Sacred Bridges Making Lasting Connection:

Dogged Out For Love Shirley Wright, 2006-03-29 Love is something everybody needs and doesn't know what it really means without knowing the love of God. For in Him only is there real love. And we can't even begin to understand or fathom what love really means without Him. We look for it in all the wrong places. But we will never find it there. It's not in mankind; it's not in anything in this world the way we perceive it. Until we realize that it only comes from God, we will only find hurt and pain and misery. Believe me, I know there are lots of Christians still looking for love in the wrong places. It's sad to say. And we are being destroyed and don't understand why. So we think God has let us down and we blame Him for our depression, hurt and pain. We wonder why the Lord doesn't help us. But what we don't realize is that God is helping us even though we don't know it. You see, the devil is fooling us. He is taking our focus off Jesus and putting it on people and things so we can't be all that God has for us to be. The failure is not in God; it's in us. You may say, "I gave him or her all the love I had and he or she betrayed me. How could they do me like that?" But what we fail to realize is that God is our first love and we must receive His love and give Him our love first. John 10:10 says, "The thief comes to kill, steal and destroy. And that is what he has been doing. But you don't have to let him get away with it. Jesus came that we might have life and more abundantly. Otherwise, Jesus is life in every area of our lives if we let him. We need to ask Him to lead and guide us in all things." Proverbs 3:5-6 says, "trust in the Lord with all thine heart; lean not unto thine own understanding; in all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy path." So the failure is not in God; it's in us for not seeking God's help. Believe me, I know. I've been there. I've done that. I gave all I had to give to the wrong men, yes, men. I say men because I kept trying to please them so they would love me. But it didn't work. They betrayed me, jumped on me and stepped on me like a floor mat that said "Welcome." I know how it feels to be dogged out for love or so-called love. It sucks. As we receive God's love, then and only then will we know what love is really about. It's not a fancy or fairy tale. God's love is divine. He is not looking at your faults. He is looking at your needs. Man's love, so-called love, that is cold, taking and not wanting to give. They lie, they cheat, they take away our pride and self-esteem, they pull us down and then they have the nerve to tell us it's our fault that they treat us the way they do. The devil is a liar. The devil wants us to believe that we have to take all kinds of abuse that is just the way it is. But the devil is a liar. We don't need that kind of man because you see, he's not a real man anyway. He's just something wearing a pair of pants. Remember, we can make it just us and God. God will bring us through. But we must learn to trust Him. I have been through hell and high waters. I've been a floor mat, a punching bag. I've been stressed out. I have even tried to take my life a few times when I was younger. But I thank God that He said, "You shall live and not die." Satan was trying to take me out to stop me. Now I know what it is to be dogged out and kicked to the curb. I know how it feels to be turned inside out, not knowing if you are coming or going, not knowing what to do next. For some so-called love. As far as I am concerned, they can keep it. I don't need it and neither do you. Why take less when we can have the best? God did not make woman to be a man's floor mat. He made us to be his helpmate. But we can't help

City of Peace David Hoicka, Transform Conflict into Cooperation The Mediator s Path from War to Peace In a world increasingly divided by politics race religion and ideology City of Peace Mediation Prosperity and Happiness Building bridges in a fragmented world offers hope grounded in practical methodology This essential guide reveals how mediation the structured process of transforming conflict through facilitated dialogue can move individuals communities and nations from the City of War to the City of Peace Author David Hoicka one of Singapore s Principal Mediators draws on years of experience and powerful global examples to demonstrate that sustainable peace isn t achieved through victory over enemies but through skilled transformation of relationships From the Christmas Truce of 1914 to modern day community mediation programs from post genocide reconciliation in Rwanda to political transformation in Tunisia this book proves that the deepest conflicts can be resolved when approached with mediation's tools. The City of War tells us that difference means danger that someone must lose for others to win that safety comes through domination. We see its logic everywhere in political campaigns that demonize opponents in communities segregated by fear in workplaces where departments battle for resources in families torn apart by conflict. But the City of Peace operates on different principles. Here diversity strengthens communities. Former enemies become collaborators. Conflicts catalyze growth rather than destruction. This isn't wishful thinking; it's proven practice. City of Peace provides step-by-step guidance for applying mediation principles at every level of human interaction. Readers learn to create safe spaces for difficult conversations, identify shared interests beneath opposing positions, facilitate productive dialogue across deep divides, and build sustainable agreements that address all parties' core needs. The book's comprehensive approach covers mediation in political polarization, community conflicts, workplace disputes, family disagreements, and even online interactions. Special attention is given to education, showing how teaching mediation skills to children creates generations capable of handling differences constructively. Each technique is illustrated with real examples of transformation from Belfast neighborhoods where former enemies now collaborate to American communities using participatory budgeting to replace budget battles with cooperative planning. Hoicka writes with both gravitas and accessibility, making complex mediation concepts understandable for general readers while providing depth that satisfies professionals. The book avoids academic jargon while maintaining intellectual rigor, speaking equally to world leaders and concerned citizens. City of Peace is organized in four parts: Foundations, understanding our fragmentation and the mediator's mindset; Building Bridges, core mediation techniques; From Vision to Reality, applying mediation at scale; and Sustaining Peace, creating cultures that handle conflict constructively. Each chapter ends with practical applications readers can implement immediately. As pollution, remediation, economic inequality, and technological disruption create new sources of conflict, humanity's survival may depend on our ability to cooperate across traditional divides. City of Peace provides the blueprint for this essential transformation. Whether you're a leader seeking to unite divided communities or an individual wanting to handle personal conflicts better, this book offers tools that work. The journey from the City of War to the City of Peace begins with a single choice: picking up mediation's tools instead of weapons of division. This book shows you how.
