationship between faith and the sacraments This finished document was published with the approval of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and by Pope Francis in Spanish in early 2020 under the title La Reciprocidad entre Fe y Sacramentos en la Economía Sacramental A subsequent English translation was published thereafter under the title The Reciprocity Between Faith and Sacraments in the Sacramental Economy This present volume contains the text of the English translation There follows an introduction by a member of the ITC Thomas G Weinandy OFM Cap and subsequently followed by six explanatory and interpretive commentaries on various chapters of the document Dr John Yocum considers the contemporary relevance of the topic Dr Christopher Ruddy examines the dialogical nature of the sacramental economy of salvation Dr Jennifer Holmes Martin discusses the relationship between faith and the sacraments of initiation There are two commentaries for section four concerning faith and the sacrament of marriage Professor John Grabowski treats the strictly theological issues relating to faith and marriage Canonist Timothy Cavanaugh takes up the canonical issues regarding faith and its relationship to enacting a valid sacramental marriage Dr Daniel Keating rounds off the commentaries by surveying the conclusion of the document that is the present need for evangelization so as to enliven the faith of the faithful and the present relevance of the new ecclesial movements within the Church today These commentaries are aimed at aiding priests and seminarians as they address or prepare to address the pastoral and theological concerns they encounter or will encounter on a daily basis This volume could also be used in parish adult education groups as well wherein the laity could better understand the relationship between faith and the sacraments For the Communion of the Churches Groupe des Dombes, 2010-12-17 Founded by Abb Paul Couturier in 1937 the Groupe des Dombes is a Protestant Catholic coalition in French speaking Europe uniting Reformed Lutheran and Catholic scholars in a common spirit of prayer dialogue and discernment Its pioneering work of reconciliation has influenced many other official ecumenical dialogues This volume presents six statements produced by the Groupe des Dombes from 1971 to 1991 which appear here together in English translation for the first time These substantial documents express the Groupe's keen insights into the renewal of theology and church life that is necessary for progress toward full ecclesial unity and they invite churches to pursue fruitful dialogue mutual understanding harmony and the hopeful vision of a future in full communion In the journey of the churches toward the unity for which Christ prayed no other informal group of scholars has been so influential or long standing in their service as the French Groupe des Dombes We can be grateful to have this group of texts drawn together including one newly translated which have had such a historic role in developing agreements among the churches The skillful introduction makes these texts a useful resource for teaching exploring ecumenical history and providing resources for church leaders in their response to Christ's prayer that they all may be one Jeffrey Gros FSC Memphis Theological Seminary Until now most of these Groupe des Dombes documents have not been readily accessible to English language readers We are very grateful to Catherine E Clifford for collecting these important documents and for translating the text on the papal ministry This book will help many people to progress toward the communion of the churches Joseph Famere Catholic University of Louvain
