Shalom Perry B. Yoder, 1998 Shalom Perry Yoder, 2017-03-24 The biblical challenge of shalom is one which ought to draw all Christians together in a common struggle so that God's will might be done and God's kingdom might come on earth as it is in heaven People as well as structures need to be transformed People who are caught in oppressive structures need to be liberated from the values and perspectives inculcated by these structures The shalom maker as a result is involved in a mission of conversion converting people to a new understanding and way of life This conversion based on God's love for them in Jesus frees them from old patterns of thought If we struggle for shalom we shall suffer because we are actively confronting and resisting the structures of oppression and working for the liberation of powerless and oppressed people Shalom love is not love at a distance not love in the abstract not love in the rocking chair it is the love of confrontation of strike of protest and of disobedience to the structures of violence Shalom love is suffering love because it is militant love struggling for human liberation justice and shalom which is God's will for our world Shalom Perry B. Atonement, Justice, and Peace Darrin W. Snyder Belousek, 2012 In this substantial study Darrin W Snyder Belousek offers a comprehensive and critical examination of penal substitution the most widely accepted evangelical Protestant theory of atonement and presents a biblically grounded theologically orthodox alternative Attending to all of the relevant biblical texts and engaging with the full spectrum of scholarship Belousek systematically develops a biblical theory of atonement that centers on restorative rather than retributive justice He also shows how Christian thinking on atonement correlates with major global concerns such as economic justice capital punishment the war on terror and ethnic and religious conflicts Thorough and clearly structured this book demonstrates how a return to biblical cruciformity can radically transform Christian mission social justice and peacemaking Killing Enmity Thomas R. Yoder Neufeld, 2011-06-01 Is the New Testament inherently violent In this book a well regarded New Testament scholar offers a balanced critical assessment of charges and claims that the Christian scriptures encode instigate or justify violence Thomas Yoder Neufeld provides a useful

introduction to the language of violence in current theological discourse and surveys a wide range of key ethical New Testament texts through the lens of violence nonviolence He makes the case that contrary to much scholarly opinion the New Testament is not in itself inherently violent or supportive of violence instead it rejects and overcomes violence Published in the UK by SPCK as Jesus and the Subversion of Violence Wrestling with the New Testament Evidence Ex Auditu - Volume 22 Klyne Snodgrass,2007-04-01 Ex Auditu began as the journal incorporating the papers of the Fredrick Neumann Symposium of Princeton Theological Seminary After the first four volumes the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today s Church Additionally each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon which makes it a practical guide for pastors EDITOR Dr Stephen Chester Associate Professor of New Testament North Park Theological Seminary EDITOR EMERITUS Dr Klyne R Snodgrass Paul W Brandel Professor of New Testament Studies at North Park Theological Seminary ASSOCIATE EDITOR Dr D Christopher Spinks Acquisitions Editor at Wipf and Stock Publishers EDITORIAL BOARD Terence E Fretheim Luther Seminary St Paul MN Richard B Hays Duke Divinity School Durham NC Jon R Stock Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR Miroslav Volf Yale Divinity School New Haven CT John Wipf Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION Individuals U S A and all other countries in U S funds 20 00 Students 12 00 Institutions 30 in the U S and 40 for international shipments in U S funds To subscribe Send pertinent information to Wipf and Stock Publishers at orders wipfandstock com and indicate your preferred method of payment Back issues are available through Wipf and Stock Publishers Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture at North Park DETAILS For more information about the symposium click here INQUIRIES Other inquiries should be addressed to one of the following Dr Dennis Edwards Associate Professor of New Testament North Park Theological Seminary 3225 W Foster Ave Chicago IL 60625 Telephone 773 244 6238 Email sdredwards northpark edu Chris Spinks Acquisitions Editor Wipf and Stock Publishers 199 W 8th Ave Ste 3 Eugene OR 97401 Telephone 541 344 1528 Fax 541 344 1506 Email chris wipfandstock com Justice as a Basic Human Need Antony James William Taylor,2006 Psychologists in different tributaries of the discipline have long been preoccupied with aspects of Justice but none previously has addressed the essential question raised in this book namely of justice being as vital to the essentials of life and to the flowering of the human spirit as other basic needs The same can be said for academics and practitioners in other disciplines in social science as well as those in mental health and psychiatry Although lawyers might come close to accepting the proposition it seems to me that in the main their professional expertise is directed to the superficial maintenance of systems of justice rather than to the underlying reasons for doing so This book arising from academic clinical empirical and theoretical studies goes the further mile by giving justice its proper place in the hierarchy of basic human needs It is designed in accord with a general systems theory in which contributions are welcomed from international scholars and researchers in different domains of knowledge Above all it is written in the hope of inducing others to share a commitment to justice and do their utmost to prevent injustice

Beyond Retribution Christopher D. Marshall, 2001 Recently a growing number of Christians have actively promoted the concept of restorative justice and attempted to develop programs for dealing with crime based on restorative principles But is this approach truly consistent with the teaching of Scripture To date very little has been done to test this claim Beyond Retribution fills a gap by plumbing the New Testament on the topics of crime justice and punishment Christopher Marshall first explores the problems involved in applying ethical teachings from the New Testament to mainstream society He then surveys the extent to which the New Testament addresses criminal justice issues looking in particular at the concept of the justice of God in the teachings of Paul and Jesus He also examines the topic of punishment reviewing the debate in social thinking over the ethics and purpose of punishment including capital punishment and he advocates a new concept of restorative punishment The result of this engaging work is a biblically based challenge to imitate the way of Christ in dealing with both victims and offenders Publisher

Noakes-Duncan,2017-10-19 By bringing together the insights of ecclesial ethics an approach that emphasizes the distinctive nature of the church as the community that forms its mind and character after its reading of Scripture with the theory and practice of restorative justice a way of conceiving justice making that emerged from the Mennonite Anabaptist tradition this book shows why a theological account of the theory and practice of restorative justice is fruitful for articulating and clarifying the witness of the church especially when faced with conflict or wrongdoing This can help extend the church s imagination as to how it might better become God s community of restoration as it reflects on the ways in which the justice of God is taking shape in its own community How does an ecclesial context shape the theological apprehension and praxis of justice This question orientates the book In particular it asks how in view of its members having been admitted into God s restoring justice in Christ the church might embody in the world this same justice of restoring right relationships While Christian reflection on the nature of justice has tended to favour a judicial and retributive conception of justice it will be argued that the biblical understanding of the justice of God is best understood as a saving liberating and restorative justice It is this restorative conception that ought to guide the community that reads Scripture so that it might be embodied in life
