Webby,2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature Children's Voices from the Past Kristine Moruzi,Nell Musgrove,Carla Pascoe Leahy,2019-04-23 This book explores a central methodological issue at the heart of studies of the histories of children and childhood It questions how we understand the perspectives of children in the past and not just those of the adults who often defined and constrained the parameters of youthful lives Drawing on a range of different sources including institutional records interviews artwork diaries letters memoirs and objects this interdisciplinary volume uncovers the voices of historical children and discusses the challenges of situating these voices and interpreting juvenile agency and desire Divided into four sections the book considers children s voices in different types of historical records examining children s letters and correspondence as well as multimedia texts such as film advertising and art along with oral histories and institutional archives Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur,2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded neglected or simply forgotten in the long running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity Drawing upon memories letters interviews and documentary fragments as well as rich archives the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home Poetics and Politics of Shame in Postcolonial Literature David Attwell,Annalisa Pes,Susanna Zinato,2019-05-07 Poetics and Politics of Shame in Postcolonial Literature provides a new and wide ranging appraisal of shame in colonial and postcolonial literature in English Bringing together young and established voices in postcolonial studies these essays tackle shame and racism shame and agency shame and ethical recognition the problem of shamelessness the shame of willed forgetfulness Linked by a common thread of reflections on shame and literary writing the essays consider specifically whether the aesthetic and ethical capacities of literature enable a measure of stability or recuperation in the presence of shame s destructive potential The obscenity of the in human both in the colonial setting and in aftermaths that show little sign of abating entails the acute significance of shame as a subject for continuing and urgent critical attention Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler,2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia s history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s

witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia's indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction's critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond, 2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being The Shame of Death, Grief, and Trauma Jeffrey Kauffman, 2011-01-19 Shame is a common and pervasive feature of the human response to death and other losses yet this often goes unrecognized due to a reluctance to acknowledge and confront it This book intends to expose shame for what it is allowing clinicians to see that it is the central psychological force in the understanding of death and mourning Kauffman and his fellow authors explore the psychology of shame via observation reflection theory and practice in order to demonstrate the significant role it can play in our processing of grief death and trauma The authors avoid defining a unified theory of shame in order to emphasize its multitude of meanings and the impact this has on grief and grief therapy First person narratives provide a personal look at death and associated feelings of guilt shock and grief and other chapters consider shame in the context of cultural differences recent events and contemporary art literature and film This is the first book to offer a comprehensive examination of this topic and as such will be a valuable resource for all clinicians who work with clients affected by grief and loss Offshoot Donna Lee Brien, Quinn Eades, 2018 Offshoot includes essays in life writing methodologies and approaches as well as a series of creative work poetry and prose that engages with current life writing This collection highlights the development and influence of the genre in the twenty first century Starting from the premise that life writing is a significant component of both contemporary artistic practice and scholarship Offshoot provides a necessary re evaluation of the mode its contemporary sub generic incarnations as well as methodological and practical approaches The book presents research on a wide range of approaches including both traditional areas such as literature and creative writing and areas that have not previously been associated with life writing scholarship With its multifaceted readings Offshoot signals a shift in life writing research tending towards an expansive hybrid experimental and rhizomic approach Subject Life Writing Education Literature Autobiography, Travel and Postnational Identity Javed Majeed,2007-01-18 This book examines concepts of travel in the autobiographies of leading Indian nationalists in order to show how nationalism is grounded in notions of individual selfhood and how the writing of autobiography fused with the genre of the travelogue played a key role in formulating the complex tie between interiority and nationality in South Asia

Shameful Autobiographies Shame In Contemporary Australian Autobiographies And Culture : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
