Reconsidering Informality Karen Tranberg Hansen, Mariken Vaa, 2004 This book brings together two bodies of research on urban Africa that have tended to be separate studies of urban land use and housing and studies of work and livelihoods Africa's future will be increasingly urban and the inherited legal institutional and financial arrangements for managing urban development are inadequate Access to employment shelter and services is precarious for most urban residents The result is the phenomenal growth of the informal city Extra legal housing and unregistered economic activities proliferate and basic urban services are increasingly provided informally Recent decades of neo liberal political and economic reforms have increased social inequality across urban space After an introductory chapter by the editors the contributions are grouped into the following sections LOCALITY PLACE AND SPACE ECONOMY WORK AND LIVELIHOODS LAND HOUSING AND PLANNING The case studies are drawn from a diverse set of cities on the African continent A central theme is how practices that from an official standpoint are illegal or extra legal do not only work but are considered legitimate by the actors concerned Another is how the informal city is not exclusively the domain of the poor but also provides shelter and livelihoods for better off segments of the urban population Singing Culture Ezra Chitando, 2002 This study examines the

The Gender of Piety Wendy

Urban-Mead,2015-07-15 The Gender of Piety is an intimate history of the Brethren in Christ Church in Zimbabwe or BICC as related through six individual life histories that extend from the early colonial years through the first decade after independence Taken together these six lives show how men and women of the BICC experienced and sequenced their piety in different ways Women usually remained tied to the church throughout their lives while men often had a more strained relationship with it Church doctrine was not always flexible enough to accommodate expected masculine gender roles particularly male membership in political and economic institutions or participation in important male communal practices The study is based on more than fifteen years of extensive oral history research supported by archival work in Zimbabwe the United Kingdom and the United States The oral accounts make it clear official versions to the contrary that the church was led by spiritually powerful women and that maleness and mission church notions of piety were often incompatible The life history approach illustrates how the tension of gender roles both within and without the church manifested itself in sometimes unexpected ways for example how a single family could produce both a legendary woman pastor credited with mediating multiple miracles and a man her son who joined the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union nationalist political party and fought in Zimbabwe s liberation war in the 1970s Investigating the lives of men and women in equal measure The Gender of Piety uses a gendered interpretive lens to analyze the complex relationship between the church and broader social change in this region of southern Africa Contested Terrains And Constructed Categories George Clement Bond,2018-02-19 Contested Terrains and Constructed Categories brings together intellectuals from a variety of fields backgrounds generations and continents to deepen and reinvigo rate the theoretical and intellectual integrity of African studies Building on recent debate within African studies that has revolved around the role of Africanists in the United States as gatekeepers of knowledge about Africa and Africans this volume of interdisciplinary essays focuses on the contested character of the production of knowledge itself In every chapter case studies and ethnographic materials drawn from such regions as South Africa Mozambique Zimbabwe the Malagasy Republic Angola Ghana and Senegal demonstrate the application of theory to concrete situations Africa's Urban Revolution Doctor Edgar Pieterse,Susan Parnell,2014-01-09 The facts of Africa s rapid urbanisation are startling By 2030 African cities will have grown by more than 350 million people and over half the continent s population will be urban Yet in the minds of policy makers scholars and much of the general public Africa remains a quintessentially rural place This lack of awareness and robust analysis means it is difficult to make a policy case for a more overtly urban agenda As a result there is across the continent insufficient urgency directed to responding to the challenges and opportunities associated with the world s last major wave of urbanisation Drawing on the expertise of scholars and practitioners associated with the African Centre for Cities and utilising a diverse array of case studies Africa s Urban Revolution provides a comprehensive insight into the key issues demographic cultural political technical environmental and economic surrounding African urbanisation Genders, Sexualities, and
