Sacred Interconnections Postmodern Spirituality Political Economy And Art:

Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles      Beginning Postmodernism Tim Woods, 1999-08-20

Postmodernism has become the buzzword of contemporary society Yet it remains baffling in its variety of definitions contexts and associations Beginning Postmodernism aims to offer clear accessible and step by step introductions to postmodernism across a wide range of subjects It encourages readers to explore how the debates about postmodernism have emerged from basic philosophical and cultural ideas With its emphasis firmly on postmodernism in practice the book contains exercises and questions designed to help readers understand and reflect upon a variety of positions in the following areas of contemporary culture philosophy and cultural theory architecture and concepts of space visual art sculpture and the design arts popular culture and music film video and television culture and the social sciences      Cultural Rights and Justice John

Clammer, 2018-12-11 This book provides an innovative contribution to the emerging field of culture and development through the lens of cultural rights arguing in favour of a fruitful dialogue between human rights development studies critical cultural studies and concerns about the protection and preservation of cultural diversity It breaks with established approaches by introducing the themes of aesthetics embodiment narrative and peace studies into the field of culture and development and in doing so proposes both an expanded conception of cultural rights and a holistic vision of development that not only includes these elements in a central way but which argues that genuine sustainability must include the cultural dimension including the notion of cultural justice as recognition protection and respect extended to the many expressions of human imagination in this world      Curriculum Histories in Place, in Person, in Practice Petra Hendry, Molly Quinn, Roland

Mitchell, Jacqueline Bach, 2023-03-10 This book situates the Curriculum Theory Project at Louisiana State University within a larger historical framework of curriculum work examining the practices which have sustained this type of curricular vitality over the lifetime of the field s existence Divided into seven parts the authors illuminate seven practices which have sustained the scholarship graduate programs mentorship and networking that have been critical to maintaining a web of international relationships This exploration and coming together of intergenerational stories reveals a more complete and nuanced narrative of the development of curriculum theory over the last 60 years Crucially the project exemplifies the continuing resilience of curriculum theory despite ongoing neo liberal aspirations to reframe education as a business Reflecting upon the lived experiences and articulated memories of those who have participated in the project and analysis of documents collected over its 25 year history it considers curriculum history ies writ large through and from this lens of practice As such it opens up fresh insights for cultivating the vitality and vigor of curriculum theory more broadly on an international scale and with a view to future directions for the field It will appeal to both new and experienced scholars working across education foundations urban education philosophy of education and higher education and researchers from across history sociology anthropology ethnic studies and gender studies      The Social Self in Zen and American Pragmatism Steve

Odin,1996-01-01 This is the first book on East West comparative thought to critically analyze the Zen Buddhist model of self in modern Japanese philosophy from the standpoint of American pragmatism      Vision and Society John

Clammer,2014-03-26 The sociology of art is now an established sub discipline of sociology But little work has been done to explore the implications not of society on art but of art on the nature and principles of sociology itself Vision and Society explores the ways in which art here mainly understood as visual art structures in fundamental ways the constitution of society the relations between societies and the ways in which society and culture should be theorized Building initially on an unfulfilled project by the French sociologist of art Nathalie Heinich to derive a sociology from art this book pushes this idea in unconventional directions Rethinking the relationships between the study of art and the study of sociology and anthropology this book explores how this rethinking might impact sociological theory in general and certain aspects of it in particular especially the study of social movements social change the urban the constitution of space and the ways in which human social relationships are mediated and expressed      United States Foreign Policy and the Prospects for Peace

Education Carl Mirra,2008-03-31 In light of the United States age of terrorism and the controversial involvement in the war in Iraq U S policies toward diplomatic peace education are coming under increasing scrutiny This book evaluates the prospects for effective U S peace education in the context of post 1945 U S foreign policy The work first documents the disparity between U S pronouncements about protecting human rights and the country s systematic erosion of those rights in the international arena Second it evaluates the challenges that the war on terrorism poses for peace education and explores the importance of international treaties in upholding security A final section explores new ways of thinking and relating that are ultimately necessary for the realization of nonviolent peacekeeping efforts Designed as a resource text for U S educators the text offers concrete proposals for addressing contentious foreign policy issues in the classroom and includes an appendix of primary documents and sample questions for easy use      Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier,2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volume explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today's significant issues such as identity politics dislocation postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and global feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today

Cultures of Transition and Sustainability John Clammer, 2016-06-10 Contending that culture lies at the root of our current planetary and civilizational crisis this book uniquely explores the nature of the specifically cultural dimensions of that crisis and how culture relates to the areas of politics policy economics ecology and the whole discourse of sustainability It debates how profoundly our world is shaped by capitalist culture emphasizing the import of political culture and policy social justice leadership and community in the shaping of a new cultural sustainability It also reintroduces questions of religion art citizenship and comparative culture into the sustainability debate and suggests ways in which the central issue of consumer culture can be rethought and others in which socially satisfactory transitions to a sustainable future might be achieved Addressing the specific role of culture in our crisis and of how to build cultural resources for transition this cutting edge text provides the reader with an introduction to the literature on culture and sustainability and both practical and theoretical tools for creating and advancing a humane and ecologically responsible future

Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber, 2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead's treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker      Evil Revisited David Ray Griffin,1991-07-03 In this book Griffin responds to critiques of his earlier work God Power and Evil A Process Theodicy and discusses ways in which his position has changed in the intervening years In so doing he examines the problem of evil theodicy and philosophical theology and contrasts traditional theism and process theism with regard to the question of omnipotence      Diffraction Reading Kai Merten,2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a criticalintervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffraction Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live      Transformational Politics Stephen Brim Woolpert,Christa Daryl Slaton,Edward W. Schwerin,1998-01-01 Argues that traditional political science is failing to identify and address fundamental political phenomena of our time and proposes an alternative value based political science      Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M.,      The Virtue of Nonviolence Nicholas F. Gier,2004-01-01 A study in comparative virtue ethics      Popular Culture and Critical Pedagogy Toby Daspit,John A. Weaver,2012-09-10 This collection attempts to incorporate cultural studies into the understanding of schooling not simply addressing how students read themselves as members of a distinct culture but how they along with teachers and administrators read popular texts in general The purpose of this book is to suggest some alternative directions critical pedagogy can take in its critique of popular culture by inviting multiple reading of popular texts into its analysis of schooling and seeing many forms of popular culture as critical pedagogical texts      Mothership Connections Theodore Walker Jr.,2012-02-01 Bringing a black Atlantic approach to constructive postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders Mothership Connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of W E B Du Bois Charles H Long Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne The author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black

Atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity He also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black Atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation A Post-Modern Perspective on Curriculum William E. Doll Jr.,1993 Doll draws relationships among the ideas advanced in chaos theory Piagetian epistemology cognitive theory and the work of Dewey and Whitehead In this book on the post modern perspective on the curriculum the author asserts that the post modern model of organic change is not necessarily linear uniform measured and determined but is one of emergence and growth made possible by interaction transaction disequilibrium and consequent equilibrium Transformation not a set course the book argues should be the rule and open endedness is an essential feature of the post modern framework In the book the author envisages a curriculum in which the teacher s role is not causal but transformative The curriculum is not the race course but the journey itself metaphors can be more useful than logic in generating dialogue in the community and educative purpose planning and evaluation is flexible and focused on process not product Scholarly yet direct and to the point Doll s ideas make sense to front line educators in the real world of today s schools Kenneth Graham Seaford Union Free School District

Theology and the University David Ray Griffin,Joseph C. Hough Jr.,1991-03-21 This book explores the relationship between theology and the modern university Most of the essays were written specifically for this volume and all of them are published here for the first time David Ray Griffin Gordon Kaufman Hans K ng Schubert Ogden and Wolfhart Pannenberg address the question of whether theology belongs in the university at all Essays by Joseph Hough Catherine Keller and Marjorie Suchoki argue that theology has a vital role in helping the university recover its central mission that of educating for the sake of the common good Thomas Altizer William Beardslee and Jack Verheyden provide historical analyses of the interactions between theology and the university with Altizer focusing on the modern divorce between faith and reason Beardslee on the relevance of the renewed emphasis upon rhetoric and Verheyden on the ideal of knowledge As a whole Theology and the University presents an impressive case against the position that theology is inappropriate in the university It argues not only that theology has a rightful place in the university but also that the university needs theology just as theology needs the university
