Imperial Japanese Commission to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, 1904 Australian Crime Fiction Stephen Knight, 2018-06-28 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country's origins as an 18th century English prison colony. Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted. Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume's 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne. The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police. Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives. The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre Contract on a Cop Robert Gregory, 2009-01-28 Detective Bobby Marino is back with his elite squad of detectives. In this twisting thriller his team is involved with the DEA in a raid on a major heroin kingpin and the mob family that supplies his organization. Millions in drug monies are stolen during the raid and the drug kingpin seeks revenge. Cops DEA agents informants drug dealers and users are all being viciously killed and Marino is next on the list. When his family comes under attack he can only trust his closest friends for help. Arrested and disgraced for trying to protect himself he has no choice but to fight back. And when the mob gets after him he turns to one of their own an old friend since childhood who tries to help him out but only succeeds in drawing more fuel to the fire. Marino finds himself a hunted man with a bounty on his head. It's a move that the bad guys just don't make against a cop unless they've been pushed to the edge and that's just what Marino did. Now there's a contract on a cop Every Midget Has an Uncle Sam Costume Donald Bain, 2002 The Great Cop Pictures James Robert Parish, 1990-09 In this pathfinding new work the author has included many of the major and minor cop film titles to emerge from Hollywood over the decades Chill Of Night John Lutz, 2010-09-01 The Justice Killer. There's a twisted serial killer stalking the streets of New York City dealing his own perverse version of justice. He kills swiftly and silently leaving his calling card a red J on the bodies of his prey. His victims have one thing in common they've all been jurors in the city's most infamous cases cases in which the killer was found not guilty. Overnight the Justice Killer has the city in a stranglehold. And there's only one man who has a shot at finding him. Homicide detective Artemis Beam made his reputation hunting down serial killers. After getting shot by an armed robber and stepping on the wrong toes in the NYPD he's been retired. The city needs him now and finding the killer is his chance to get back into the life he loves. As the body count climbs and the city's legal system fails the Justice Killer thinks he's outsmarted the cops. But Beam isn't officially a cop anymore and he doesn't have to play by the rules New York Magazine, 1994-10-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country.
